*Alright Be good and
Have fun, see you
Dave*

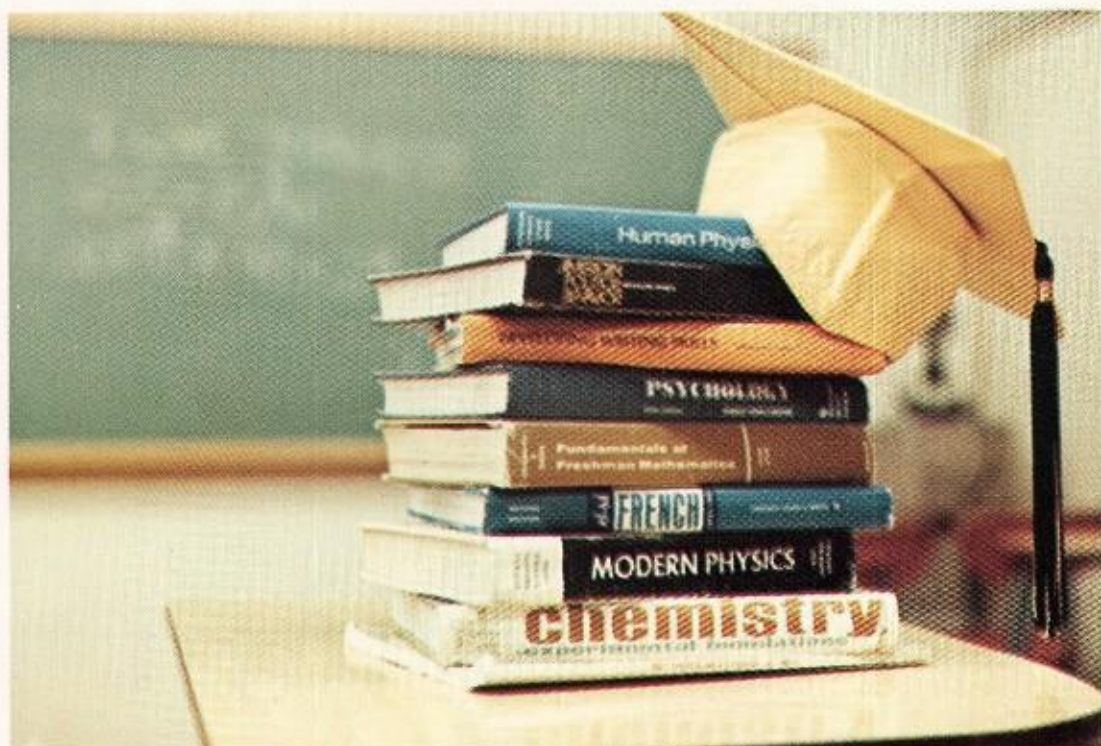

If you have built castles in the air,
your work need not be lost;
that is where they should be.
Now put foundations under them.

Henry David Thoreau

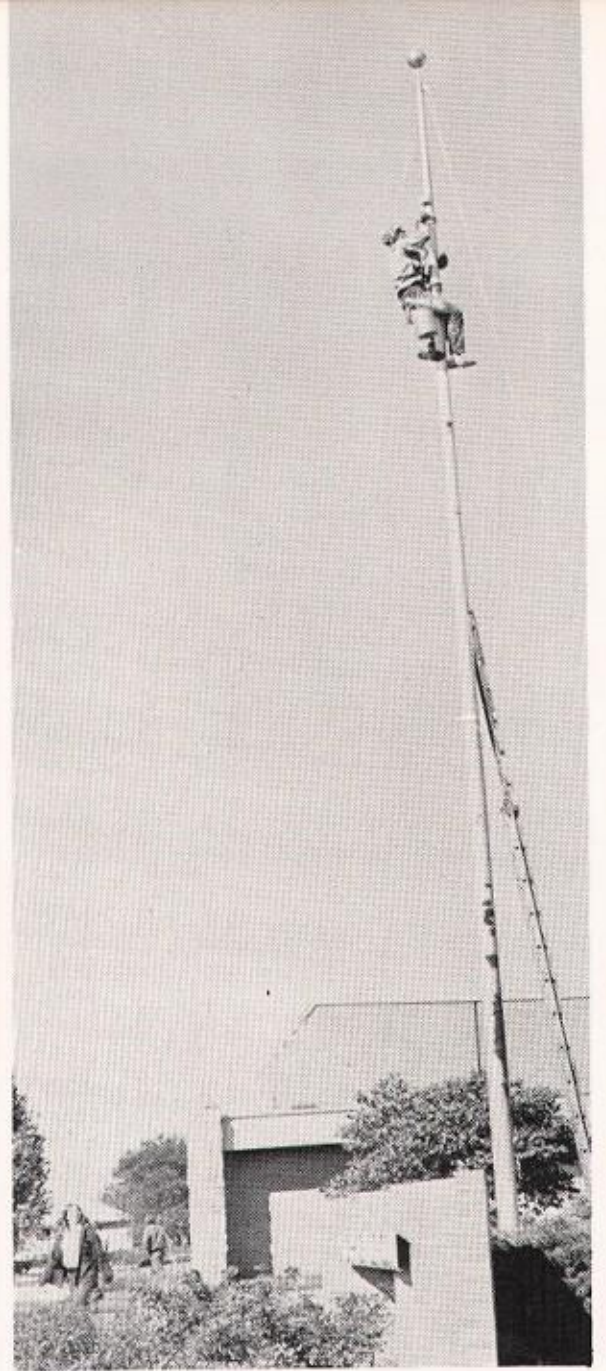

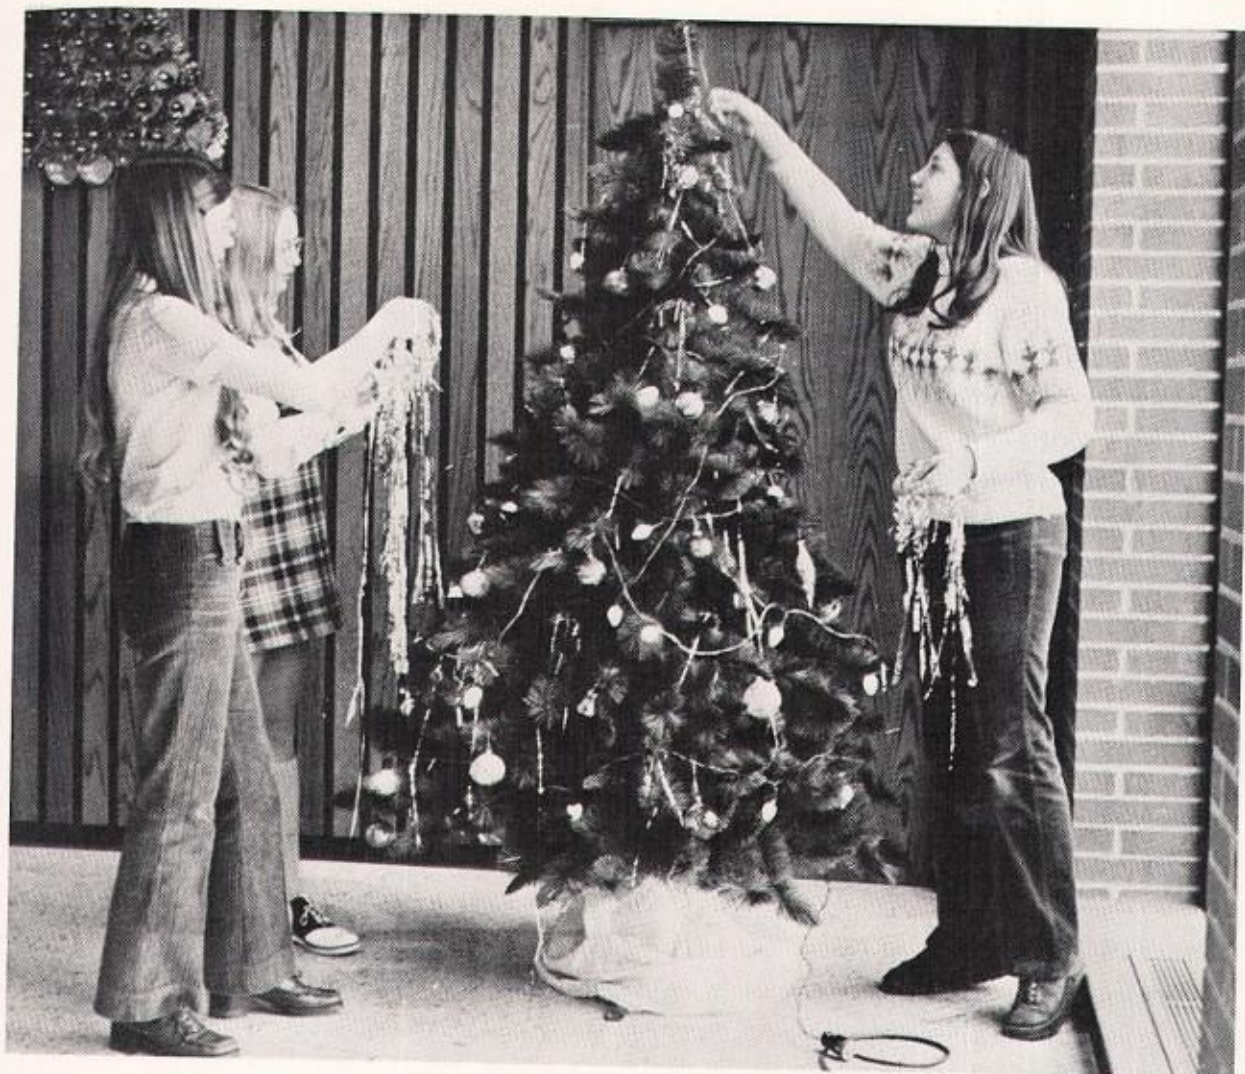

We all have hopes and dreams—
Castles in the air,
Thoughts of better things,
With happiness to share. . .

We all must reach for something,
And strive to make it true;
Change things for the better,
Make them different, make them new. . .

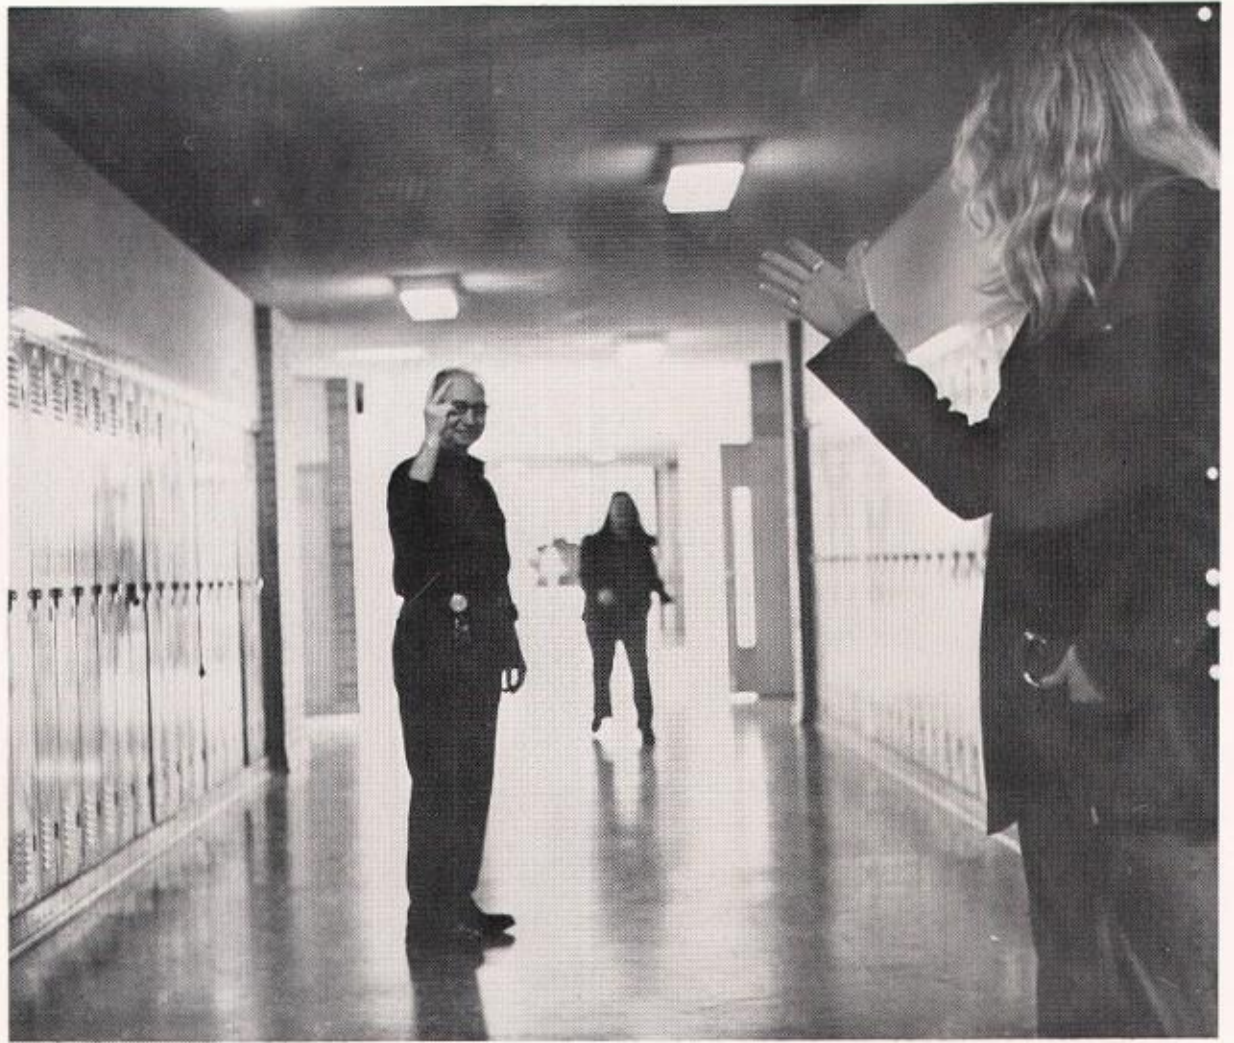

We all travel the same road,
Together but alone;
Pursuing separate goals,
Chasing dreams of our own,
Kimpy

We all travel the same road,
Together but alone;
Pursuing separate goals,
Chasing dreams of our own. . .

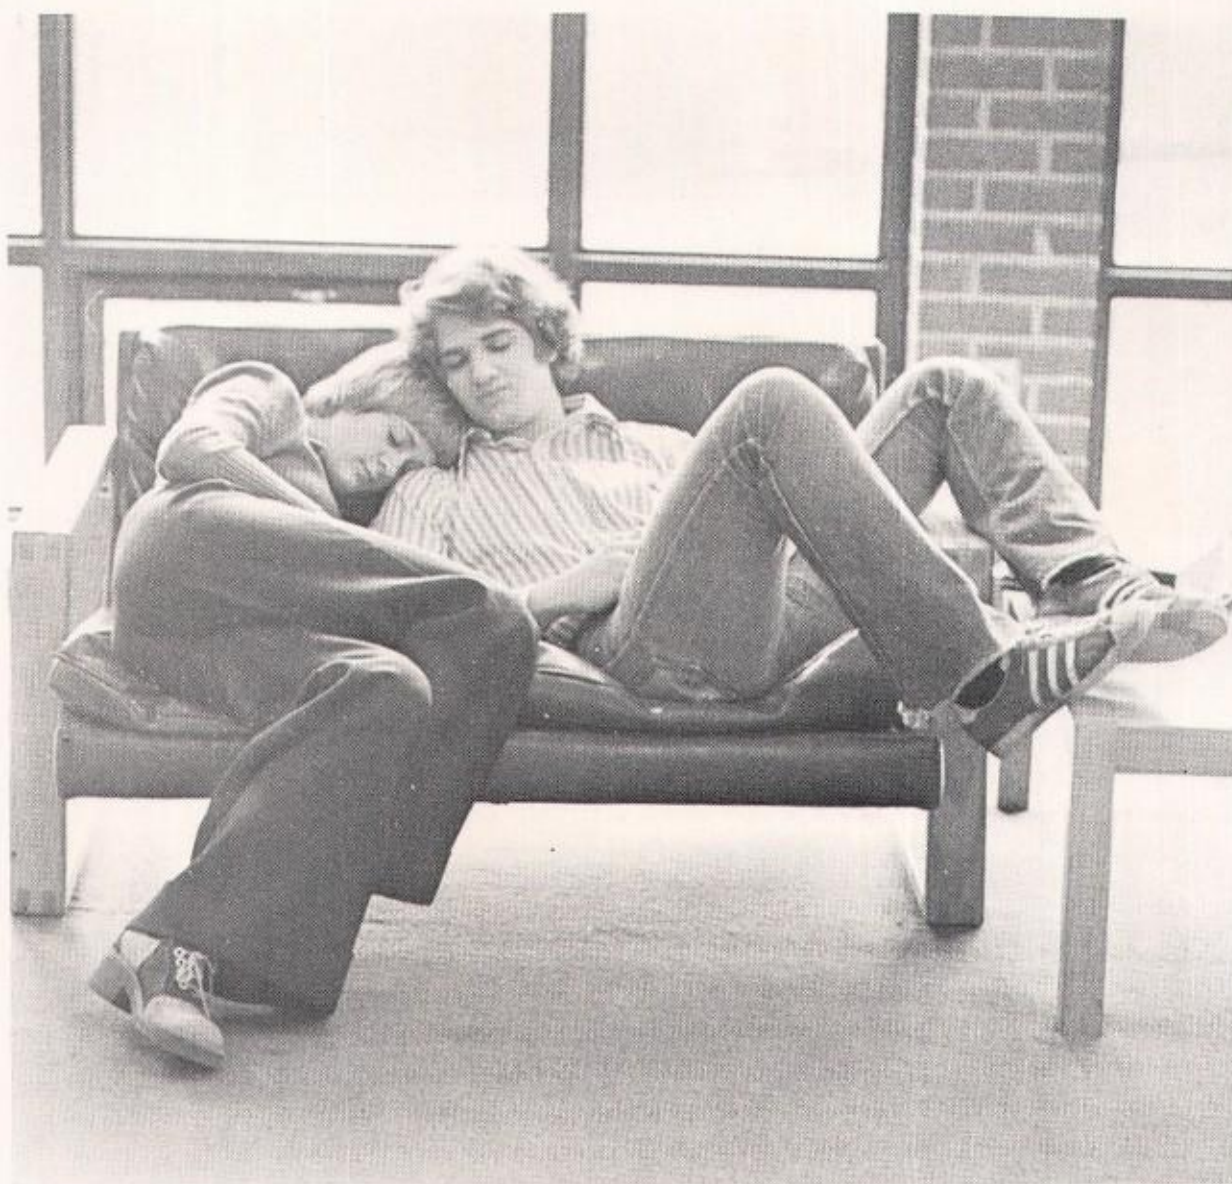

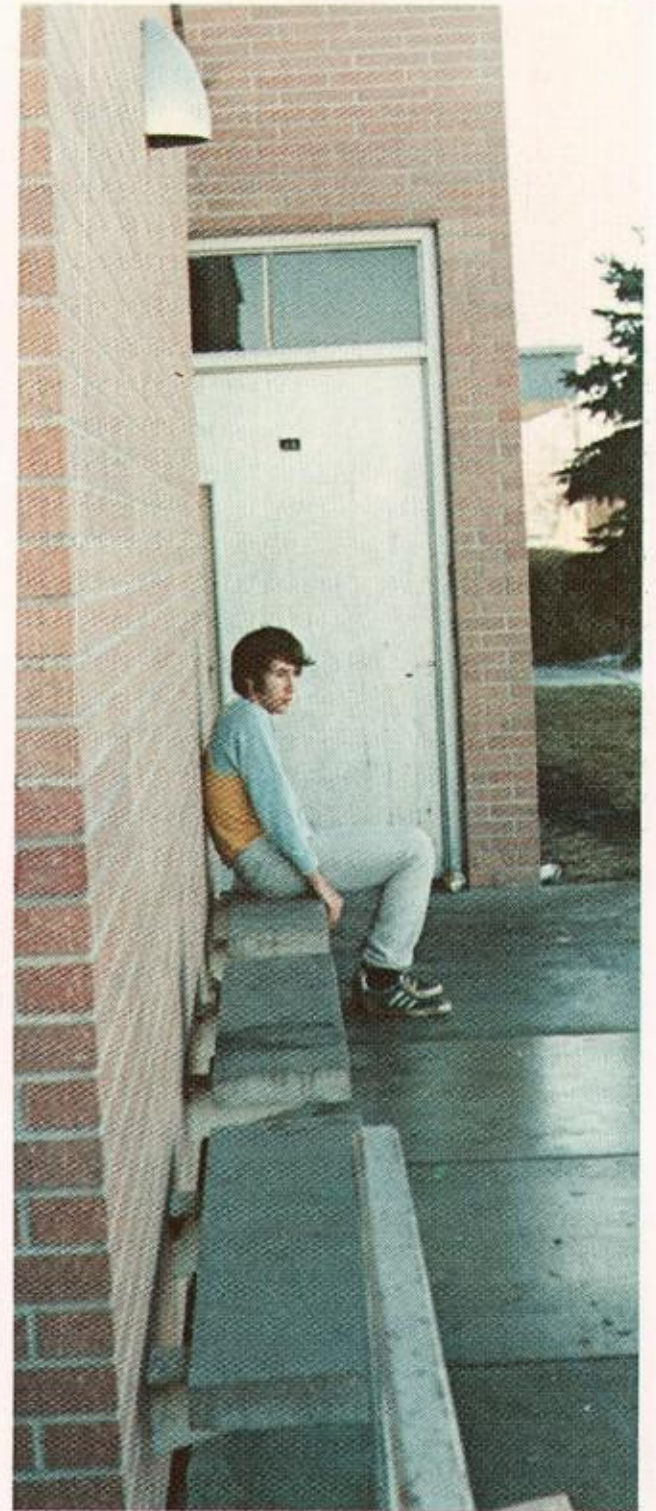

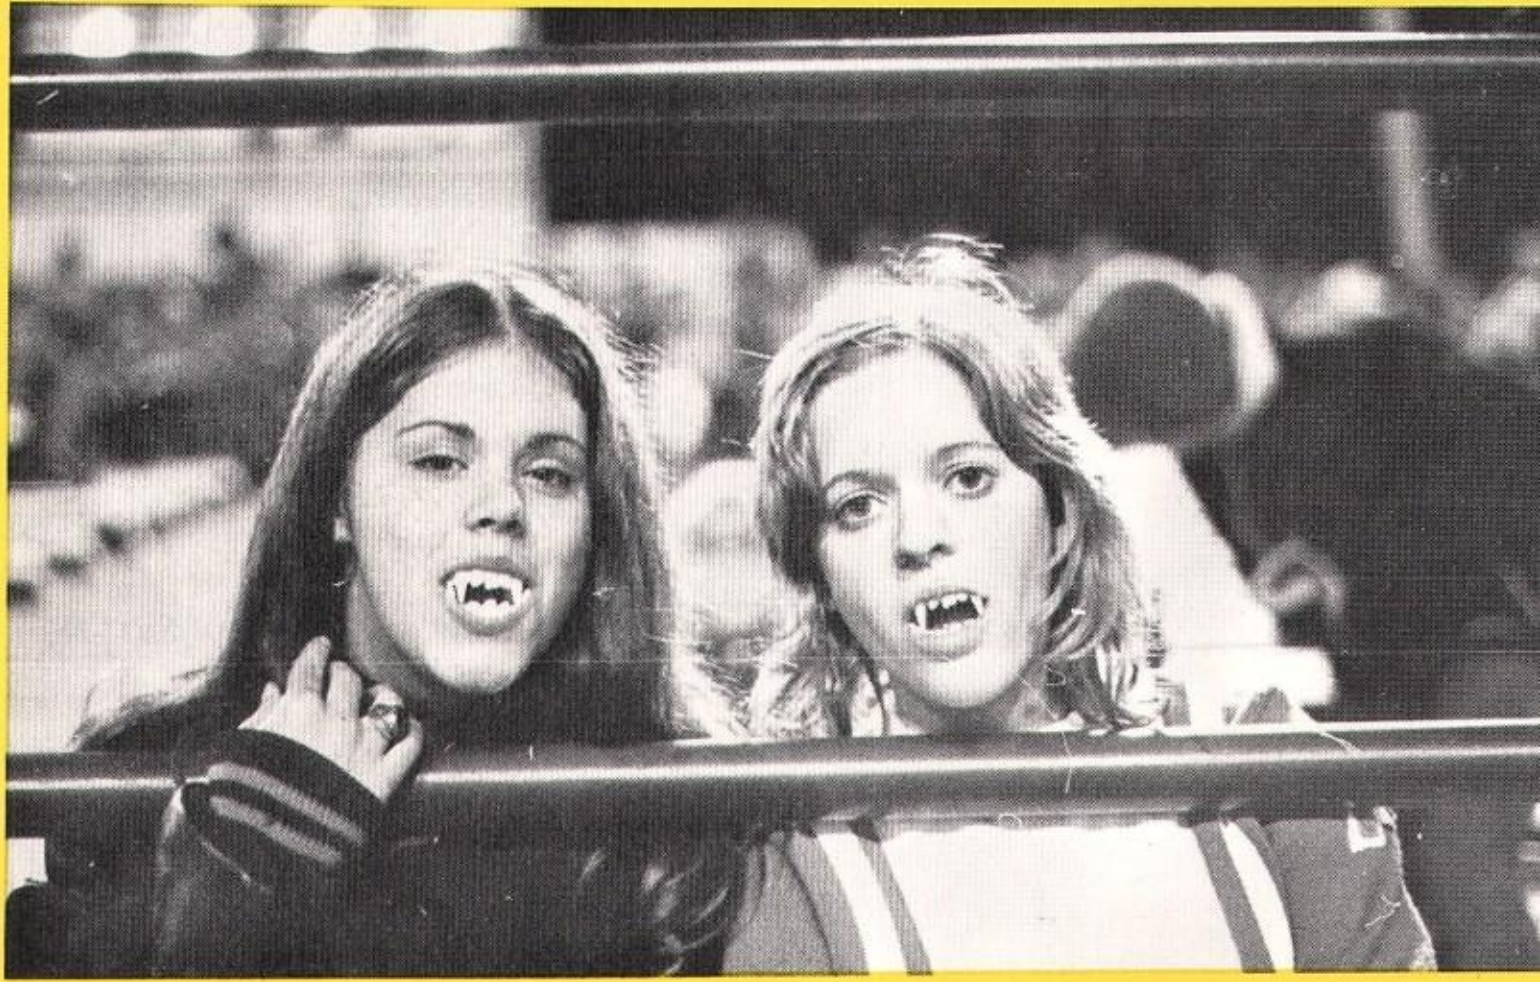

We all have aspirations,
And dreams about tomorrow;
Some belong to us,
Others we will borrow. . .

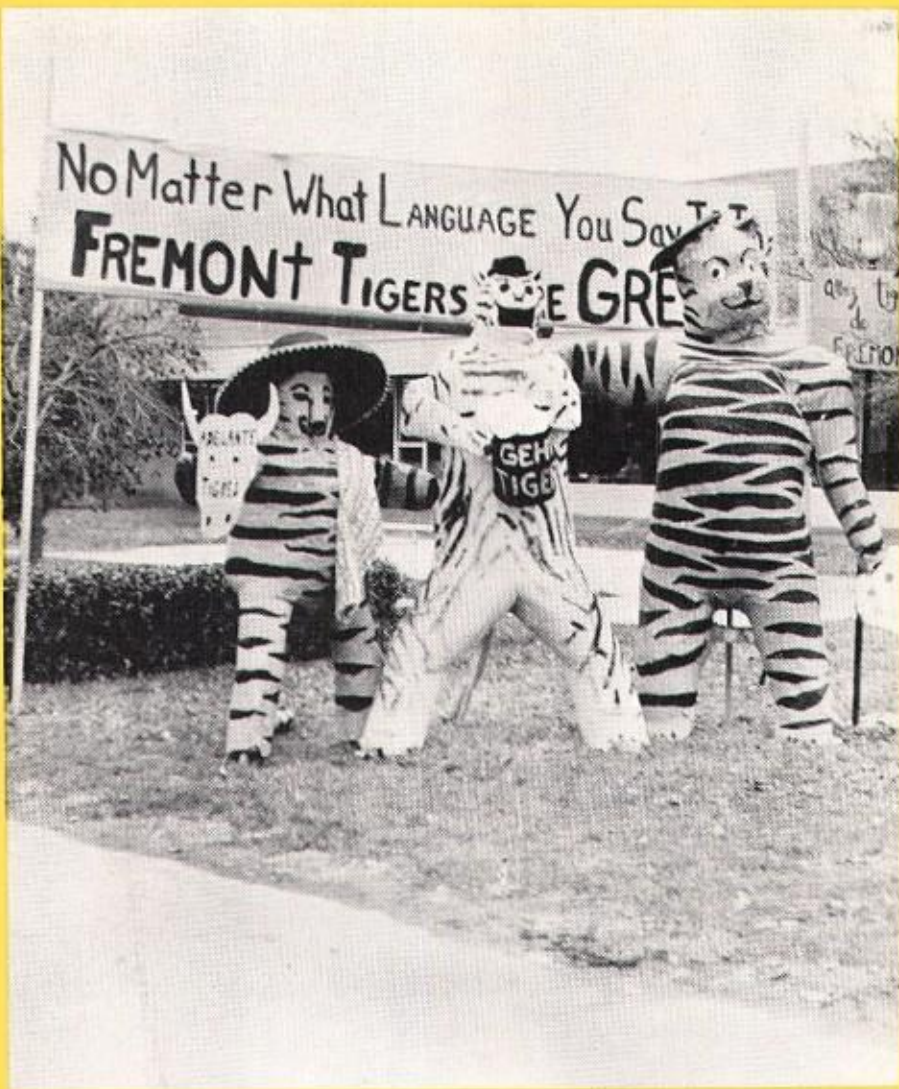

We all seek golden treasures
Waiting at the rainbow's end,
Sparkling pieces of life—
Love, loyalty—a friend. . .

FBLA actively involved in the business world

Senior Cheryl Mesenbrink smiles happily as she discovers her books for the Lester Hill Corporation check out. The fictional company was used by the Office Occupations class as a teaching aid.

"Future Business Leaders of America is an organization trying to stimulate the students' interest and cause him to become more actively involved in the business world," explained senior member Cheryl Mesenbrink.

Sponsored by Mr. Kyler Nelson, business teacher, the strictly female group numbered approximately 15 members. All FBLA members this year were involved in Office Occupations and held secretarial or other office-related positions in the Fremont area.

Once a month the club went on a field trip to observe a Fremont office during its business hours. An employee-employer banquet capped the year.

Club crowns Soukup Sweetheart

Fremont's Distributive Education Club of America gives those students that are interested in work study programs a chance to learn more about business and marketing in the classroom but also from outside work experience.

DECA members organized and sponsored the annual Christmas dance and the crowning of Miss Merry Christmas and Mr. Happy New Year. Other activities included a hockey game, and a picnic and the year ended with an employer-employee banquet. DECA Sweetheart for 1972-1973 was Debbie Soukup.

Senior DECA member Penny Sperstad departs for her job as part of the work study program members participate in. Mr. Robert Hergenrader sponsors the club and teaches the marketing classes.

Medical fields interest Future Nurse members

Future Nurses is an organization designed for anyone, boys or girls, that is interested in the medical field. It is not limited to people in nursing as many believe.

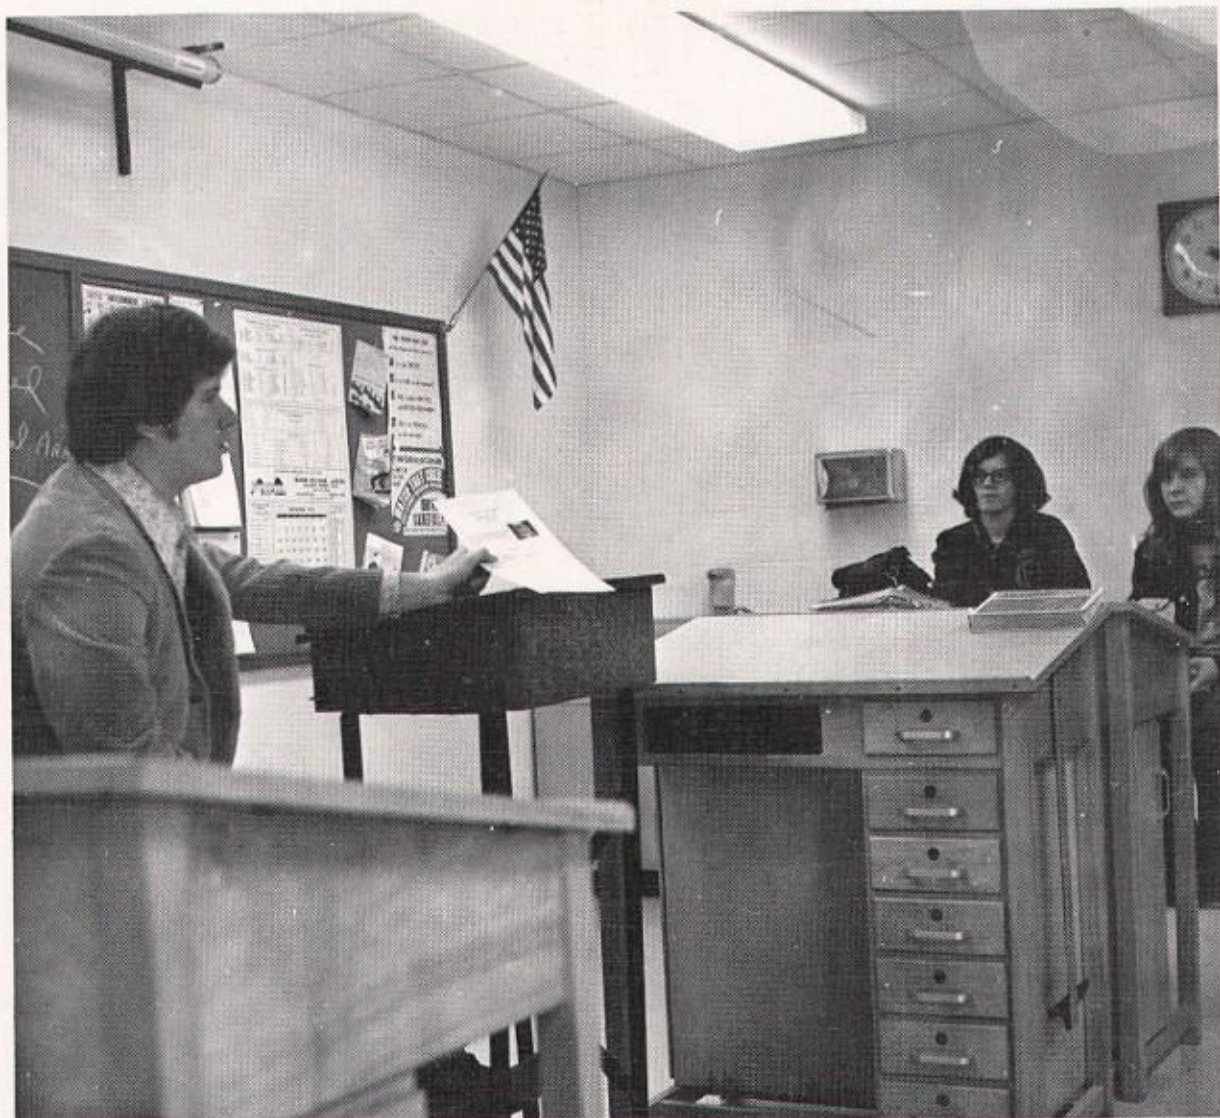

FNA toured the new part of the hospital seeing things visitors normally do not see. They were able to observe a Crash Cart, a cart that is brought to a patient's bedside when breathing or the heart stops. Members helped the Bloodmobile and also worked at Arbor Manor two or three days a week.

Experience in helping others and the chance to learn about new and interesting fields in medicine are the rewards.

Mr. Bud Troutner, District Representative for Explorers of America is a guest speaker at an FTA meeting. Seniors Melody Watson and Kathy Stafford listen attentively to the opportunities of education.

Future Teachers look at education

Future Teachers of America gives students a chance to take a realistic look at the field of education, it's challenges, opportunities and services to society. Also to analyze the many related fields that are open to people with an educator's background.

Members worked as teacher's aides, observed teaching in elementary schools and listened to guest speakers throughout the year. Activities included a Christmas party, selling at basketball games, bowling, hay rack rides and roller skating. FTA helped promote American Education Week.

FHA to help individuals grow to fullest potential

Attention focuses on Karinda Petersen as she contributes her opinion to the discussion.

Preparing the agenda for the next meeting are Debbie Starkey and Cheryl Johnson.

Future Homemakers of America is a national club open to both boys and girls and designed to help individuals grow to their fullest potential. The activities the club plans are designed to help individuals reach their goals.

The year's activities included a Halloween party, a Community service project and a Christmas caroling party.

The FHS chapter of FHA won awards for attendance and best display at the district convention which was held in Fremont. The theme for the event was "Reflections of Life through FHA."

The success of the group could be attributed to the leadership of their officers and guidance of Mrs. Sharon Anton.

Y-Teens stress personal approach

Cathy Cooper and Chris Lund pose for the photographer between mouthfuls.

... However Mary Law and Bobbi Raymond ignore the photographer between mouthfuls.

The purpose of Y-Teens is to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in life those ideals of personal and social living to which they are committed to by faith as Christians.

Y-teens for the school year 1972-1973 chose the more personal part of Y-teens, getting along with each other. Y-teens has tried something different this year by putting the girls into groups or families to eliminate the communication gap.

As president, Marjorie Heyne explained the idea behind the idea. "In most clubs I have found that there is a lack of communication between the members and the officers. Individuality or a more personal approach is what we are striving for in Y-teens this year."

French Club sells food to hungry student body

French Club members seem to be enjoying themselves at a wienie roast with a family from France. The wienie roast was the first activity of the year for the growing organization.

At the beginning of the school year French Club had a wienie roast with a family who had just moved to the United States from France. They next had a party where everybody brought some homemade French pastry. Senior Jodie Lenser expressed everybody's feelings about it when she said, "Everything I sampled was delicious—and I sampled everything!"

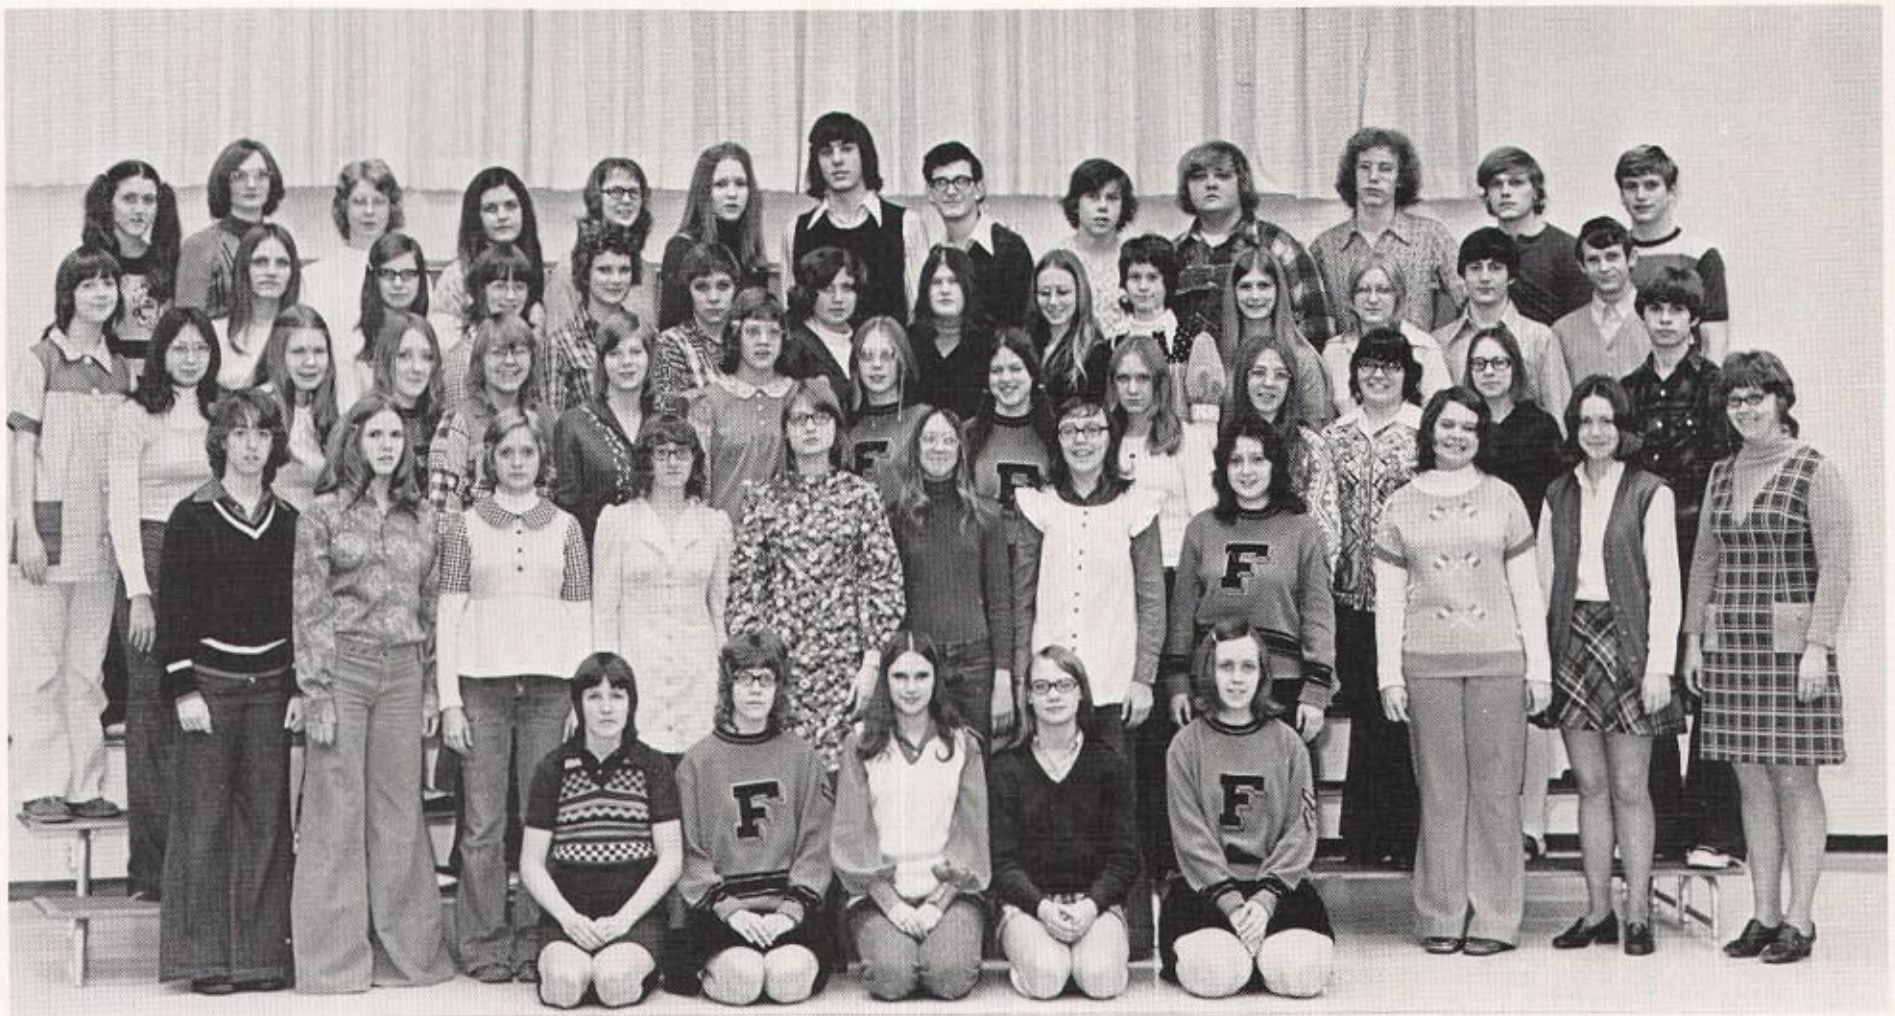

French Club was busy during October working on a French tiger for the Homecoming display that was a joint effort of the three language clubs. The clubs also got together for a joint Christmas party.

A main project of French Club was earning money by bake sales so that a trip to a French cafe in Omaha could become a reality. In the spring the club organized a banquet at which French food was served.

'Boys should join Spanish Club'

Junior John Steyer gets the show on the road by having things well in hand at the Spanish, German and French Club Carnival. Proceeds from the event were used to help finance students' trips abroad.

This year there are approximately 85 members of Spanish Club. A person does not necessarily need to be taking Spanish to join, but an interest in the language and the Spanish speaking countries is helpful.

Some of the activities were a picnic, a Christmas party with the French and German Clubs, a taco party and the building of a second place Homecoming display with the other language clubs. For the celebration of the Carnival, Spanish Club had a box lunch supper. This was to raise funds for the people who are planning a trip to Mexico.

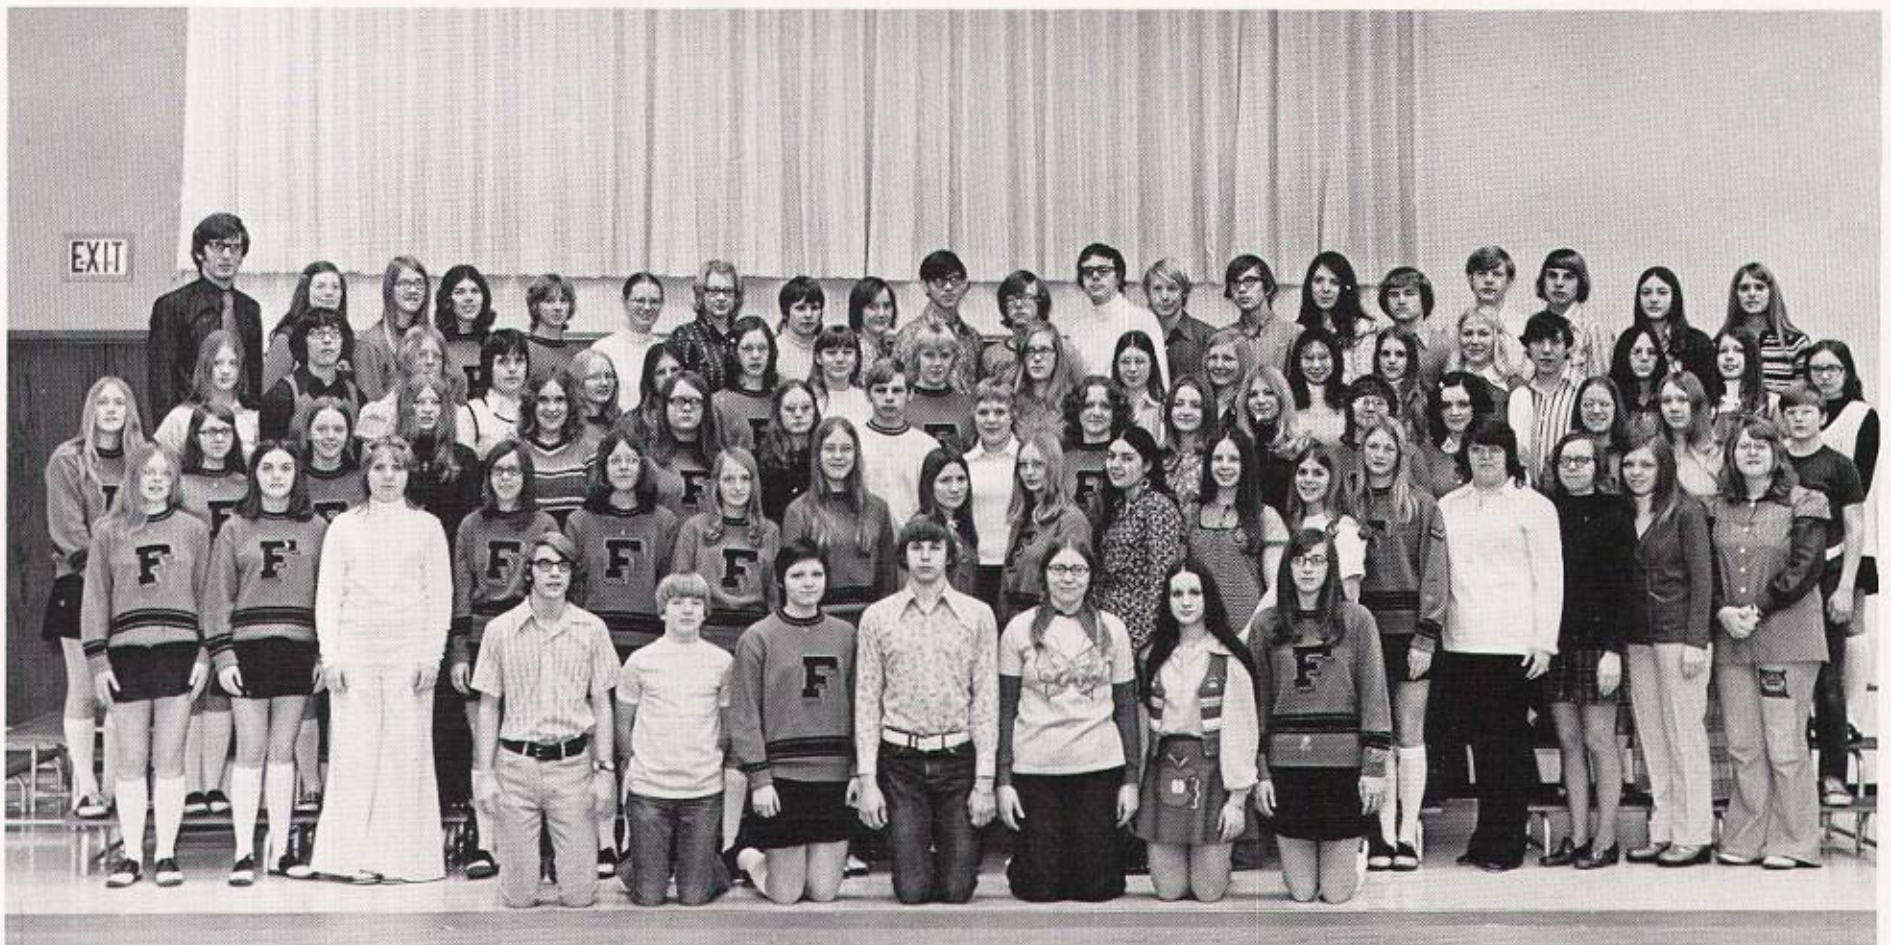

Junior Lori Sinnett, secretary of the club, commented on it. "Our display and carnival turned out real well. More boys should join our club, it's a lot of fun."

German Club membership explodes

German Club is an organization of students who have at some time taken German. This year there were 158 members sponsored by Mr. Robert Larsen and Mr. Allen Ahlers.

German Club supported an orphan, costing the group $156 yearly. This is where the majority of the club dues went. The remainder went into a general fund. Some annual activities were: The Oktoberfest, a Christmas caroling party, a German dinner and finishing the year with the Spring picnic.

"German Club allows us to do all the fun things, like drinking carbonated grape juice, that we normally just couldn't do in class. Did anyone think it was champagne?" commented Herr Larsen.

Senior Gail Wagner finally persuades senior Tom Bucy to buy a package of candy sold by German students. "Gummy Bears" were imported from Germany and caught on quickly at FHS.

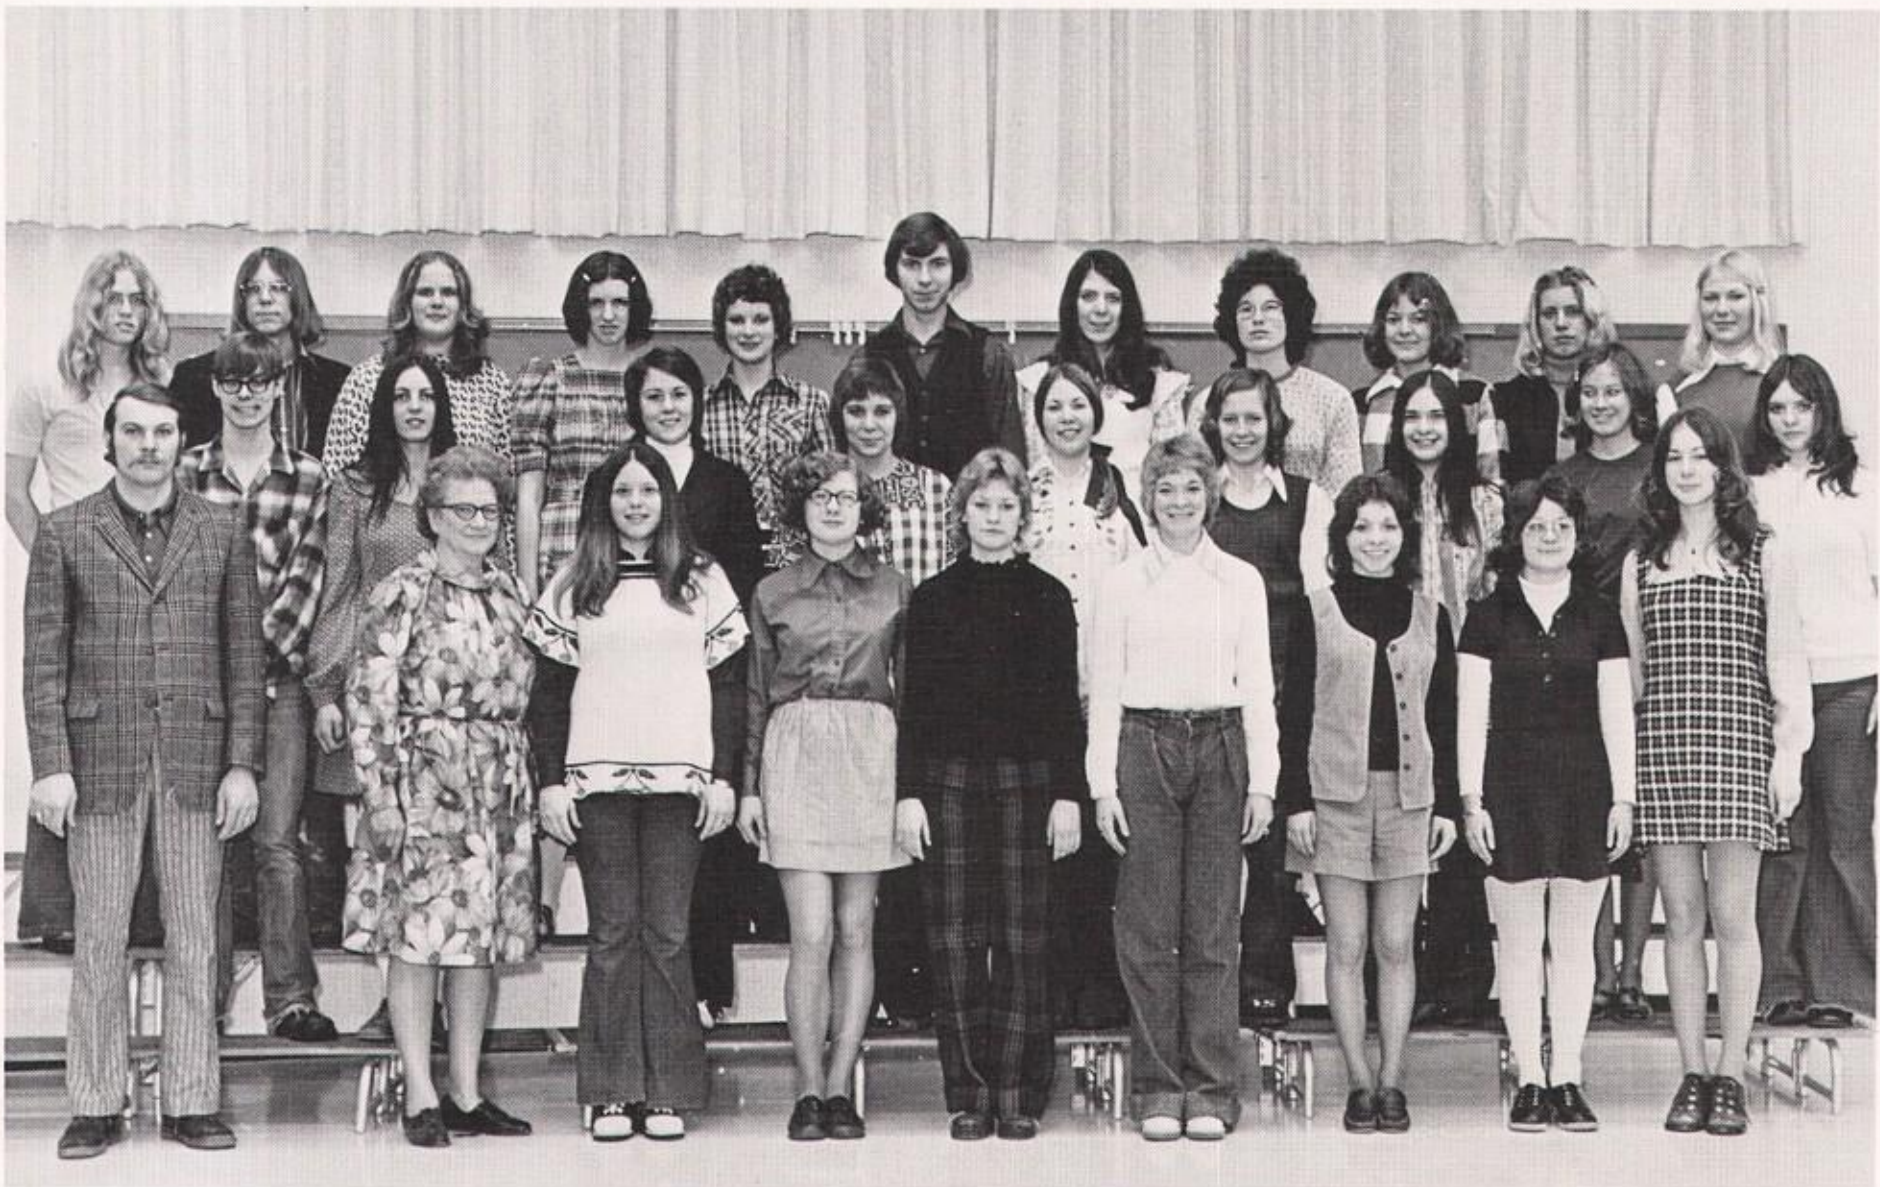

Art Club frontrunners for clubs across state

The Fremont High Art Club became the frontrunners for many of the art clubs across the state. One reason why they had such success was the club rules keeping the group together. Another reason is because they sought to make others happy. For instance, decorating the annex and giving holiday tokens to the elderly who lived there was a major Christmas activity.

"The young art student can benefit greatly from other young artists in a cooperative effort and similar goals which is afforded them by an art club," explained Mr. Mike Reis, art teacher and co-sponsor along with Miss Nell McPherson.

Radio News and Broadcasting Club sponsored by Miss Ruth Lonn keeps the Fremont area informed about the latest events at Fremont Senior High. Club members include Steve Kuddes, Michael McIlheran, Mary Tomonelli and Mike Stoltenberg. Many of Radio Broadcasting Club's past members have gone into communications careers.

Student interests in media fostered

It takes the four members of Photo Club: Michele Kendrick, Becky Raymond, Debbie Muhle and John Haxby to analyze a not-so-complicated twin-lens reflex camera.

On Tuesday nights after school, a small group known as the Radio Broadcasting Club, met in the english resource center. This group recorded the high school report which was heard on KHUB radio station at 8:25 Tuesday nights.

In order to cover all the latest happenings at Senior High, each member was assigned a story. Nancy Line, sophomore, said, "I really learned a lot about how to interview."

The Photo Club was created for students interested in photography to learn the fundamental and new techniques in that field. This was the first year for the club, which was composed of Journalism I students.

Math Club, Chess Club earn statewide honors

A trip to the Creighton Math Field Day, a fall picnic, demonstrations by representative of calculator companies and a visit to Midland College's computer center highlighted this year's Math Club activities.

Juniors Todd Havekost and Tom Lannin, two of the club's 17 members, teamed up to place third out of 150 teams in their event at the Creighton University Math Contest.

Fremont's newly organized Chess Club participated in several tournaments this year. They began their season with a tournament against Blair High School and also competed with Omaha Benson and Fremont Bergan.

Junior Bill Rashleigh, president of the club was entered in state competition and tied for ninth place.

Auto club members are: Mr. Daniel Kelsay, Spon., Roger Peterson, Jan Sandberg, Bob Paden, Jim Wegner, Paul Leidig and Gayle Carlson.

Club members rebuild sports car

Mr. Kelsay helps senior Paul Leidig repair an engine's electrical system. Students who had troubles with their cars could bring them to the club and have the work done for only a minimum cost.

"Gentlemen, start your engines!" Although the Auto Club of Fremont High is a far cry from the mechanical excellence of the Indianapolis 500, its members boast a genuine interest. The club aided boys who may someday attain such excellence.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Daniel Kelsay, the second year club consisted of 14 members. "A major activity of the group was rebuilding an Austin American for its eventual sale. We were also fortunate enough to receive a new truck for our use," explained the sponsor.

On Wednesday nights Mr. Kelsay opened the auto shop at the school and the club members viewed films on racing and repaired broken autos. Some of the members attended the auto races at Cornhusker Speedway.

Aspiring journalists compose club

Senior Barb Hafits picks up a daisy to present to a new Quill and Scroll members she is preparing to tap. The new members were presented daisies and candles from older members.

Fourteen aspiring journalists were initiated into Quill and Scroll this year at the annual spring banquet, held at the Valley View Golf Club.

To qualify for membership, students must rank in the upper third of their class scholastically and must have shown an interest and ability in journalism. Students nominated for membership by their advisor Mrs. Mary Ehling were approved by the national office of Quill and Scroll.

In addition to initiation of new Quill and Scroll members, staff positions for next year's Rustler and Black and Gold were announced at the banquet. Approximately 60 people attended the banquet including guests from Nebraska Printing and Litho, Walsworth Publishing and Smithorpe Studios.

Thespian participants show interest in drama

The purpose of Thespians is to further interest in high school theatre. Members must be invited to join after showing interest and involvement in plays or in the technical aspect of theatre.

The year's activities included a Halloween costume party, a Valentine's Day party and a picnic with Art Club. The highlight of the year was the Awards banquet announcing: Best Actress, Karen Bruhn; Best Actor, Tom Goodwin; Best Supporting Actress, Pat Wilson; Best Supporting Actor, Doug Wallingford; and Best Bit Part, Bill Rashleigh. Best Thespians were Karen Bruhn and Lenice Hines.

Peg Welty bursts with excitement after getting a part in the Spring play "Night Watch".

Sorge, Means named Outstanding Debators

NFL members Dennis Sorge and Ron Draine work in the Debate resource center in preparation for an upcoming meet. Dennis, along with Pat Means, were named outstanding varsity debators.

To be eligible for initiation into the National Forensic League, certain requirements in public speaking, preferably debate, must be competed.

NFL activities include a card-swapping party in the fall, a Christmas party, the annual initiation banquet and a picnic at the close of the school year.

Miss Bev Carlson sponsored NFL with the help of Miss Ruth Lonn. Miss Carlson commented, "NFL is an organization with different degrees of achievement. This gives the student something to work for after initiation. These degrees are sometimes valuable for scholarships."

Honor Society inducts 64 students

At the May 16, 1973 convocation, 64 seniors were tapped into National Honor Society. Only those in the upper one-fourth of the class are considered. Out of this upper fourth, fifteen per cent of the total number of students in the class are selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service and character.

Miss May Burkholder, Miss Lillian Schultz and Mrs. Judith Stroeh, senior class sponsors, presided over the initiation ceremony. Steve Woodcock, National Honor Society member, provided the music.

Pep Club cheers team to District, Big Ten

This year Pep Club consisted of 205 members. The officers, nine Tigerettes and nine Junior Leaders were the basic work force behind the club.

Seven varsity, seven reserve and five wrestling cheerleaders were in charge of Pep Rally's and providing cheer leadership during sports events. Club sponsors were Mrs. Deanna Freitag and Mrs. Harriette Hafits.

The Pep Club cheered FHS to a Big Ten football title, a Wrestling District championship, along with the District Basketball title and followed the cagers to the State Tournament in Lincoln.

Pep Club member Gail Wagner commented, "I really enjoyed going to state."

A roller skating party was a major function of the group. The club, by inviting all F-Club members, hoped to strengthen Pep Club - F-Club relations.

'Eat em up, Eat em up, Rah! Rah! Rah!' Many Fremont fans turned out to cheer on the Tigers at the State Basketball tournament in Lincoln. Although the game was lost, spirits remained high.

President Barb Obermiller headed the Tiger Cubs for the school year 1972-1973.

Vice-President Laurie Jensen lended her leadership to fellow officers.

Secretary-Treasurer Teri Rohrs helped to boost tiger spirit along with secretarial duties.

Tigerettes for the 1972-1973 year are: G-Mary Mitten, O-Bev Osborn, F-Leta Freitag, R-Becky Lambourn, E-Diane Christensen, M-Libby Lamme, O-Barb

Hafits, N-Debbie Anderson, T-Wendy Jensen. The girls are chosen as Tigerettes on the basis of previous participation and involvement in Pep Club.

Tigerettes, Drill Team back athletes

Helping plan and organize pep rallies, making locker signs and keeping records were just a few of the Tigerettes' many duties. Encouraging and promoting spirit was another one of their goals. The Tigerettes also boosted the morales of the athletes by baking them cakes and organizing Tiger-gram (telegrams which are sent to Tiger athletes) sales for them.

FHS's second year Drill Team aside from performing at home games traveled to Bergan, Fremont Junior High, Midland and out-of-town high school games.

The performances included a mixture of dancing and marching. All varieties were presented this year as the girls went from the precise movements of "Shaft" to the more informal dancing in a hill-billy routine.

Although the combined effect of the girls is what is noticed, each girl is individually important for her part in the performance.

One sponsor commented, "I am very proud of these girls. They put in many hours of hard work and practice to make this year's Drill Team a success."

F-Club helps to create an interest in athletics

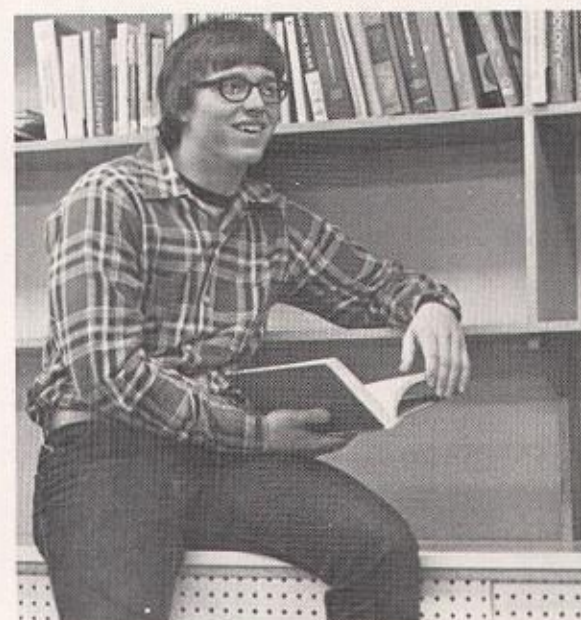

The purpose of F-Club is to uphold and improve the standards of athletics in the community and to strive for championship athletic teams at Fremont High. Wherever any active member of F-Club may be, a participant or spectator of some athletic event, he shall conduct himself in a manner worthy of his "F-

Club membership."

F-Club members sold at football games, held the ropes, worked in the commissary during the basketball games and helped to create an interest in athletics. F-Club ended the year with an annual spring picnic and initiated the new varsity letter winners.

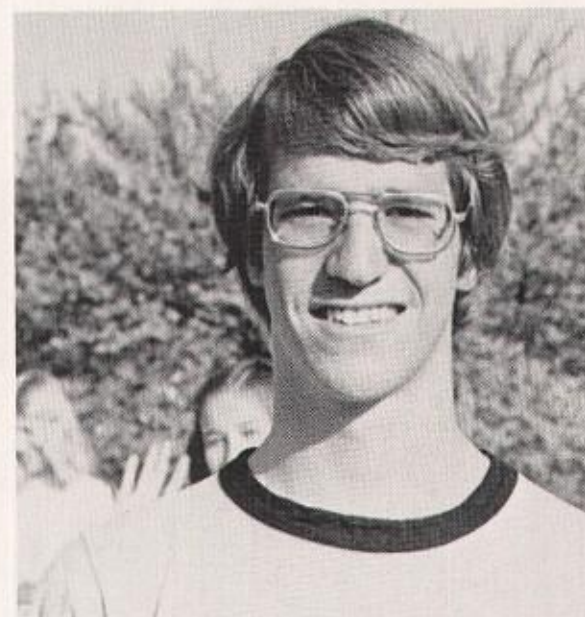

Dark clouds and rainy weather complete the soggy setting of the annual F-Club picnic. Shivering member Marshall Tofte captures on film the excitement while sophomore Brian May digs in.

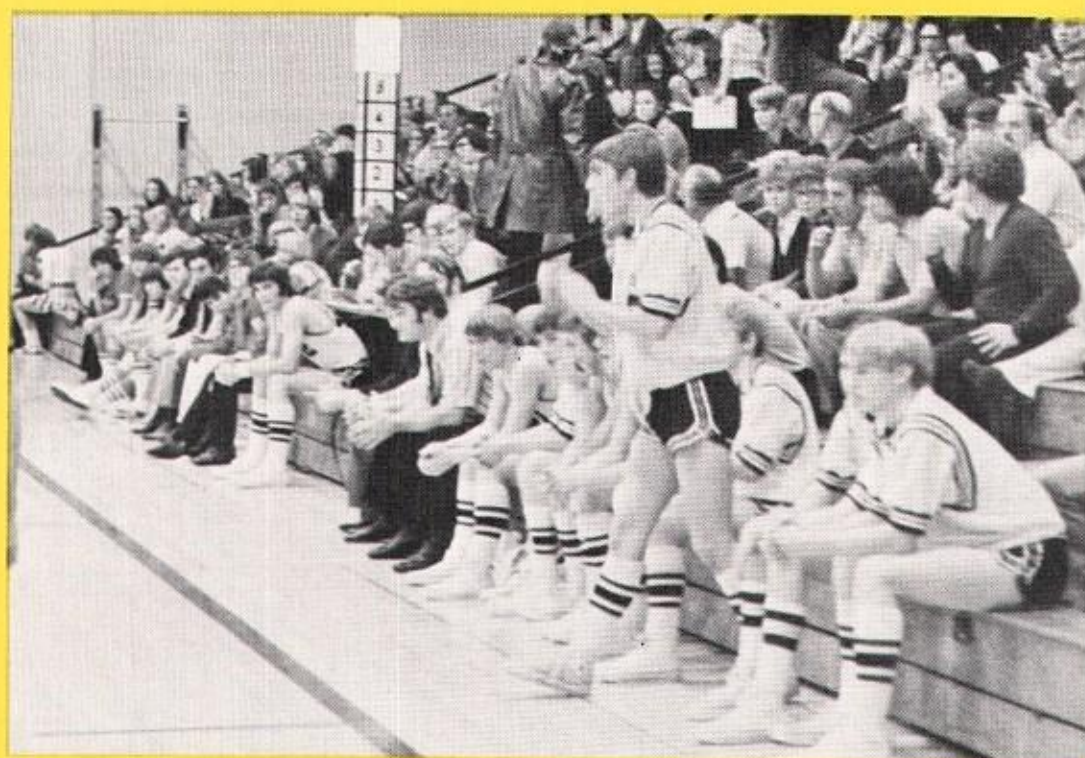

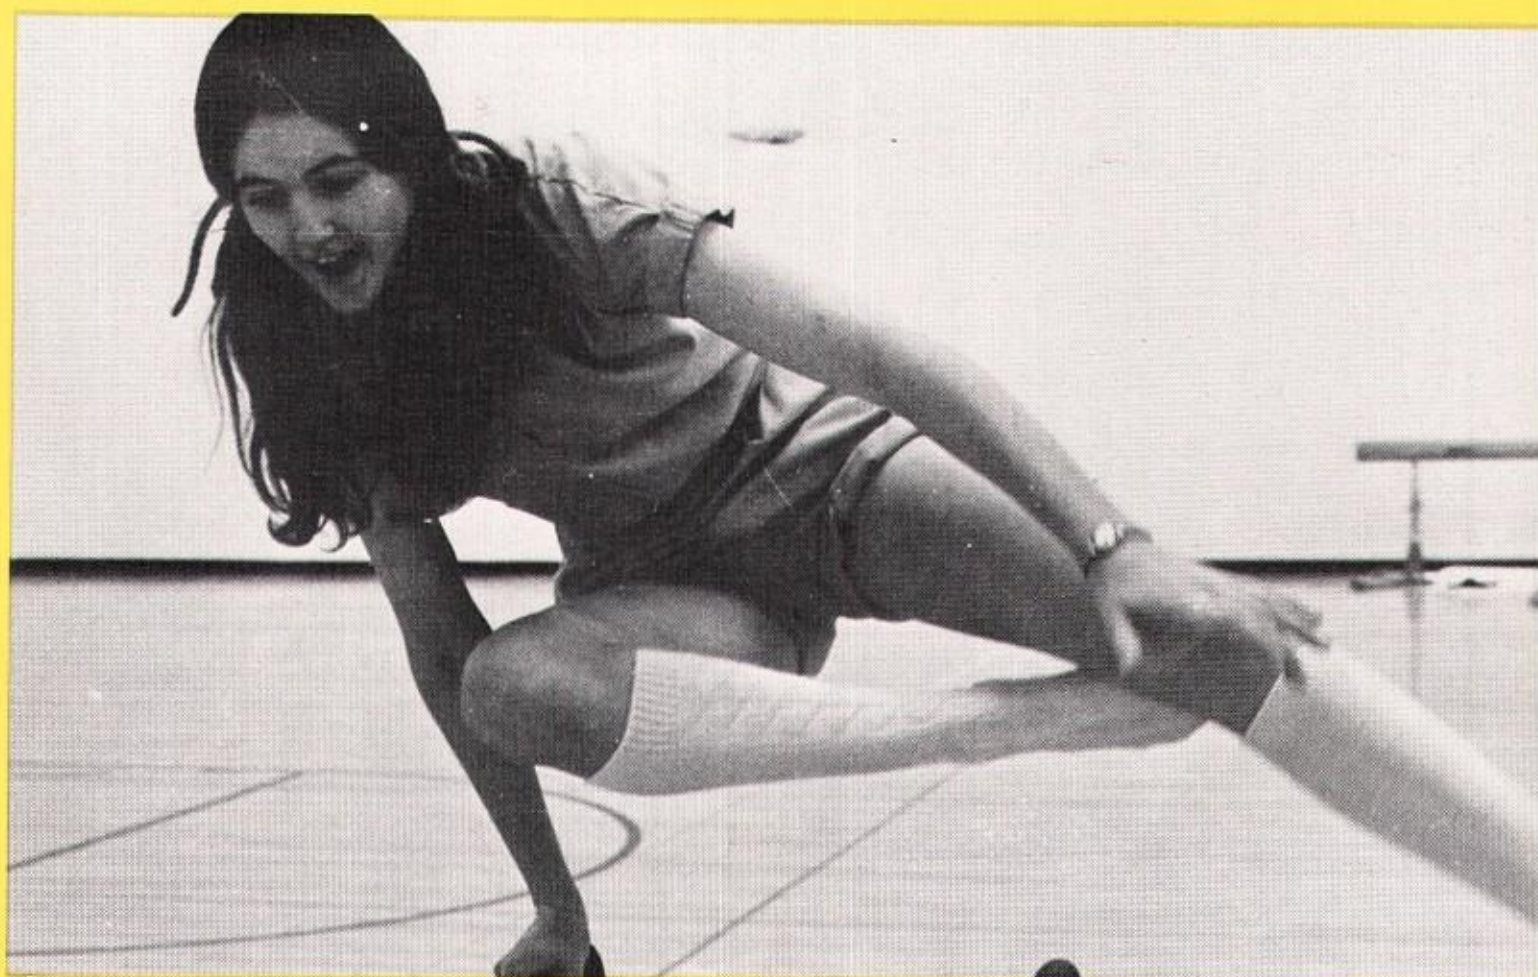

Ben Siebler reflects over his year as president of F-Club activities he coordinated.

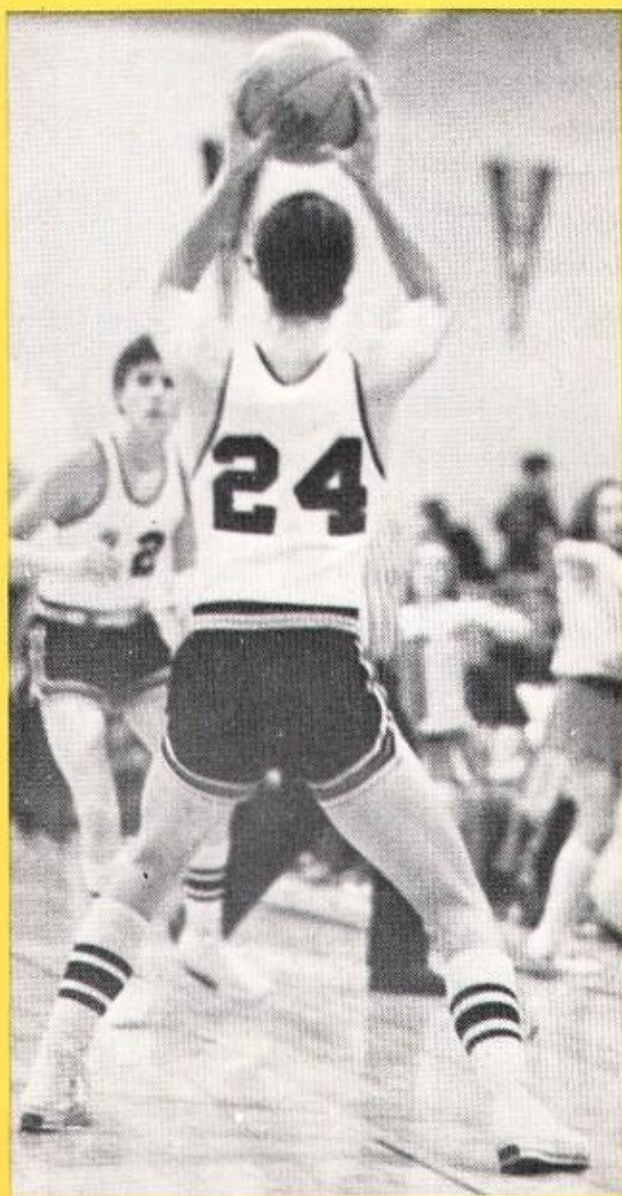

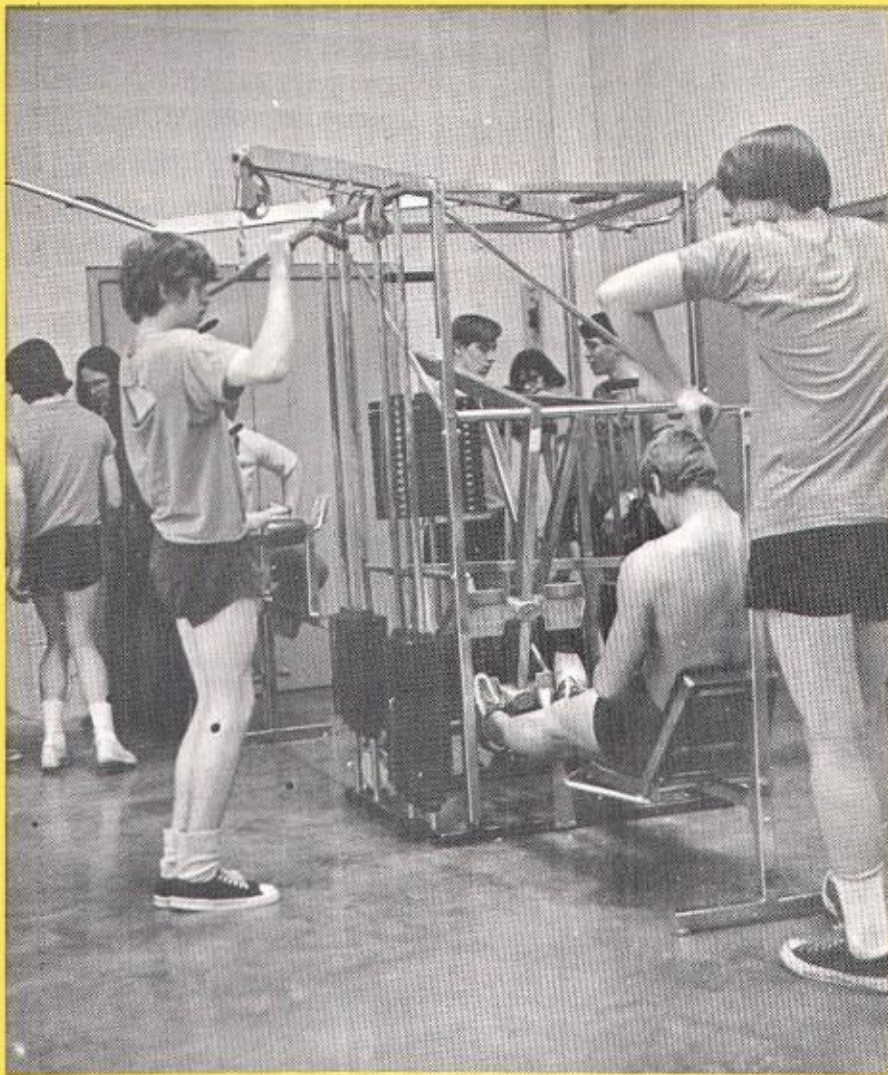

Vice-president Mark Hansen added a little humor with leadership during his term of office.

Secretary Dave Pimper helped to organize and promote F-Club activities.

The 1972 football season came to a close with Coach Jack Bryant's gridders holding a 6-4 win-loss record.

Setting a new school record was senior Dave Marreel, with 101 unassisted tackles. Marreel was also named to both offensive and defensive Big Ten teams. Other team members elected to the All-Conference team were seniors Monte Mitchell, John House, Jon McClain, Daryl Anderson, Jim Leal, Ben Siebler and Dave Pimper.

Siebler was the Tiger's top scorer and ground-gainer, piling up 66 points and 559 yards. Bob Knoell received the annual Jeff Tucker Memorial trophy given to the most-improved junior player. Kyle Kelly, also a junior, was nominated to the Big Ten team.

All-state honors were given by the Lincoln Star to Marreel and Siebler, while four senior starters in the Big Ten Championship game were nominated by the Omaha World Herald. Marreel, alone, went on to be elected.

Juniors Bob Knoell, Dan Harms and senior John House open a hole in the Kearney defense for a Fremont runner, as all players converge upon him to aid in the final FHS victory.

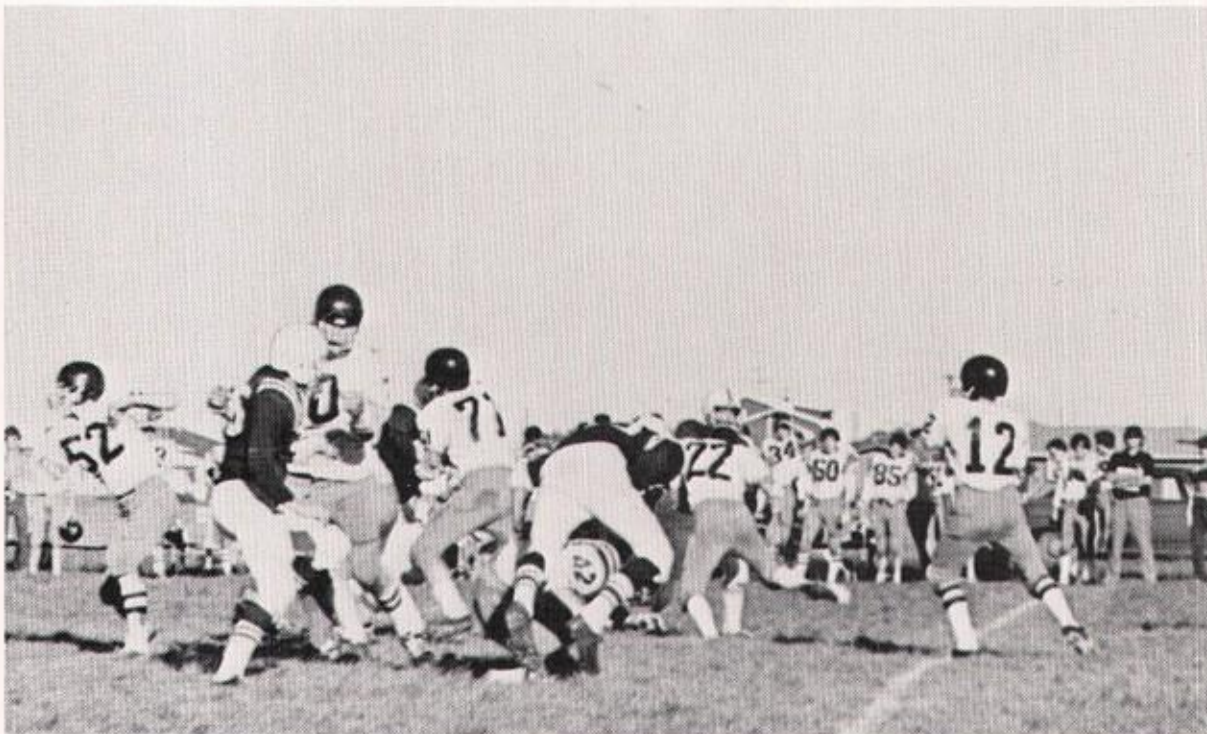

Junior John Prauner, defensive end, wants some action as he holds off a Kearney player, while junior Randy Poeschl, tackle, halts the ball carrier.

Senior offensive end Monte Mitchell 'holds on for dear life', as junior quarterback, Kyle Kelly completes a pass to assist downing Hastings in the Homecoming game.

Reserves prepare for varsity play

Dropping back to pass, sophomore Garland Perry looks for a receiver. The reserve linemen quickly defend the quarterback against the strong defensive attacks of their opponents.

The purpose of the reserve football team is to prepare sophomore and junior football players for the action of varsity ball. Head Coach Pat Murphy, assisted by Mr. Dennis Blair, Mr. Doug Nabb and Mr. Mike Reis undertook this responsibility for the 72-73 football season. Under their guidance the Baby Bengals finished the season with a 4-4 record.

According to past history, it was not one of the team's better years. "But," Coach Murphy commented, "the coaching staff bases the season's performance not on a win-loss record, but on the techniques and the individual's total development and progress toward the goal of becoming a varsity football player."

Cross country season successful

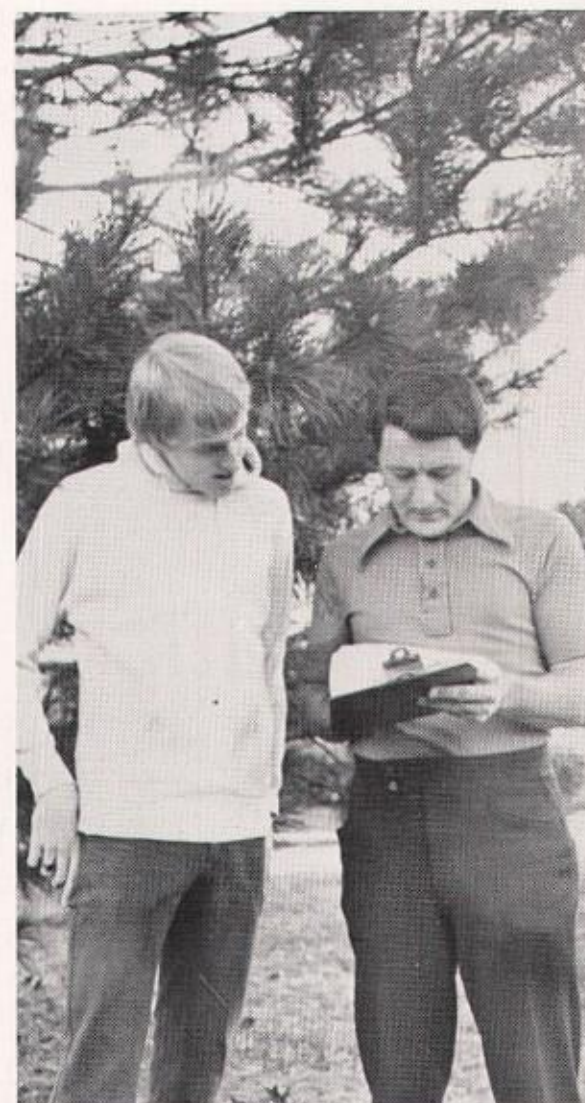

Senior Mark Hansen shows the desire it takes to be a good runner as he climbs a hill at the Bryan Class Meet. Mark is a three year letterman, and holds two Fremont records.

Fremont's 1972 cross country team had the most successful season in FHS history. It was the first time Fremont qualified for the State Meet. Coach Jon Appleget commented, "It was the best season we've had, but it was too bad the state meet was such a disappointing end."

Mark Hansen, set a senior and school record of 9:48 at Valley View. He also set the Columbus course record with a time of 10:19. Marshall Tofte, a senior, set the Millard course record with a time of 10:24. Junior Rich Bachman set the junior class record at Valley View with a time of 9:52. He also holds the sophomore class record of 10:21. Bob Schleicher set the freshman record with a time of 10:16 at Valley View. Junior Mick Higley, a Fremont Bergen transfer student, was ineligible this year.

According to senior Marshall Tofte, the top members of the team averaged more than 400 miles for the season. This averages out to about six or seven miles a day, starting in August and ending in October.

Tiger netmen capture Big Ten title

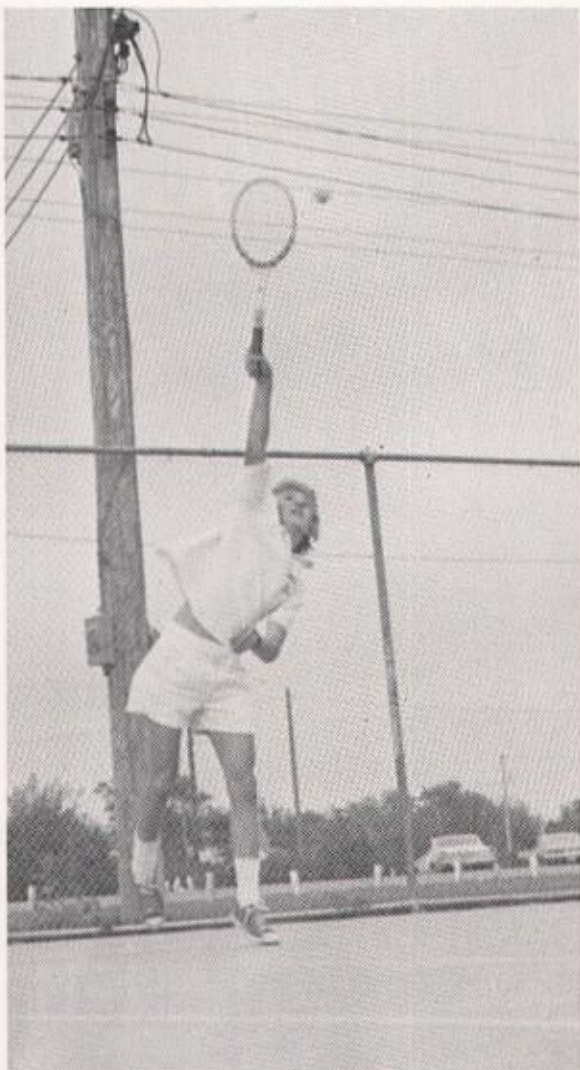

Senior Steve Yenney serves the ball in preparation for the oncoming dual meet with Lincoln East. Steve is a two-year letterman.

This year the Fremont High School tennis team had the second best season in the tennis history of FHS.

The team this year placed first in the Big Ten meet and fourth in the State meet. Their dual record was eight wins and two losses.

The team was coached by Russell Homa, sophomore World History teacher. His No. 1 man was Steve Yenney. Steve's record was 27 wins - 6 losses. Kent Lund was the No. 2 man and had 32 wins and 6 losses. Senior Dan Hansen and sophomore Greg Johnson were the No. 1 Doubles players.

The team had a good year, but when asked about it, Coach Homa replied, "I thought it was going to be a poor year because the boys didn't practice during the summer months to get ready for the season. The competition between the boys, however, made us a better team. By the end of the season I thought we had a chance at winning Big Ten and that we had a chance in placing in the top five at State."

Tiger cagers go to State tourney

Head Coach Al Bahe and his basketball team travelled to the State tournament at Lincoln for the first time since the 1969-70 season.

The Tigers defeated Omaha North and South Sioux City to win the District Championship title. In the first round of the State tournament, Fremont was defeated by Lincoln Northeast, who went on to take state.

Three players were named to the All East Conference Division team of the Big Ten conference. Senior guard Mark Hansen was named to the first team and senior guard Kent Lund and junior Dan Mussmann were nominated for honorable mention.

Senior Mark Hansen was named to the North team for the annual Nebraska Coaches All-Star game. He was the team's leading scorer, followed closely by Dan Mussman and Monte Mitchell. Mussmann was leading rebounder, followed by Mitchell.

District Champions are: Student Manager R. Behl, M. Hansen, D. Anderson, J. Hamsa, D. Pimper, R. Schoeneck, D. Mussmann, R. Poeschl, M. Mitchell, K. Kelly,

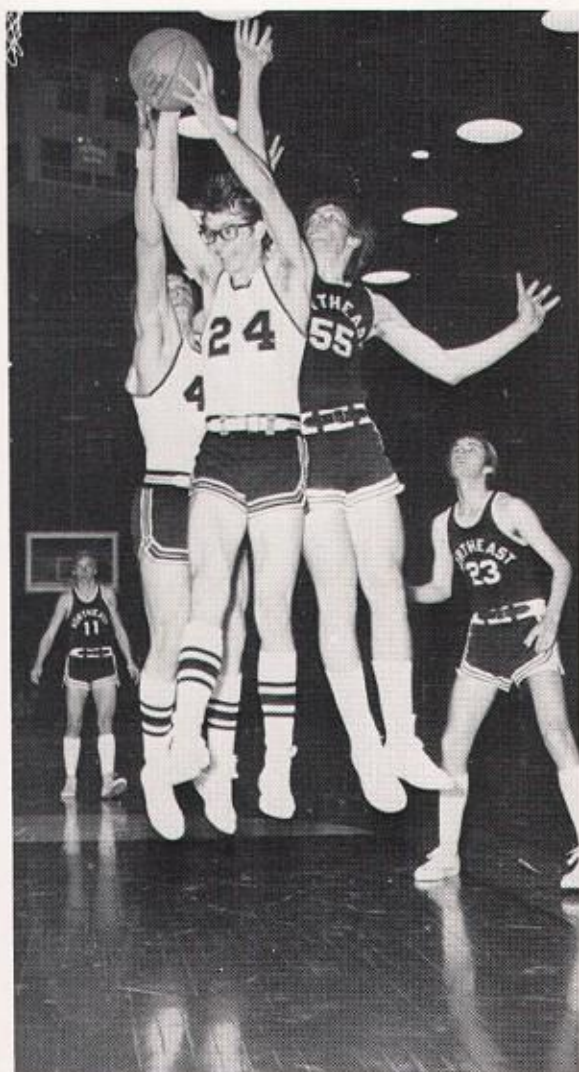

B. Siebler, K. Lund, M. Higley, and Student Manager J. Weinberg. This year's team consisted of eight seniors and five juniors.

Head Coach Al Bahe gives some hurried instructions to senior Mark Hansen and junior Mick Higley during a free throw while the rest of the team pays close attention to the action.

Senior Dave Pimper grabs a rebound as senior Rob Schoeneck lends a helping hand.

With great agility, senior Mark Hansen leaps between Northeast players to complete a pass.

Tiger defenders junior Dan Mussman, seniors Rob Schoeneck, Mark Hansen and junior Mick Higley await the outcome of Northeast's shot, ready to snatch up the rebound.

Fremont High School's reserve roundballers had an up and down season as they were often hurt by lack of height. Reserve Tigers are: D. McKenzie, R. Price, D.

Mussman, A. Provorse, M. Benson, J. Hansen, Coach Blair, P. Wegman, G. Kupfer, B. Pawling, K. Odenreider, T. Settje.

Reserves are "short and scrappy"

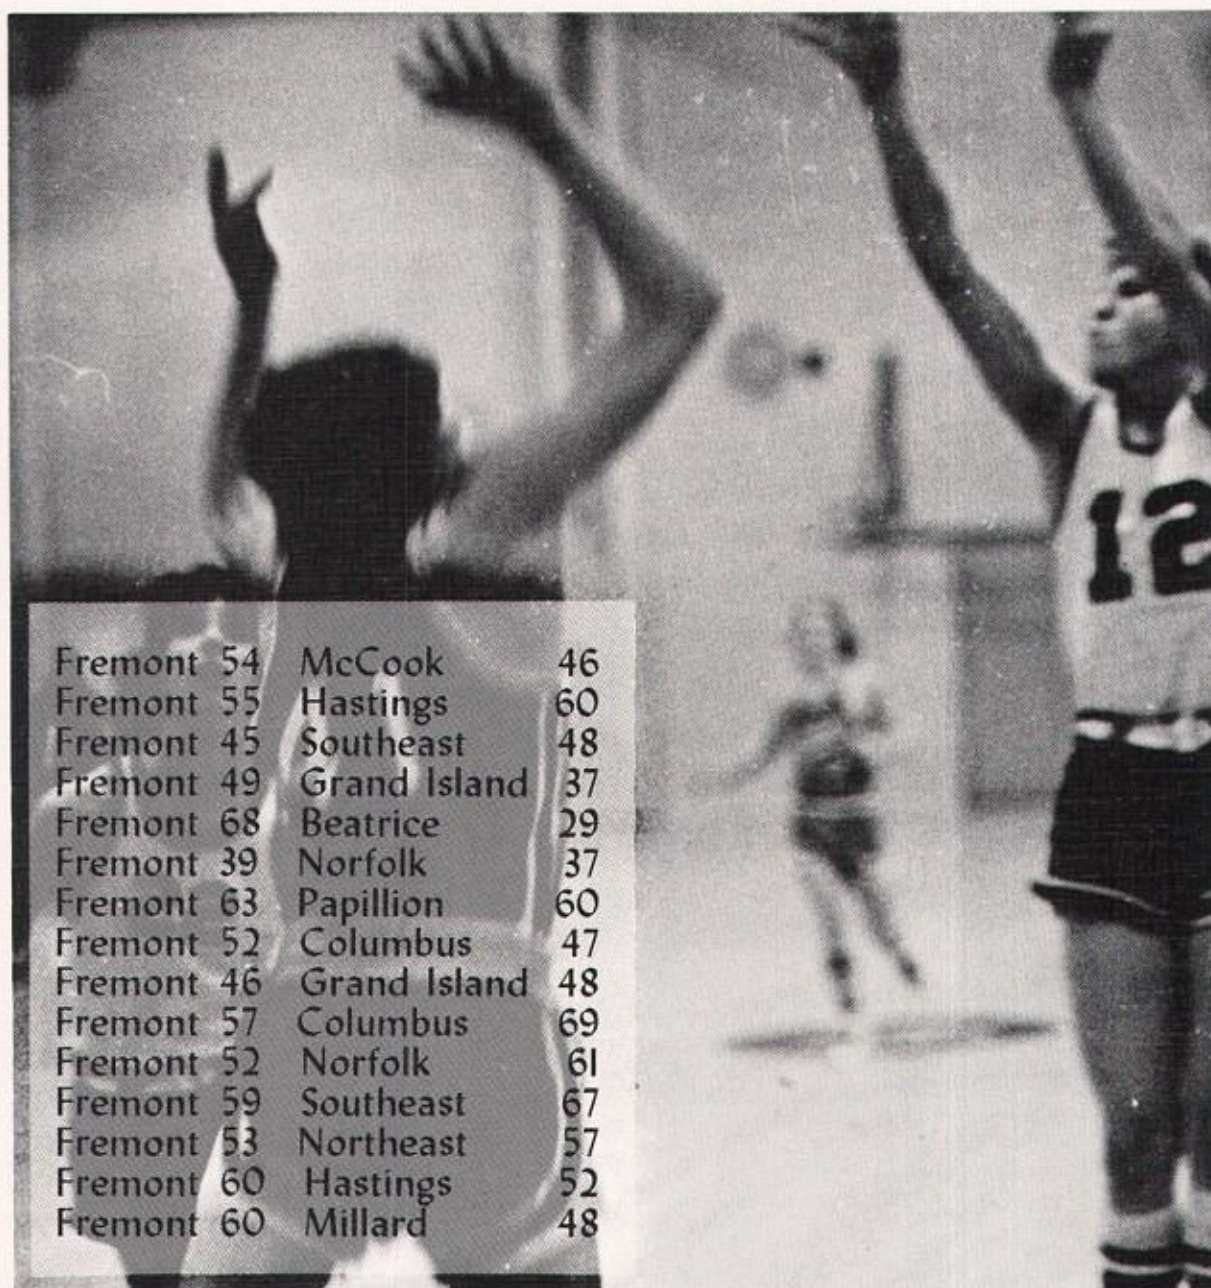

Junior forward Pete Wegman seems trapped in the corner by a Millard Indian on defense as he looks to pass the ball to another Tiger reserve player who might be open under the basket.

The reserve basketball team finished with a record of 8 wins and 7 losses. According to Coach Dennis Blair this year's reserves had no real height but were "short and scrappy." In every game played the team was never beaten very badly. They had a winning streak of five games in a row.

The leading scorer for the team was Kevin Odenreider, a sophomore. Mick Higley, junior, a transfer student from Bergan, was leading until he became eligible to play varsity ball the second semester.

Kevin Odenreider was the Tiger's leading rebounder also.

Coach Bob Hergenrader said that the purpose of his sophomore team is to give more kids an opportunity to play and develop their skills. The team was small but was led by such outstanding players as Jerry Detmer and Garland Perry, both sophomores. The team recorded a record of three wins and five losses.

Charter and Donkin topple records

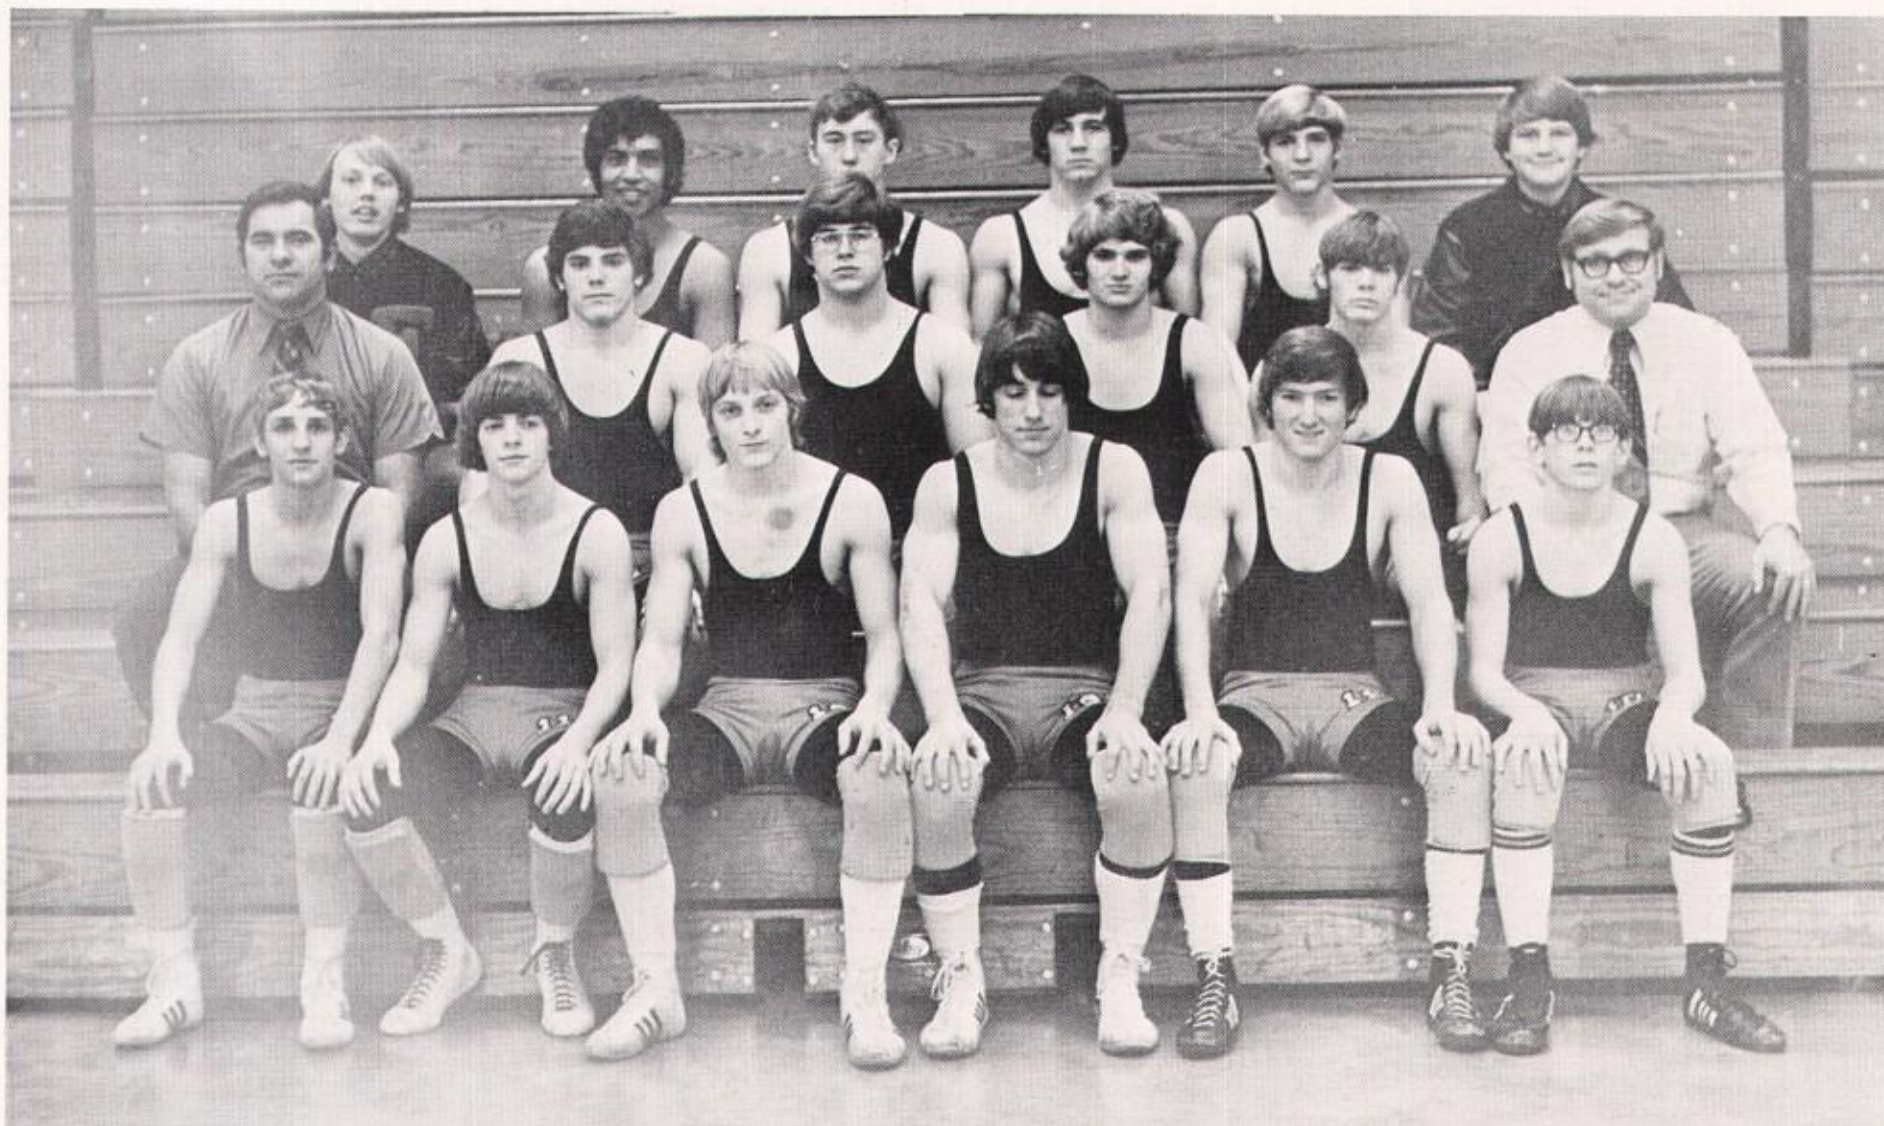

Senior Scott Donkin is declared the victor once again in a match at the Fremont Invitational. Donkin captured the championship in the 167 pound weight class.

Led by several returning lettermen, the Tiger wrestling team finished a successful season with a 7 win - 4 loss record. The experienced grapplers were aided by a host of promising juniors and sophomores Championships at the Fremont Invitational and District Tournaments highlighted the Tigers' season. In addition, they placed second at Big Ten and were ranked tenth at State.

Senior Roger Charter, who wrestled at 155, holds four records — most points scored and most wins in one season and in a career. Senior Scott Donkin, at 167, holds the record for most points scored in a dual season, has an undefeated dual record and received the Ken Steele Memorial Award. Junior Mike Raasch, also did well by placing third at the State Meet.

Coach John McMullen felt their success could be attributed to goals that were set high and all-around talent.

Swimmers led by Flory, Evans

Coached by Lou Christiansen and Rick Sandberg, the swim team finished with a record of six wins and four losses. Led by senior captains Jeff Evans and Bill Flory, the team took fifth place at the state meet. Four swimmers qualified for the state finals: seniors Jeff Evans, Bill Flory, Tom Bucy and sophomore Brian May.

Evans brought his career to a close at Fremont Senior High holding three state records and four Big Ten records. Flory claimed two Big Ten records, while Bucy maintained a Big Ten record in diving.

Twelve swimmers lettered this year, three of them four-year lettermen: Jeff Evans, Bill Flory and Mark Whitman. Bucy lettered three years and senior Cam Cloeter two years.

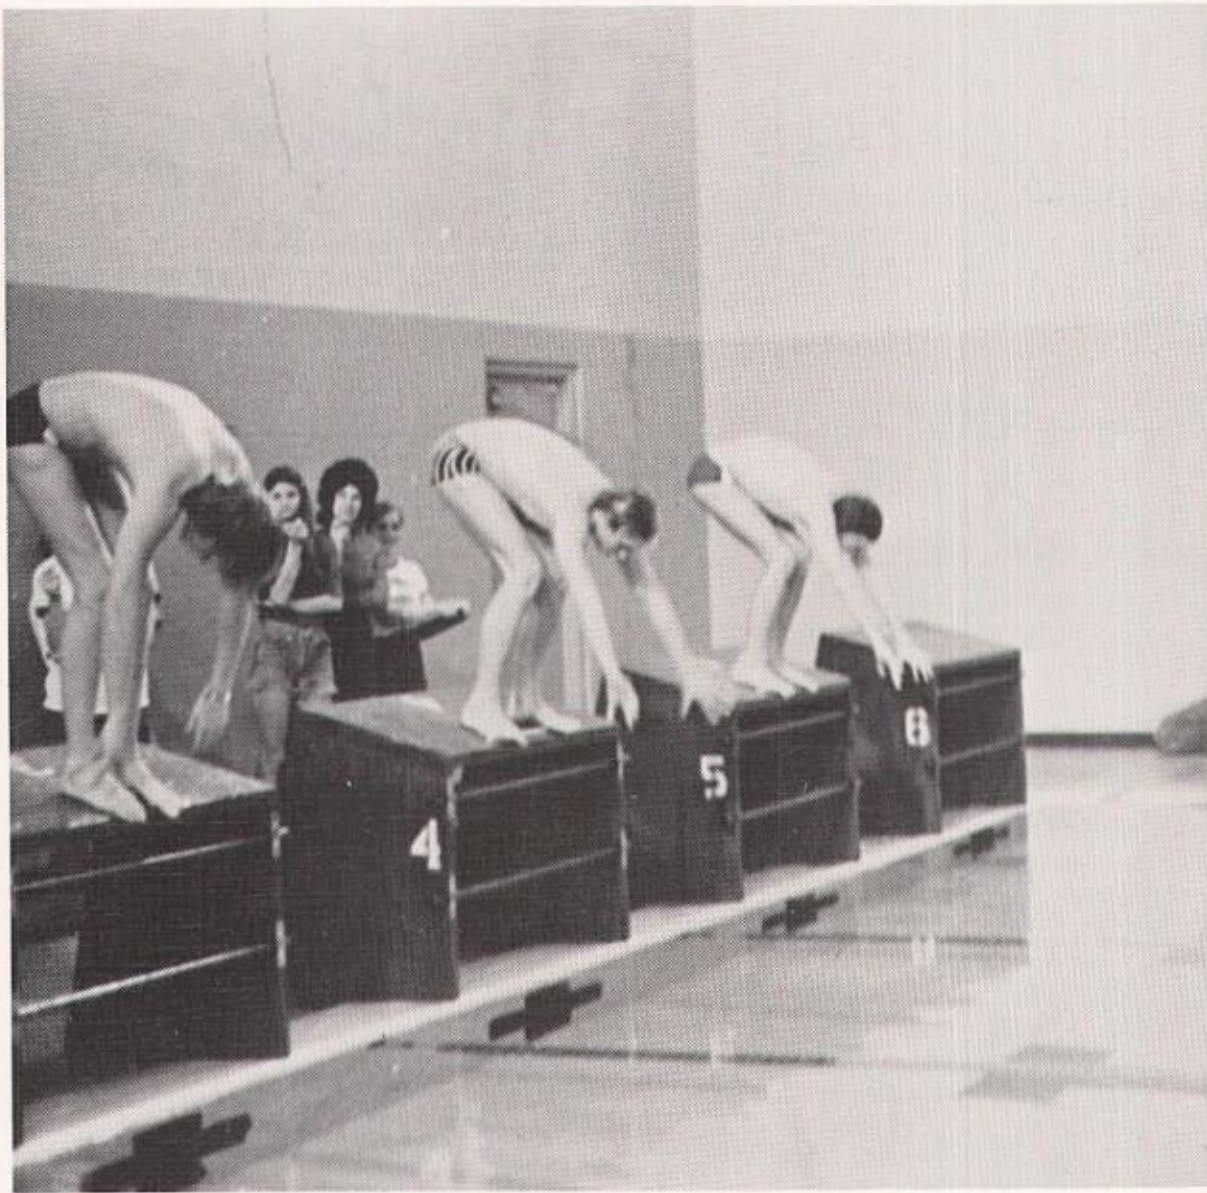

"The swim team relied heavily upon underclassmen. They did a commendable job of helping Evans and Flory have a very successful season," commented Coach Christiansen.

Senior Tom Bucy shows his form as he prepares to make a dive at the Midland pool.

Seniors Jeff Evans and Mark Wittman take a cold winter swim at the Fremont State Lakes. Jeff and Mark are both four-year lettermen in swimming having had successful careers.

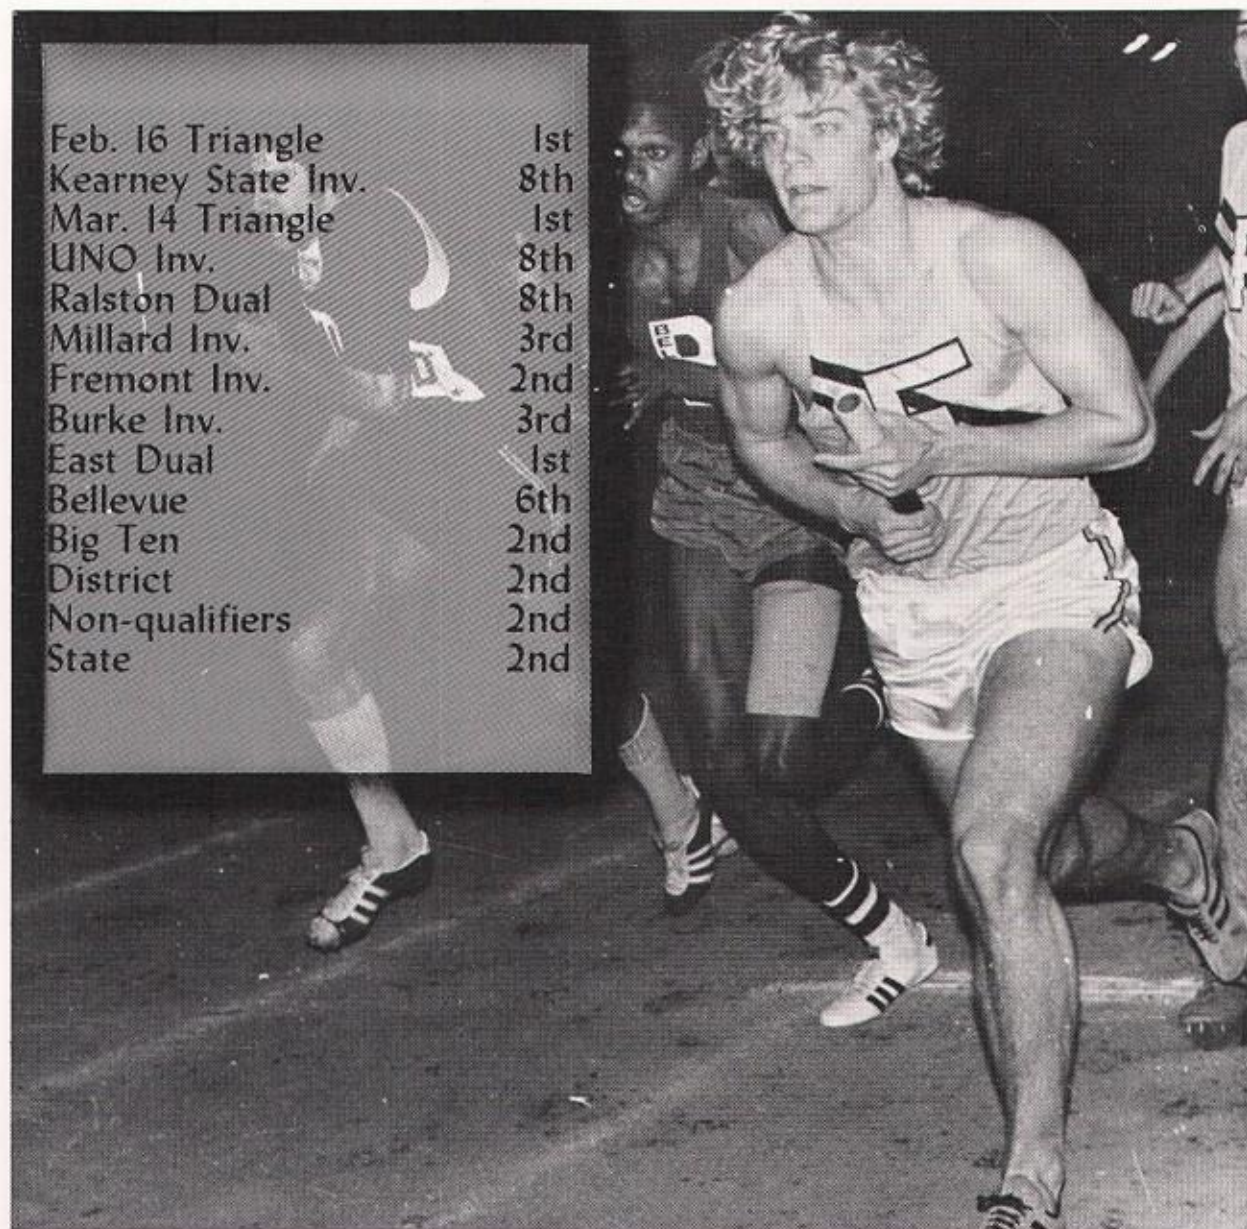

Senior Bill Flory gets set on the number four starting block just before a race at the Midland College pool. Bill is a four-year letterman in swimming and holds state and Big Ten records.

Junior Jim Leslie gracefully swings over the bar. Leslie was a consistent pole vaulter for the FHS thinclads and he as well as other class members show a lot of promise according to Coach Appleget. Besides pole vaulting, Leslie competed in the 220 yard low hurdles.

'The FHS track team gets better all the time'

"I say this every year, but the teams just keep getting better all the time. This is probably as good of team as we've ever had. It was an all-around good squad to work with, but we think we'll have an even better team next year," commented Coach Jon Appleget about the FHS thinclads.

He attributed the success of the team to the leadership of senior co-captains Dave Pimper and Roger Charter and the strength of the junior class.

The Tiger cindermen were directed by Coaches Dave Wilcoxson, weights; Pat Murphy, jumping; Mike Reis, sprints and hurdles; and Appleget, distance runs.

Taking second place at Big Ten the highest ranking ever for an FHS track team, highlighted the 1973 season. The thinclads also achieved a second ranking at the district meet.

Senior Ben Siebler broke a school record in the discus by throwing it 164 feet. Junior Mick Higley set a new school record in the triple jump which later was broken by junior Dan Mussman's 44'8½" mark.

Charter qualified in four events for the state meet, the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard dash and the mile relay. Altogether eleven Tigers were eligible for the state meet.

Senior Ben Siebler leans back confidently to one of his record breaking discus throws.

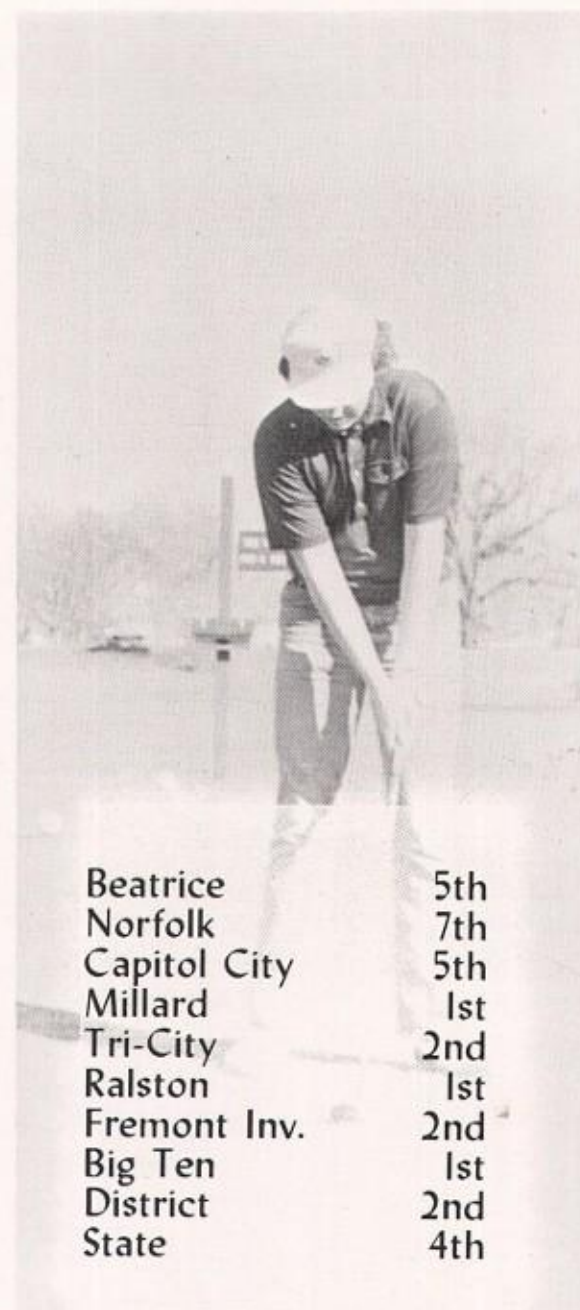

Junior Randy Dodd is ready to set the pace for the 880 yard relay team. Dodd also competed for the Tigers in two other events, the 220 yard dash and the 100 yard dash.

Weinberg takes highest honors at three meets

Four-year letterman Jon Weinberg, senior, was named medalist at the Big Ten Conference Meet for the second consecutive year. He won his title in a sudden death play-off with Scottsbluff. Weinberg also took medalist honors at the Beatrice Invitational and the Tri-City Invitational.

Coach Dick Petersen remarked, "We were pretty successful this year. It was the maturity of the boys, most were seniors. They really wanted to compete tough in golf. I would say we've had an outstanding program here in golf the last few years. We really had a spirit of competition amongst ourselves, because of the fine quality of golfers that we had."

Usually seniors John Carson, Brad Katz and Weinberg filled the top three positions for the Tiger linksters with juniors Mark Spomer and Dave Berger dualing for the fourth spot.

Fall golf boasts seven win record

Seniors Gere Peters and Becky Lambourn practice their golf swing, style, and technique. Gere and Becky dualed for the top position on the FHS girls' golf team.

"This 1972-73 girls' golf season has been one of my most successful years of coaching. With the strong support and experience of seniors Becky Lambourn and Gere Peters, the FHS girls' golf team earned a 7-1 season record," Coach Bobbie Hopp stated.

The seven member squad controlled seven dual matches over Thomas Jefferson, York and Syracuse. Fremont lost its single dual match to Norfolk, by a six-stroke margin. Early in the season, FHS hosted the Fremont Invitational and placed fifth. According to Coach Hopp, "Sophomore Keri Kock is our most improved golfer this season. This is her first year of competition. By next year some of the newer starters will have had a lot of competitive experience and will perform with greater confidence and skill. I am looking forward to another strong year of girls' golf."

Six field events advance to State

Aiming their strength during the District contest, the field event personnel produced an early lead by capturing 54 points of the teams' total 69 points, although their extended efforts resulted in a third place position.

Six field event participants qualified for the State meet hosted by Grand Island. FHS junior Jane Bertelson, Deb Watchorn and senior Deb Anderson took charge of the discus event, placing the top three contenders to travel to State. Deb Watchorn and sophomore Nancy Wilkinson were FHS' only double medalists. Watchorn also qualified in the shot put and Nancy participated in the long jump. Other qualifiers included junior Sue Frost in the high jump and senior Shelly Rathke in the long jump.

Junior Sue Frost attempts to clear the high jump bar during a routine practice session. Sue was a State contender in this event.

Junior Julie Hurt grits her teeth with determination as she concentrates on perfecting her long jump form, during a practice session.

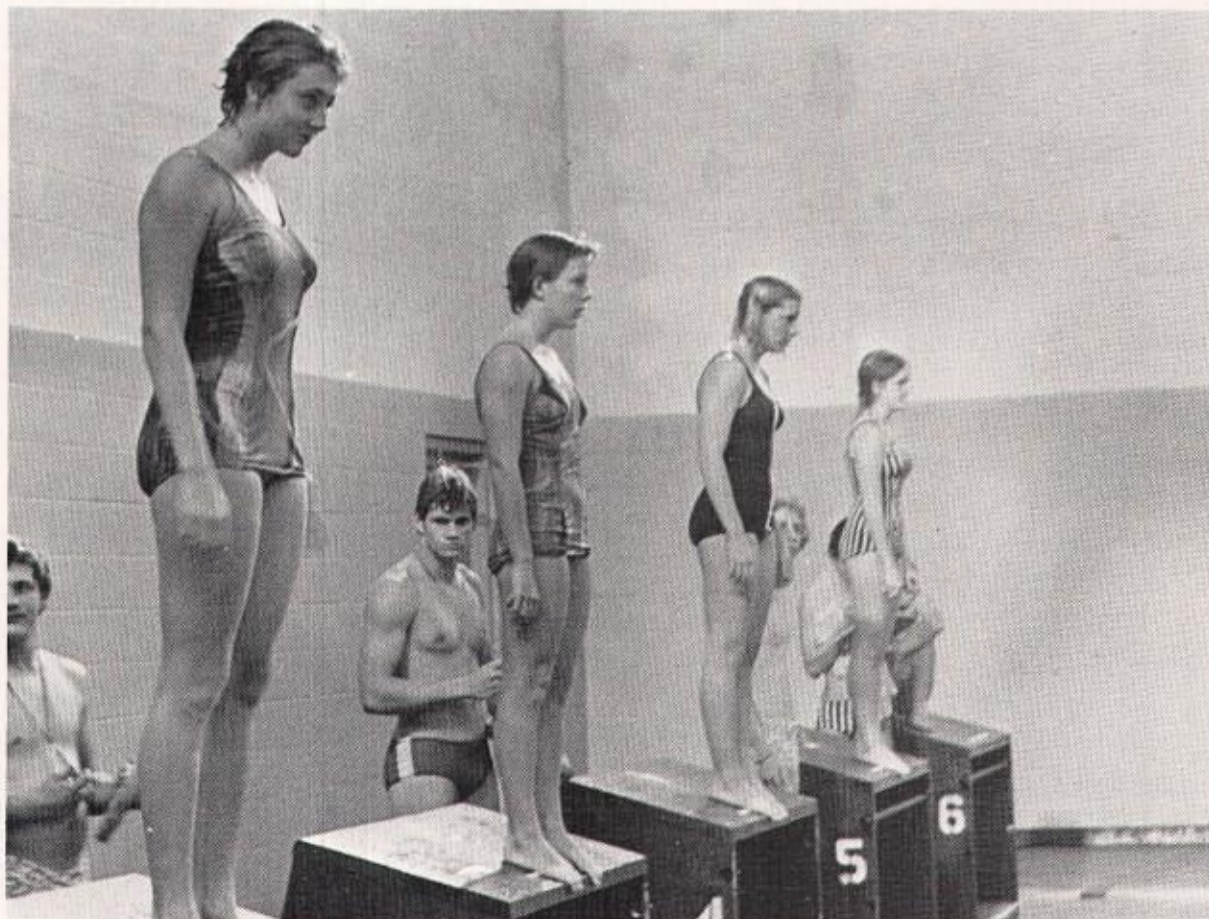

Junior Jane Bertelson takes pride in doing her utmost best in the discus.

FHS girls seek East invitational swim meet

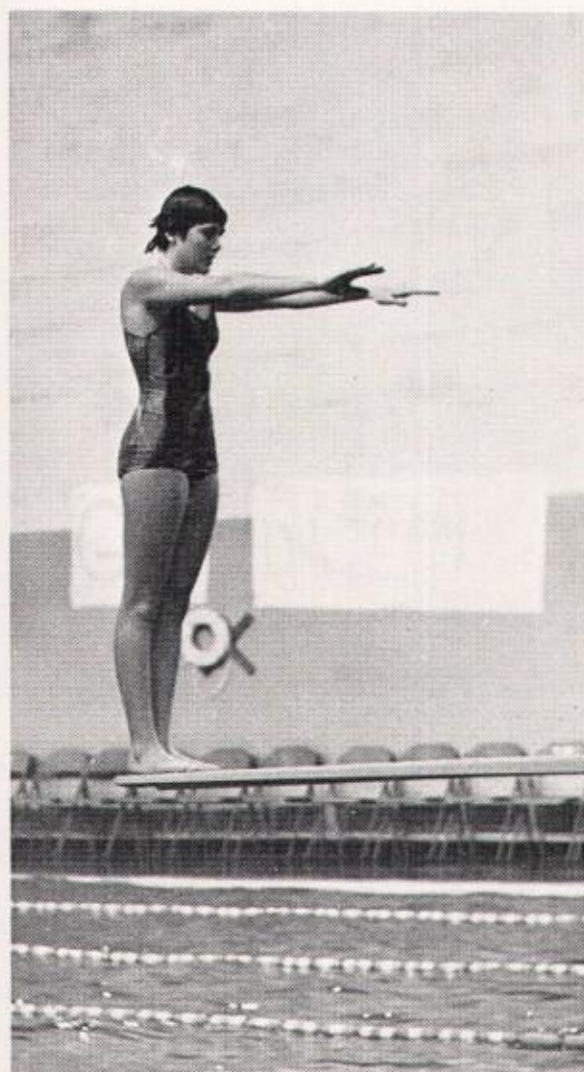

Fremont's initial competitive action for the 1972-73 swim season was the Second Annual State Girls' Swimming and Diving Championship.

Representing FHS in the Lincoln East Invitational, seventeen girls combined their efforts to achieve a second-place rating. Inter-squad meets between Diane's Ding-a-Lings and the Water Wienies were held throughout the swimming season.

Finishing second with a top time of 1:51.0 was the free-style relay composed of juniors Sandy Evans, Valerie Hattan and sophomores Sally Bloom and Annie Whittman. With a time of 1:06.9, only 1.4 seconds away from a new meet record, senior Diane Christensen achieved a second place position in the 100 yard individual medley. Earning 40.5 total team points, the FHS girls out-scored Lincoln Northwest, third, and Omaha Westside, fourth.

During a season inter-squad swim meet, Renee Johnson, Sandy Evans, Diane Christensen and Terri Rohrs mount the blocks to compete for a position on the FHS swim team.

Sophomore Annie Whittmann perfects her individual diving for future competition.

First row: Debbi Christainsen, Lynda Johnson, Christe Roh, Cathy Mueller, Annie Whittmann, Sandy Evans, Terri Rohrs, Laurie Christensen. FHS earns runner-up district volleyball award

Twelve weeks of FHS girls' volleyball practice and competition are over, yet not completely unnoticed.

Matches with Beatrice, Columbus, Ashland, Grand Island, Lincoln East, Blair and Omaha Westside gave the girls a chance to match their skills against many rated schools.

A staff change in the Physical Education Department determined the results of a new out-look in girls' athletics. Miss Sue Feaster and Miss Ruth Register combined their coaching ability to form a girls' volleyball team that earned a third-place rating in the Scottsbluff State Tournament.

The varsity line-up on the court at State consisted of seniors Debbie Anderson, Debbie Meier, Cheryl Stafford, and juniors Sue Frost, Joan Goree and Nancy Nichols. The girls' volleyball team finished their organized competitive season with a 9-6 record.

"The girls proved themselves ready for the tournament with excellent play and high spirits," stated Assistant Coach Ruth Register.

Junior Nancy Nichols leaps in determination to off-set her opponent with a powerful spike.

FHS ends season third in state

Ashland teammates set-up the volleyball, while senior Debbie Anderson anticipates a block. Fremont lost to Ashland, 14-16, 15-10, and 15-10 in their third match of the season.

Reserve player Mickey Sixta, sophomore, stretches to return a volley from the Ashland squad.

A break in game action catches Coach Feaster dramatizing major points of strategy.

Individual participation high in intramural area

With the initiation of coed activities, intramurals were able to involve teamwork efforts. The undefeated "Hog Farm" squad challenged nine other involved teams to capture the volleyball title. All in all, over 40 games were played by the team.

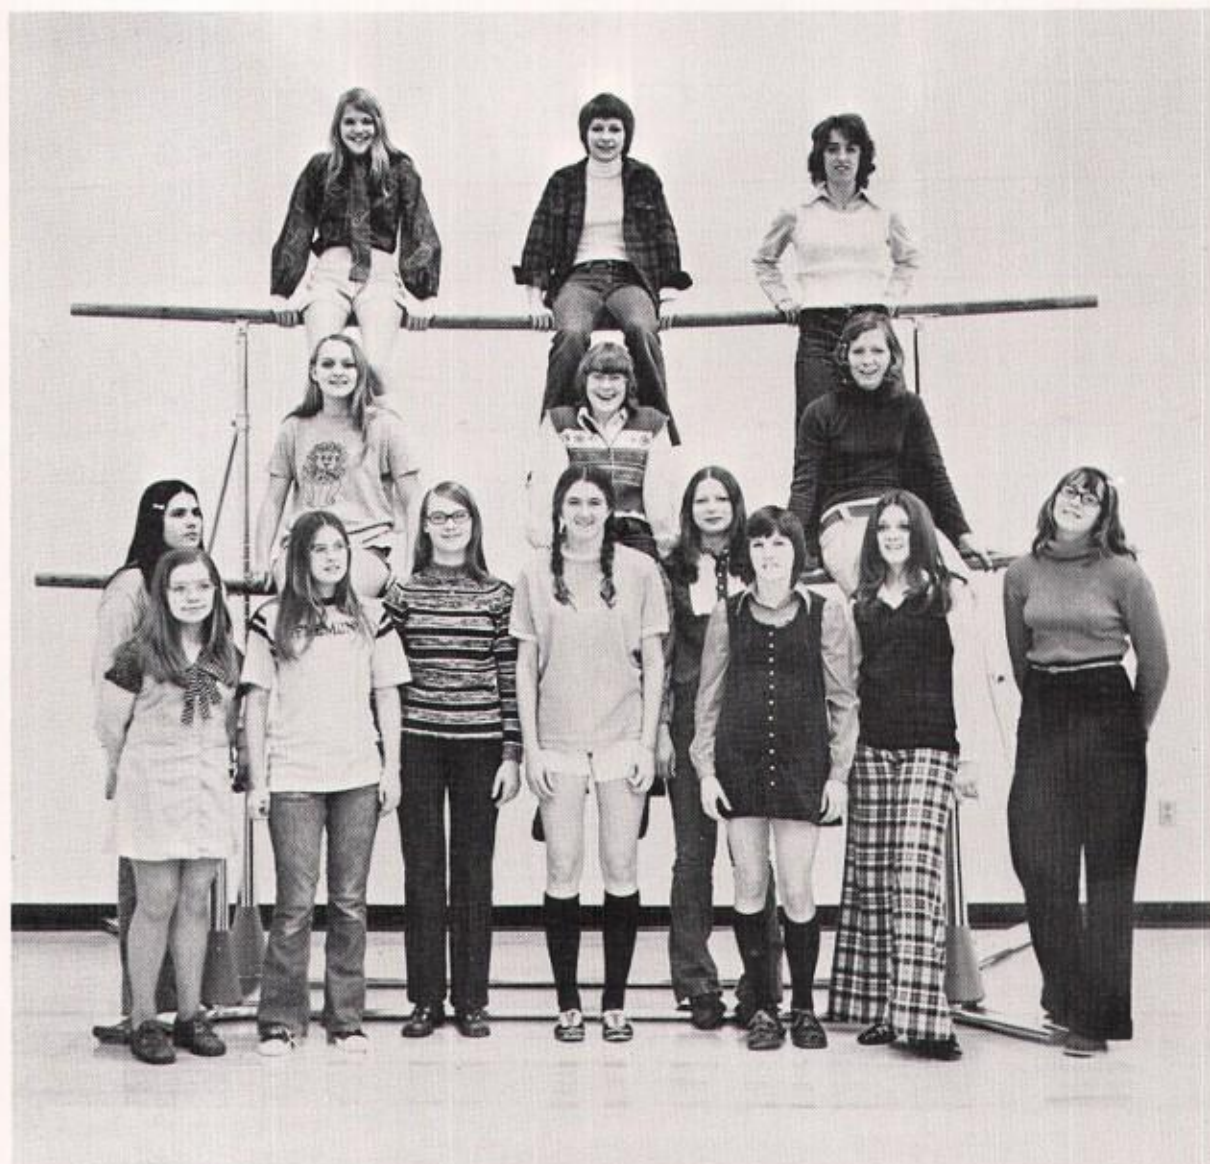

Intramurals promoted individuals to form teams which based its membership on interest, not necessarily talent or ability. In a nine week time limitation this handful of personnel combined its efforts to gain a special goal. The girls' gymnastic team, after intramural competition, later performed during a FHS basketball half time.

During the last stages of the school year, badminton aroused over 200 participants in the sport. Seniors Sue Register and Nancy Walker both dualed for the singles championship and later combined to form the winning doubles badminton team.

Intramural Sponsor Miss Sue Feaster explained that she makes the decision of each preferred activity based on the voiced opinion of student demand and desire. "Enlistees partake in a boundless opportunity to meet friends."

Miss Sue Feaster awards junior Nancy Nichols the Julie Roberts Memorial Plaque.

Rustler staff strives for perfection

Senior Barb Hafits goes through the "beat box" for stories to go into the next edition of The Rustler while senior Shawn Farley, calls on a merchant to place an advertisement in the paper.

The Rustler has been Fremont Senior High's school paper since 1913. It is published and distributed by a staff composed of students every two weeks and contains different activities that happen during the year.

This year, senior Dean Stunkel was the editor of The Rustler. He along with senior Brenda Fox, managing editor, and other members of the staff produced the FHS newspaper and experimented with new ideas in writing.

At the beginning of the year, Brenda and senior Barb Hafits, news editor, attended the Round Table. The Round Table is a school paper convention sponsored by Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska for Nebraska and Iowa high schools. New fundamentals of modern news, feature, sports and editorial writing plus photography were presented.

"We wanted to present The Rustler in the best way we knew how, and attending the Round Table gave us a lot of helpful suggestions," Brenda concluded.

Lofty theme selected by '73 staff

As Black and Gold deadlines catch up with the staff, two members seem to be up to their neck with work. Seniors Becky Lambourn and Karen Nelson keep busy measuring and proportioning pictures.

During the course of the school year, members of the 1973 Black and Gold recorded in words and pictures events and emotions which composed the year.

Staff positions for the yearbook were awarded at the Quill and Scroll banquet last spring. The students, tapped by those holding '72 staff positions, were selected by Advisor Mary Ehling on the basis of written applications as well as previous work.

Mrs. Ehling, along with staff members Debby Lyddon, Barb Albright, Debbie Anderson and Karen Nelson attended a yearbook workshop dealing with various types of layout, copy writing and photography for the book.

In November, the staff organized Black and Gold Queen nominations made by the senior class. Chosen on the basis of photogenic beauty, senior Jill Grobeck was announced as the 1973 queen out of a group of 11 senior candidates at the Honors Convocation.

Even before school began, the members organized and took part in a marathon softball game, earning the world's record for the longest softball game ever played. The project served to raise money for a trip to Enid, Oklahoma in May. Other band activities included taking part in marching contests at Plattsmouth, Pershing Auditorium, Midland College and Omaha Westside. Winning superior ratings in each, they also played at football and basketball games, Contemporary Arts Night and the Pop-Jazz Festival.

Seniors Mike Stoltenberg and Steve Woodcock qualified to attend the All State Music Clinic at Kearney this year in November. Stoltenberg played the clarinet and Woodcock, the trombone.

"The band's competitive spirit and enthusiasm has been reflected in their over-all superior rating," stated Band Director John Bowen.

FHS choir exhibit musical talents

All work and no play makes for a dull time in Milwaukee' seems to be senior Pete King's philosophy. Senior Karen Bruhn laughs good-naturedly at the joke as she tries to regain the key to her room.

Students from each grade level made up the choir consisting of 87 members this year.

The choir was very active and was involved in many programs. Their first was the Tri-City Clinic with Norfolk and Columbus held in the Columbus High School. Mr. John Lauber of Nebraska Wesleyan directed the combined group. In November, auditions for the State Music Clinic were held with seniors Susan Ronhovde, Nancy Allen and Jeff Evans all qualifying and attending the clinic in Kearney. The choir sang for several concerts: the Winter and Spring Concerts, the Christmas convocation, Contemporary Arts Night and for the 1973 Baccalaureate exercises.

Thirty-five Chorale members, groggy from a sleepless night before, practice during the wee hours of the morning. The group later appeared before a Music Educators' Conference in Milwaukee.

Chorale works to attend convention

"Chorale is a small ensemble of 28 of the best singers in choir which performs music designed for singing ensembles smaller in number than the choir," according to Mr. Robert Yanike, director of the Chorale.

This year, Chorale traveled to Milwaukee, Wisconsin for the National Music Educators Convention March 28-April 1. To help raise money, Chorale sold singing telegrams. The telegrams were sold for special occasions such as birthdays, get well, congratulations, good luck and anniversaries.

Other Chorale activities included concerts with choir and performing for civic organizations such as St. Pat's PTA.

"I feel some people have the wrong idea about Chorale . . . it is a group of people who are very interested in vocal music. I myself feel lucky to be in it," commented sophomore Tom Goodwin.

Fall play projects a different style

The drama department at FHS was under new instruction by first year teacher, Mr. Robert Keiper. The fall production, 'Dark of the Moon', was his first at FHS. An estimate of 1,150 attended. Tom Goodwin, sophomore, as John the Witch Boy, portrayed a witch boy that was turned into a human for a limited time if he could marry Barbara Allen, played by senior Shelley Schroeder, and she would be faithful for one year then his human figure would remain indefinitely. If not, he would change back into the witch boy.

Other members of the cast included: Brenda Fox, senior, as Dark Witch; Becky Leighton, junior, as Fair Witch; John Gaskin, junior, as Conjurman; Dollie Odle, junior, as Conjurwoman; Rod Vetter, sophomore, as Preacher Haggler; Ron Draine, junior, as Pa Allen; and Sheryl Hurt, senior, as Ma Allen.

After John the witch boy, in human form, and Barbara Allen are joined in marriage, she desperately tries to get him to attend church in order for him to get sanctified. Her task was not easy.

Barbara Allen sadly expresses her feelings for John the witch boy through 'The Ballad of Barbara Allen', a song that tells the story of a witch boy who desperately tries to become human. The townsfolk of Buck Creek listen intently to the story.

River City dazzled by Harold Hill

Mayor Schinn, Mayor of River City, urges the members of the School Board to stop arguing in public. The discussion is over whether or not the train is late, early or right on time.

"The story of 'The Music Man' is a sample one of a prudent piano teacher falling in love with a traveling salesman," commented senior Mary Kay Edwards, who played Marion.

In the beginning of the play, Marion despises Harold Hill, played by senior Pete King. She realizes he is a fraud but keeps her information to herself when she realizes she is in love with him, as well as everything he has brought to River City.

River City, Iowa was the setting for the play as Harold Hill, dazzled the 'stubborn Iowans' and Marion Paroo.

Harold Hill planned to sell the Iowans band instruments and then leave the town after collecting the money, but couldn't leave because he, too, had fallen in love with Marion.

The fine arts department presented 'The Music Man' March 14, 15, and 16.

Marion ponders sorrowfully for the one she loves as she sings "Goodnight My Someone".

Harold Hill, portrayed by senior Pete King, tries to get Marion's, attention, portrayed by senior Mary Kay Edwards, by threatening to drop all the marbles he has in his bag on the library floor.

The citizens of River City join together in welcoming the audience to their city by singing "Iowa Stubborn", which was a song telling about how stubborn the people of Iowa were—something of which Harold Hill decided to try and change. It was a difficult task, but he succeeded.

Night Watch-'a mysterious drama'

Helga the maid, played by senior Peggy Welty, informs Elaine, portrayed by senior Karen Bruhn, that her husband's company owns the building where the murders took place just before she leaves for Germany.

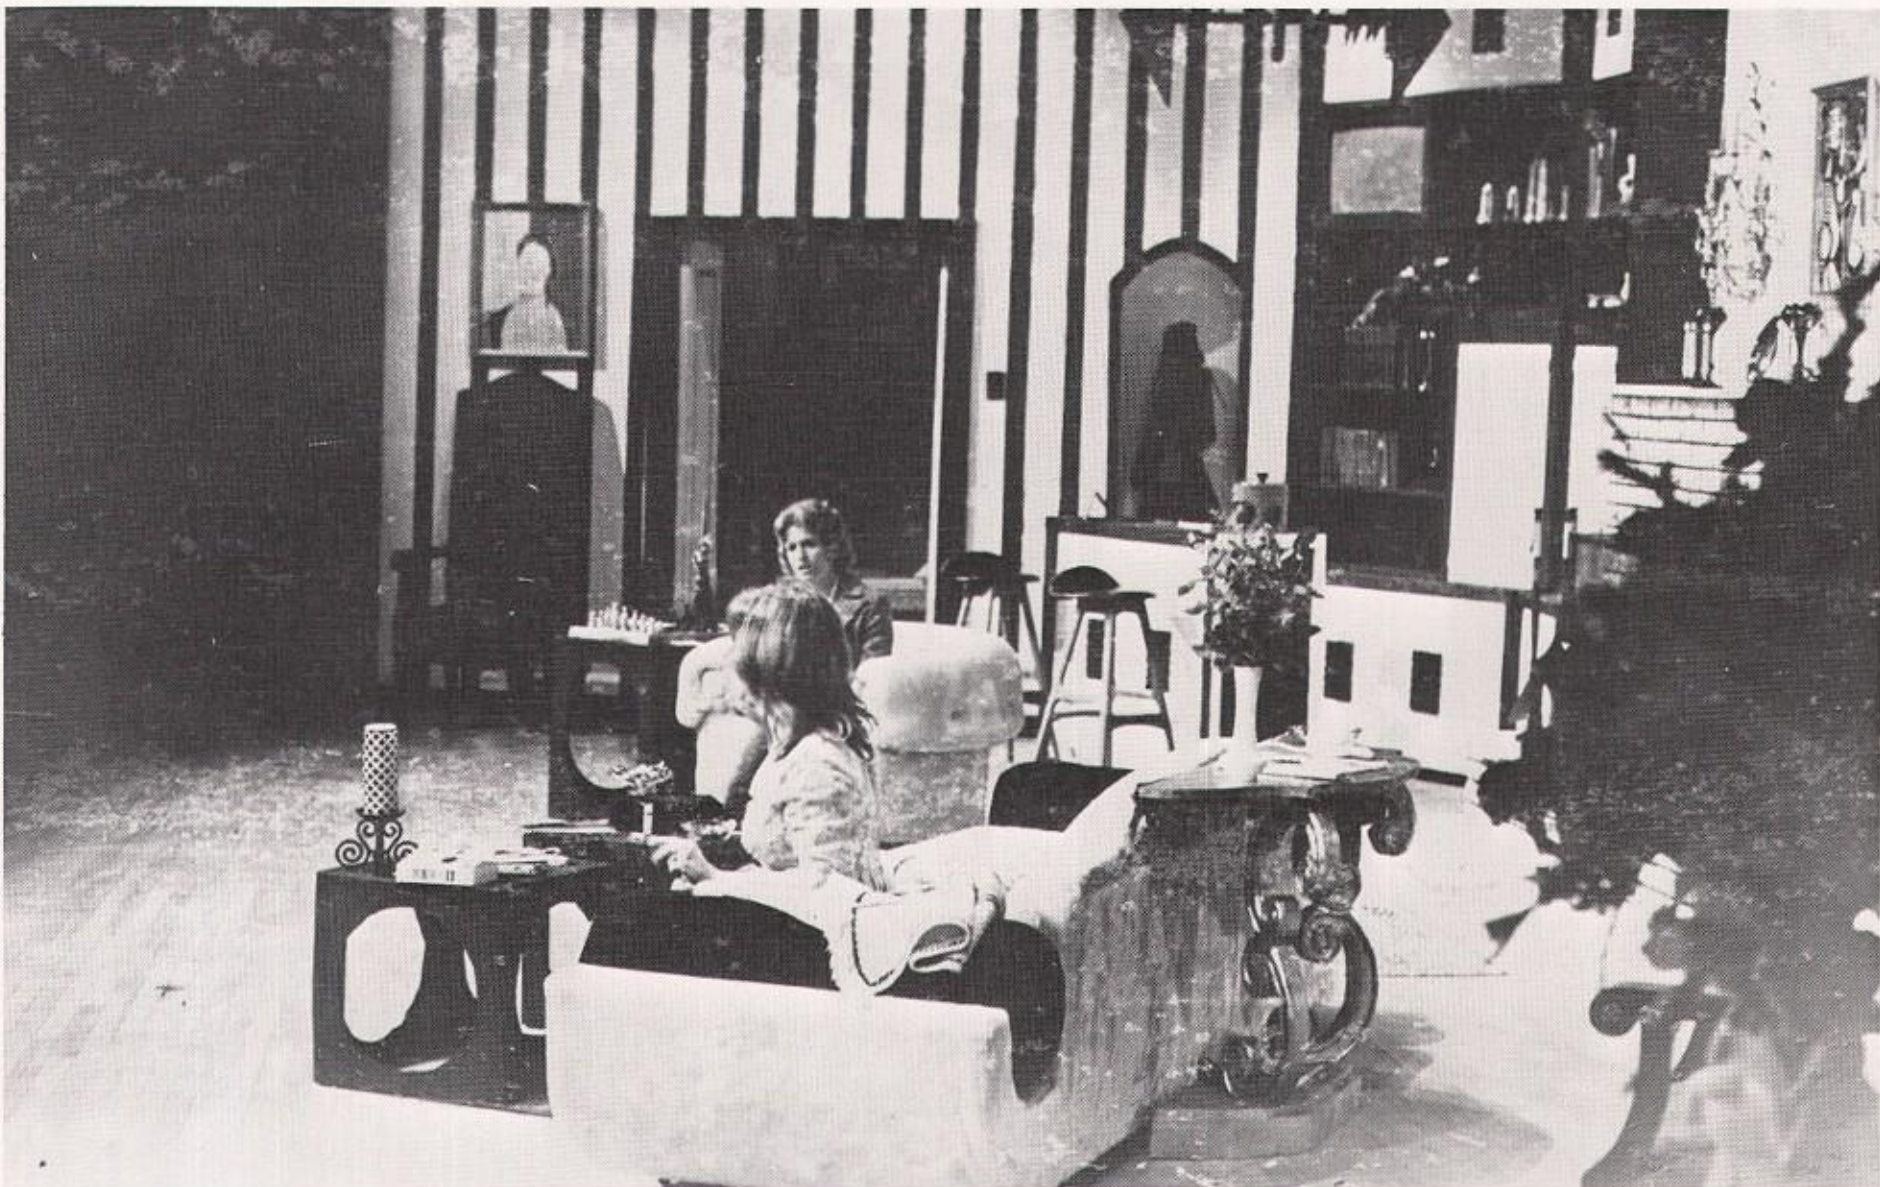

Closing the season for the Drama Department was the Fremont High production of Night Watch, May 4-5.

Night Watch centered around Elaine Wheeler, who is displayed as a slightly neurotic woman who claims to have seen two dead bodies in a tenement building across the street.

Elaine, played by senior Karen Bruhn is aware that her husband is having an affair with their best friend, Blanche, played by senior Pat Wilson.

Elaine had called the police so many times and given false reports that they did not believe her the last time she called, only this time there really were two dead bodies in the building, the bodies of her husband John, played by junior J. P. Voecks and Blanche.

Elaine then set off on a get-away to Switzerland after having actually committed the perfect crime.

The psychiatrist, senior Diana Newkirk, listens intently to Elaine Wheeler (a slightly neurotic-minded individual portrayed by senior Karen Bruhn) as she tries to determine whether Elaine is really disturbed as the stories around town say or if she is sane and telling the truth.

FHS anxiously awaits Homecoming

Things come and things go and finally Homecoming '72 was here. Senior Becky Kraft was crowned Homecoming Queen for the 1972-'73 term at a special convocation. Juniors Diane Thompson and Marsha Pettitt were tapped as her princesses.

The candidates selected for queen were seniors Cheryl Lunn and Laurie Jensen and for princesses were juniors Diane Downey and Julie Hurt.

The 47-7 victory over the Hastings Tigers added to the excitement of Homecoming. Queen Becky, and her princesses, were presented to the public at a special half-time ceremony.

The Homecoming dance followed the game. At the dance, bracelets were presented to the royalty by senior F-Club members Scott Donkin, Dave Pimper, and president Ben Siebler. Ben then escorted Queen Becky in the traditional "queen's dance". Music was provided by the Revolvers.

Senior Rory May gives the senior Homecoming display a final lookover before the judging. This was the third winning display belonging to the Class of '73. The theme was 'Let's get a-head of Hastings'.

Seniors Cheryl Lunn and Laurie Jensen, left, were also nominated for the title of Homecoming Queen. Nominated for the position of princess were juniors Julie

Christmas inspires FHS students

The spirit of Christmas was all around FHS as the festive season approached. Many homerooms put decorations on their doors which were later judged. Miss Ruth Lonn's homeroom won the honor of first prize for the most attractive door.

"I believe that the canned food drive was a great success this year," commented Student Body president Mike Heintzelman. "It shows the students really do care about others and this was really very evident this year."

Mrs. Harriet Hafits' homeroom won first place in the drive with a total of 626 cans, while 33 canned hams and $79 were contributed by Mrs. Deanna Freitag's homeroom. Mrs. Mary Ehling's senior homeroom also contributed over 35 canned hams and received special recognition.

Seniors Karen Riggs and Mark Hansen were chosen Merry Christmas and Happy New Year at the annual Christmas Dance sponsored by Fremont's Distributive Education Club of America.

"I want to thank all the students that came to our dance," stated DECA President John Weinberg. Even though we had a small turnout, those who came really had a good time."

Student Body President Mike Heintzelman and junior Teri Rohrs gather up contributions made towards the 1972-73 canned food drive. With re-introduced competition, over 5,000 cans were collected.

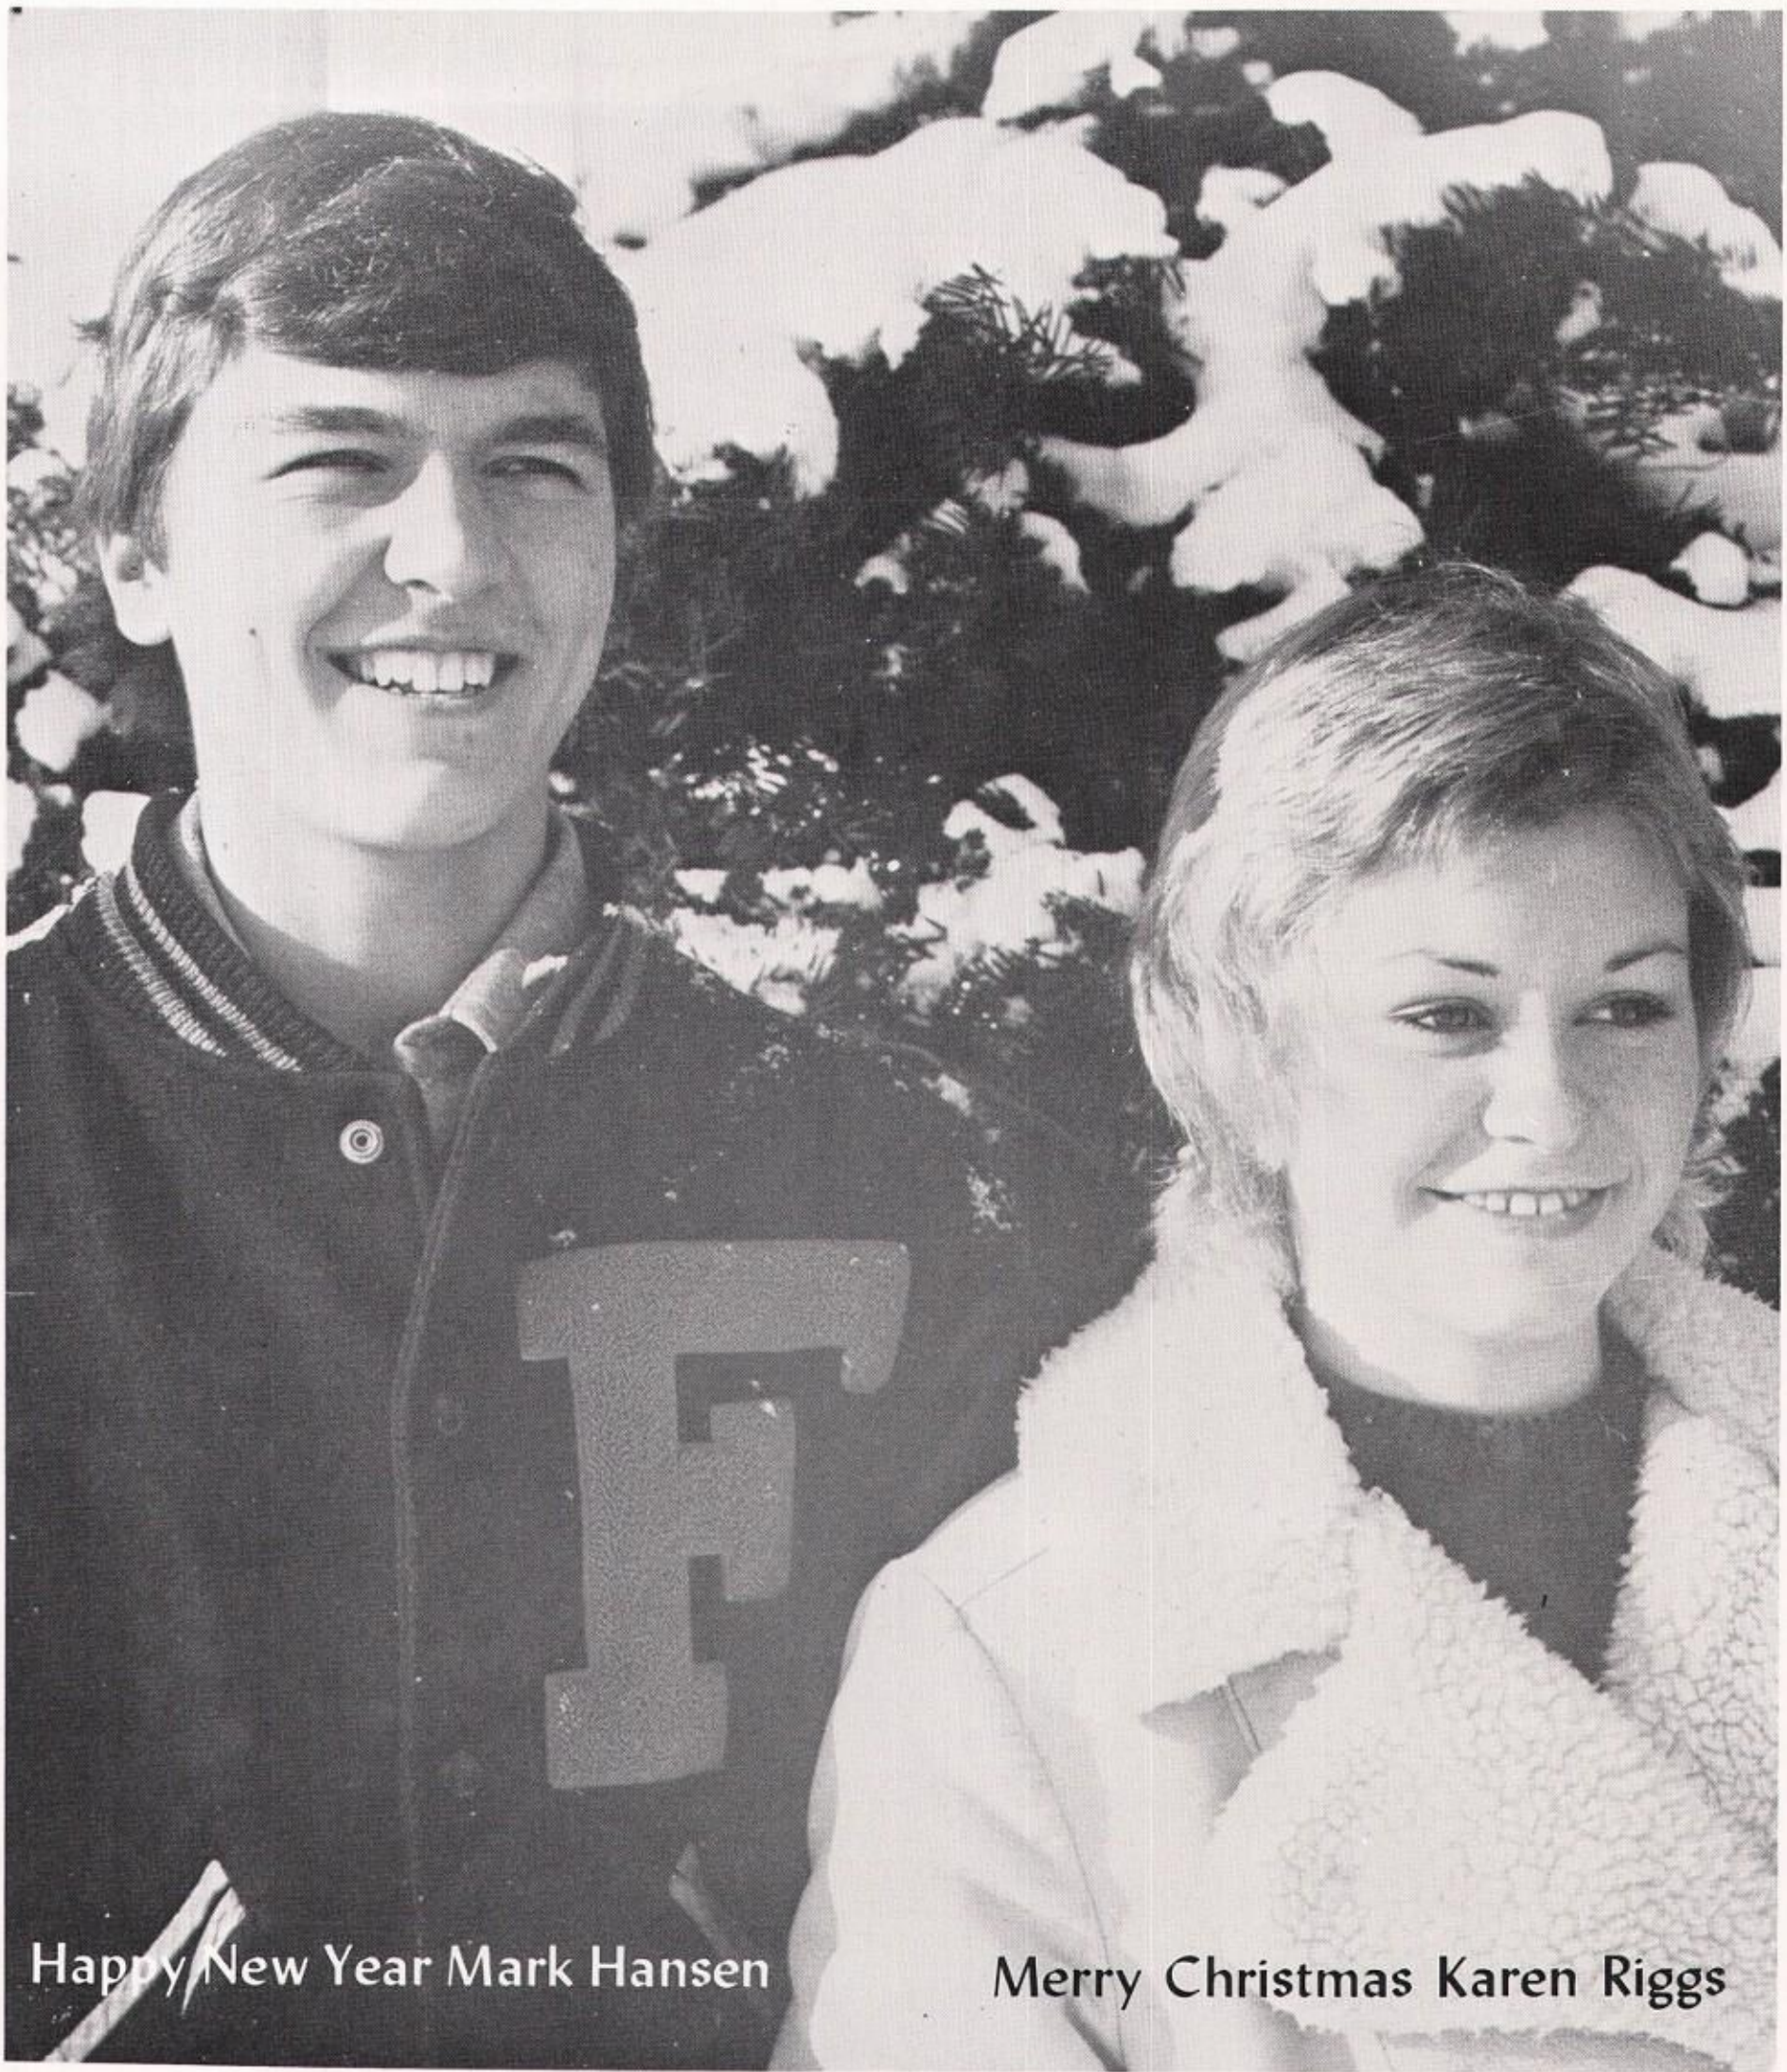

Despite the small Christmas dance attendance, seniors Shelly Schroeder and Ben Siebler seem to be enjoying the festivities as they step to the music of the Elastic Band.

Happy

Nominations for the titles of Merry Christmas and Happy New Year were conducted a week prior to the dance by the senior class. Those selected as nominees were Ben Siebler, Laurie Jensen, Dave Drake, Peggy Welty, Pam Borgmeyer, and Jeff King besides winners Karen Riggs and Mark Hansen.

'One of the best years of my life'

This year's AFS student was Steve Clingman from Johannesburg, South Africa. Steve applied to the AFS organization in Johannesburg during his junior year and went through several interviews before his application was sent into New York. "I did it as a matter of interest and then got very excited about it. Once I'd been accepted, nothing could stop me."

"When I first arrived, I was quite uncertain as to what my reception would be like. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weinberg and Jon, the people I lived with this year, met at the bus station in Omaha at 2:00 a.m. Needless to say, any fears I might have had, were groundless. I had one of the best years of my life here at Fremont. Memories of school, football, track, lettering, a fifteen minute phone call home and mainly all the truly wonderful people I have met, will remain with me for the rest of my life."

Steve Clingman's foster family for the 1972-73 school year are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weinberg, John Carson and Jon Weinberg. "Steve is really great to have around," commented Jon.

Steve Clingman proudly stands with his "Dad" while fathers are announced on Dad's Night.

TWIRP—let's grease back 'n jive

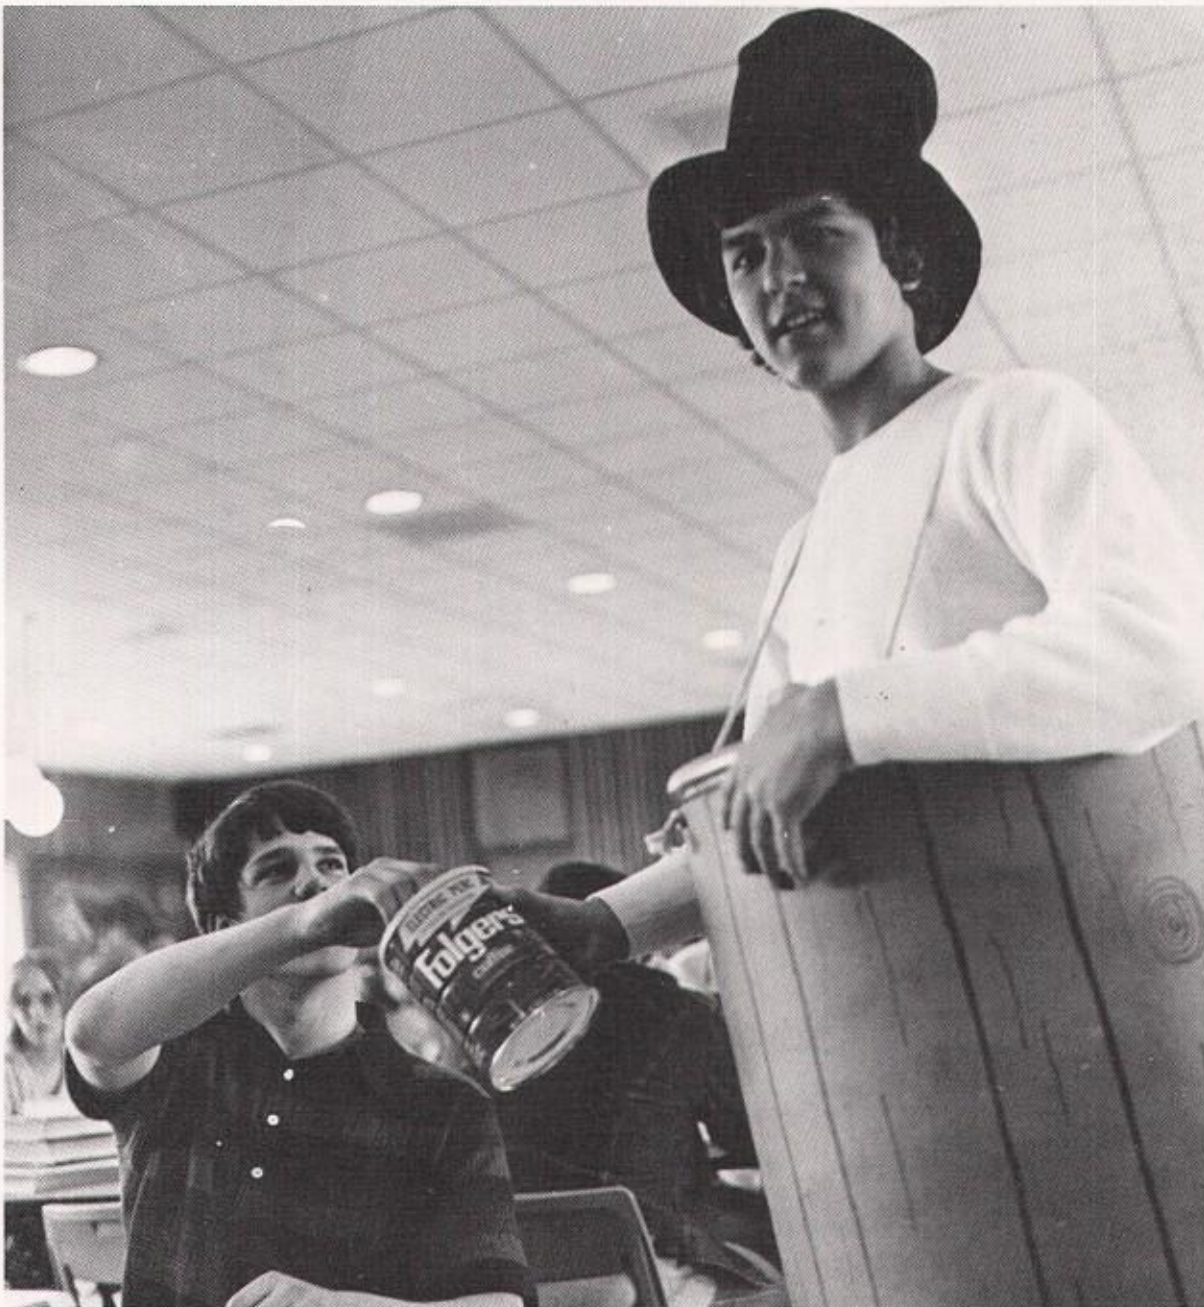

TWIRP candidates were allowed to leave scheduled classes early in order to collect money for the American Field Service fund. Pillsbury Doughboy Mac Peters takes time out to fold Rustlers.

On April 13 of this year, the roles of boys and girls were reversed as the women not only "twirped" her date but was also required to pay for entire evening's entertainment.

This year's TWIRP dance took place in the high school gymnasium and was set around the 1950's. To be admitted, the couples had to look the part. Senior Lenice Hines and AFS student Steve Clingman were crowned as TWIRP royalty at the dance.

This year's TWIRP candidates were sophomores Lana Townsfelt and Steve House; juniors Sally Ryerson and Mac Peters; and seniors Lenice Hines, Geri Peters, Steve Clingman and Mark Hansen. The Student Council was responsible for selecting the candidates.

Senior TWIRP candidate Mark Hansen gives the AFS fund the shirt off his back by barrelling on in his money-making campaign. Junior Joe Macrino gladly makes an appreciated donation.

Senior TWIRP candidate Lenice Hines sings 'Blue Suede Shoes' —Elvis-style for donations. Elvis' performances brought her $84.27 and a standing ovation from A, B and C lunches!

"Why won't my ba-a-by ask me-e to TWI-IRP?"
TWIRP Week 1973 was off to a jivin' start as groggy students sat dazed in homerooms listening to a somewhat butchered 50's melody. Seniors Mark candidates meet in Mr. Stoll's room to tally their daily quota of money. They are senior Lenice Hines, Sally Ryerson, senior Mark Hansen, senior Steve Clingman and senior Gere Peters.

Hansen, Geri Peters and Steve Clingman also display the spirit of TWIRP with garish outfits.

Participants marvel at 'Saturday in the Park'

Every year, it is the job of the junior class to design a Prom for the departing seniors. With many hours of planning, sketching and experimenting, the juniors finally put their ideas into a major theme for the 1973 Junior-Senior Prom—'Saturday in the Park'.

The dance was held in the gym on Saturday May 12th. All juniors were urged to come the night before and Saturday morning to decorate the gym. Street lights and brimming fountains set the mood for the dance.

According to junior Mark Muller approximately 150 couples attended the dance. "We were really pleased with the turn out," he went on to say. Music this year was provided by Freedom Road.

Couples chat after being introduced during the Grand March. Traditionally the boys escort their dates through the Grand March while parents and visitors watch from the balcony. Don Hosch, sophomore, announced the students names during the gala event.

Senior Dave Pimper along with his date Judy Wewel stand together after being announced at Grand March. Tux's were optional for the boys, but there were still many worn that evening.

Juniors Dan Harms and Ellen Kempke seem to be enjoying the night's activities as they chat.

Next-to-the-last- step—baccalaureate

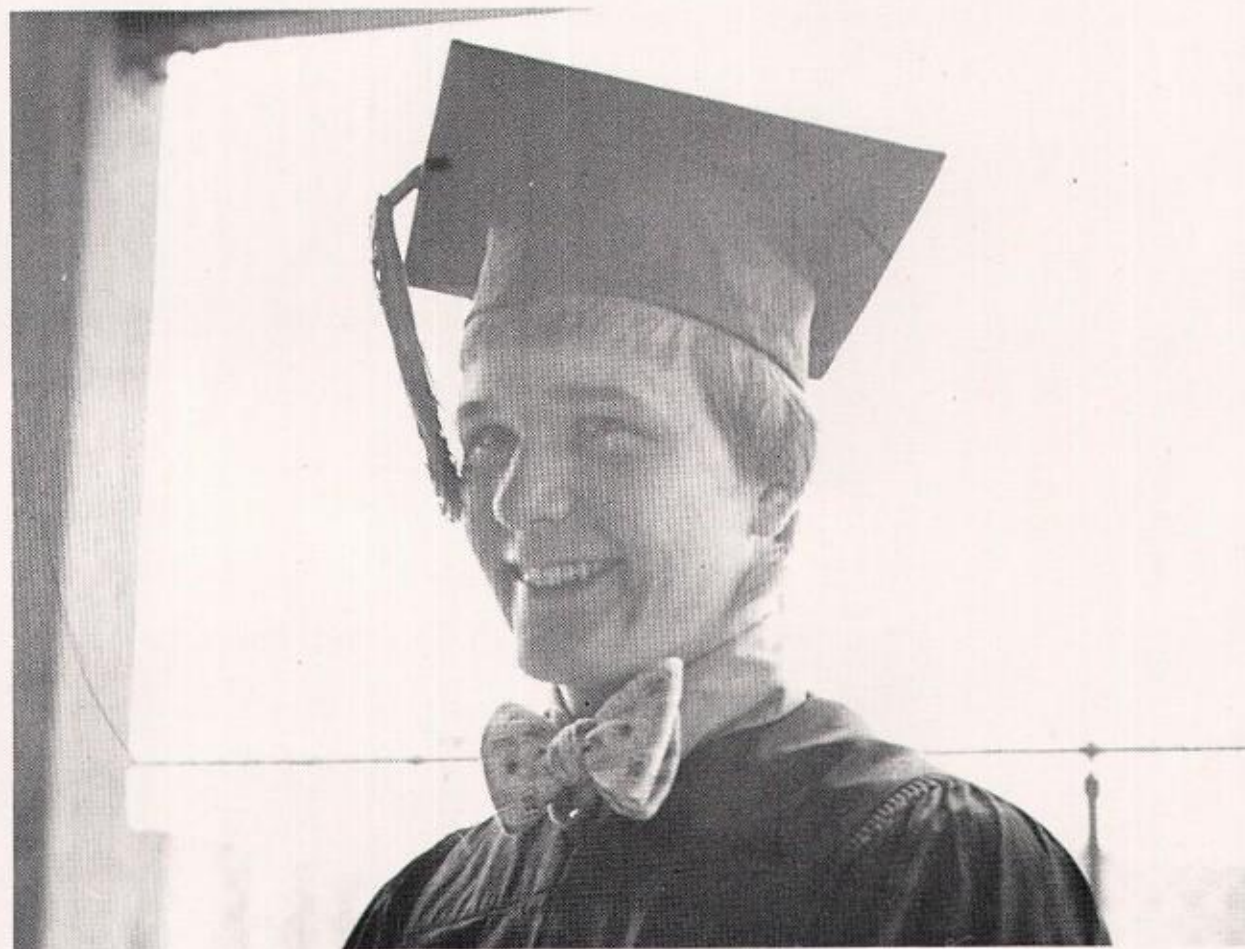

The Reverend Ralph Ritzen brings his speech to an end by wishing all the graduating seniors "peace".

Baccalaureate services for the class of 1973 began with a prayer by the Reverend Gary Schlosser and an introduction of senior Dean Stunkel who gave his student address on 'The Student and the Future'.

Dean's speech brought warm feelings and tender thoughts to the seniors as they listened to him. He was later commended on his speech by Mrs. Harriet Hafits. She commented that, "Every once in a while we have to forget our formal way of writing and speak directly from the heart."

The baccalaureate sermon was given by the Reverend Ralph Ritzen entitled 'Why Am I Here?' followed by a benediction by the Reverend Robert Hansen.

The class of 1973 was ready for commencement.

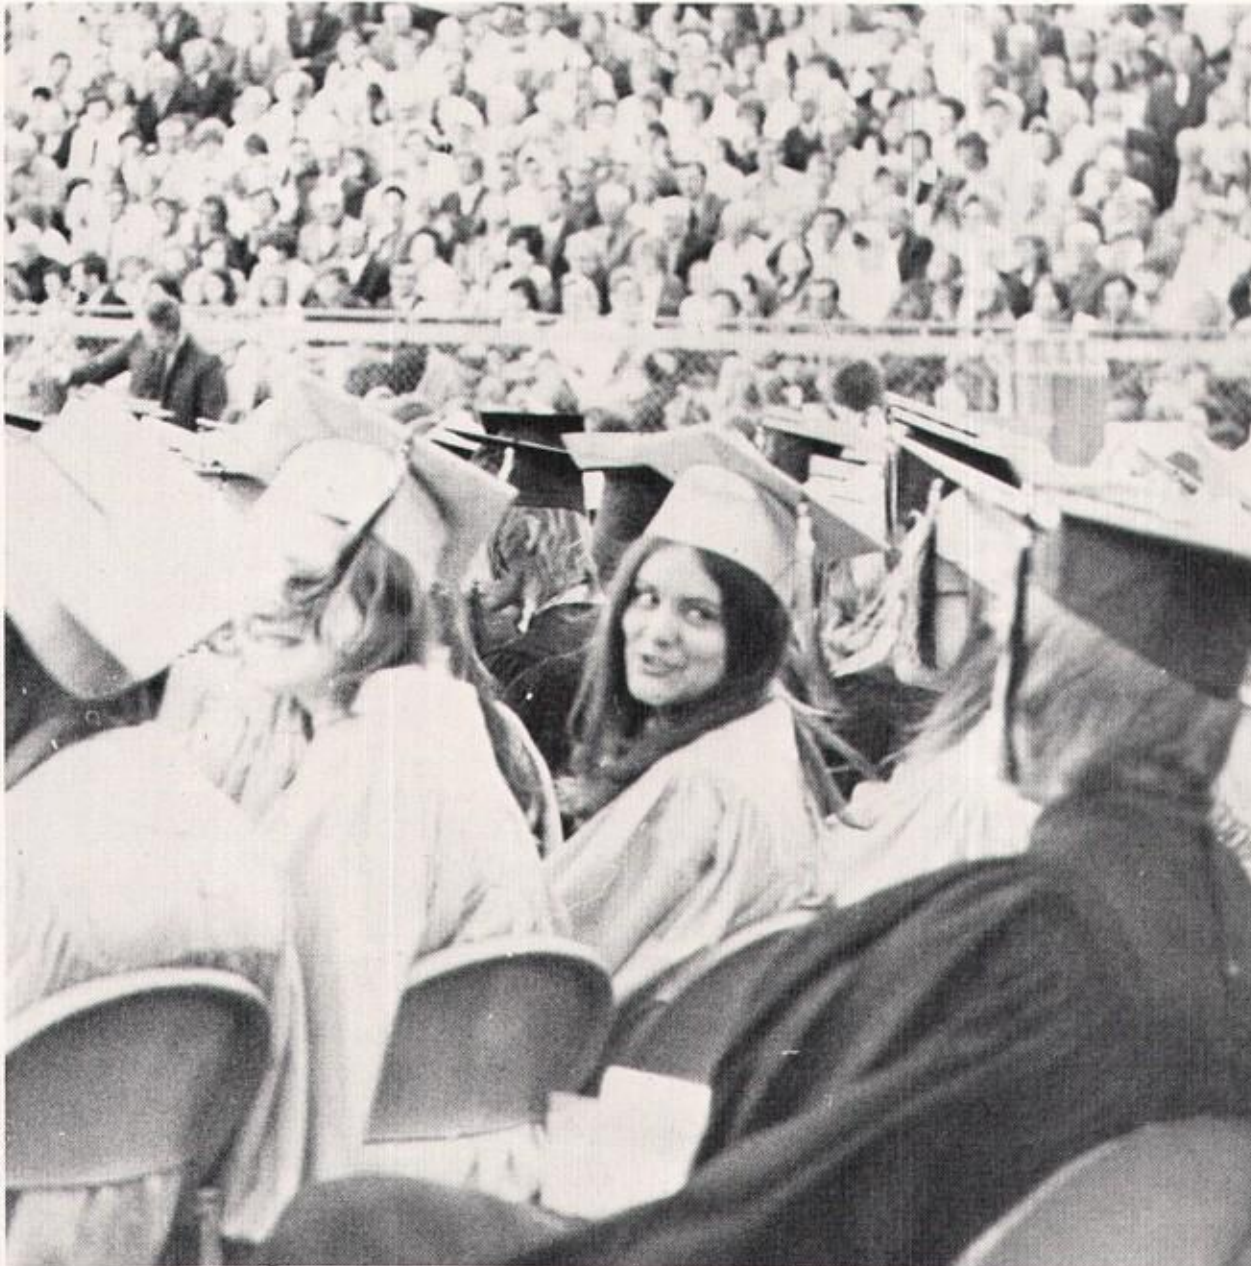

Senior Dave Drake smiles proudly as he partakes in the baccalaureate services. Black gowns were worn by the boys and gold gowns were worn by the girls to signify Fremont High's colors.

'You will be remembered well'

Graduating seniors grasp their hats tightly so the wind won't carry them away as they prepare to march to their seats for the graduation exercises. The night was a cool but pleasant one.

Waiting to receive each individual diploma seems like a never-ending task. To make time pass along the seniors chat with their friends some of whom they will never see again.

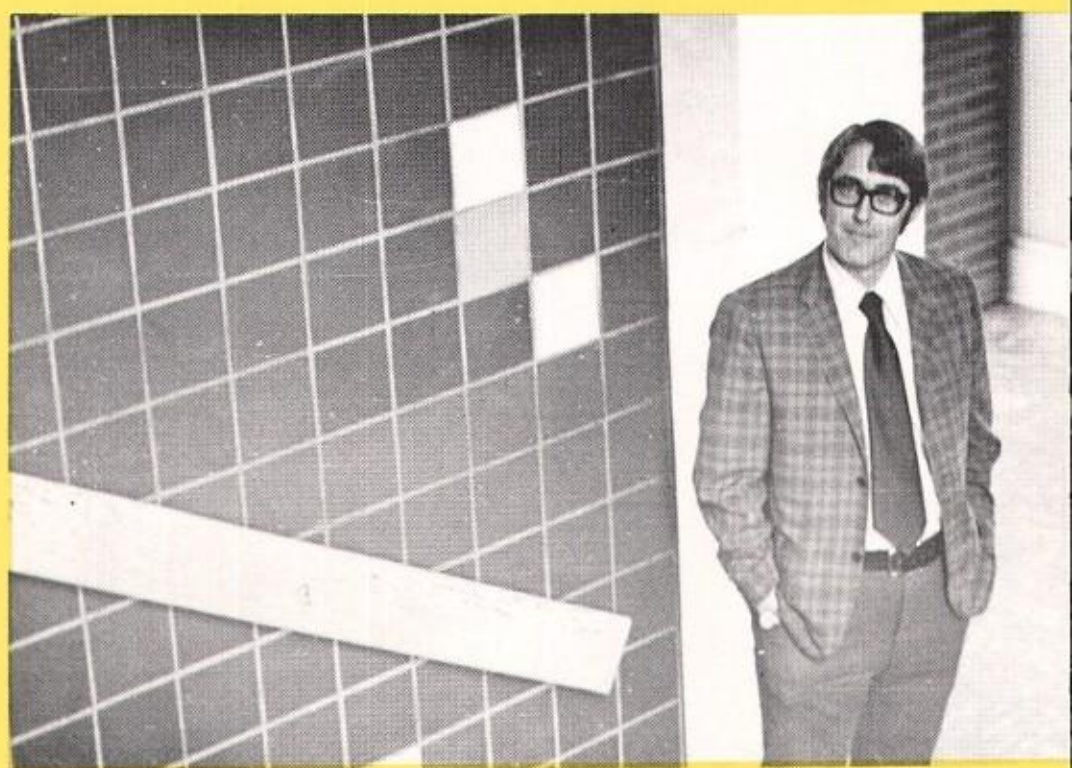

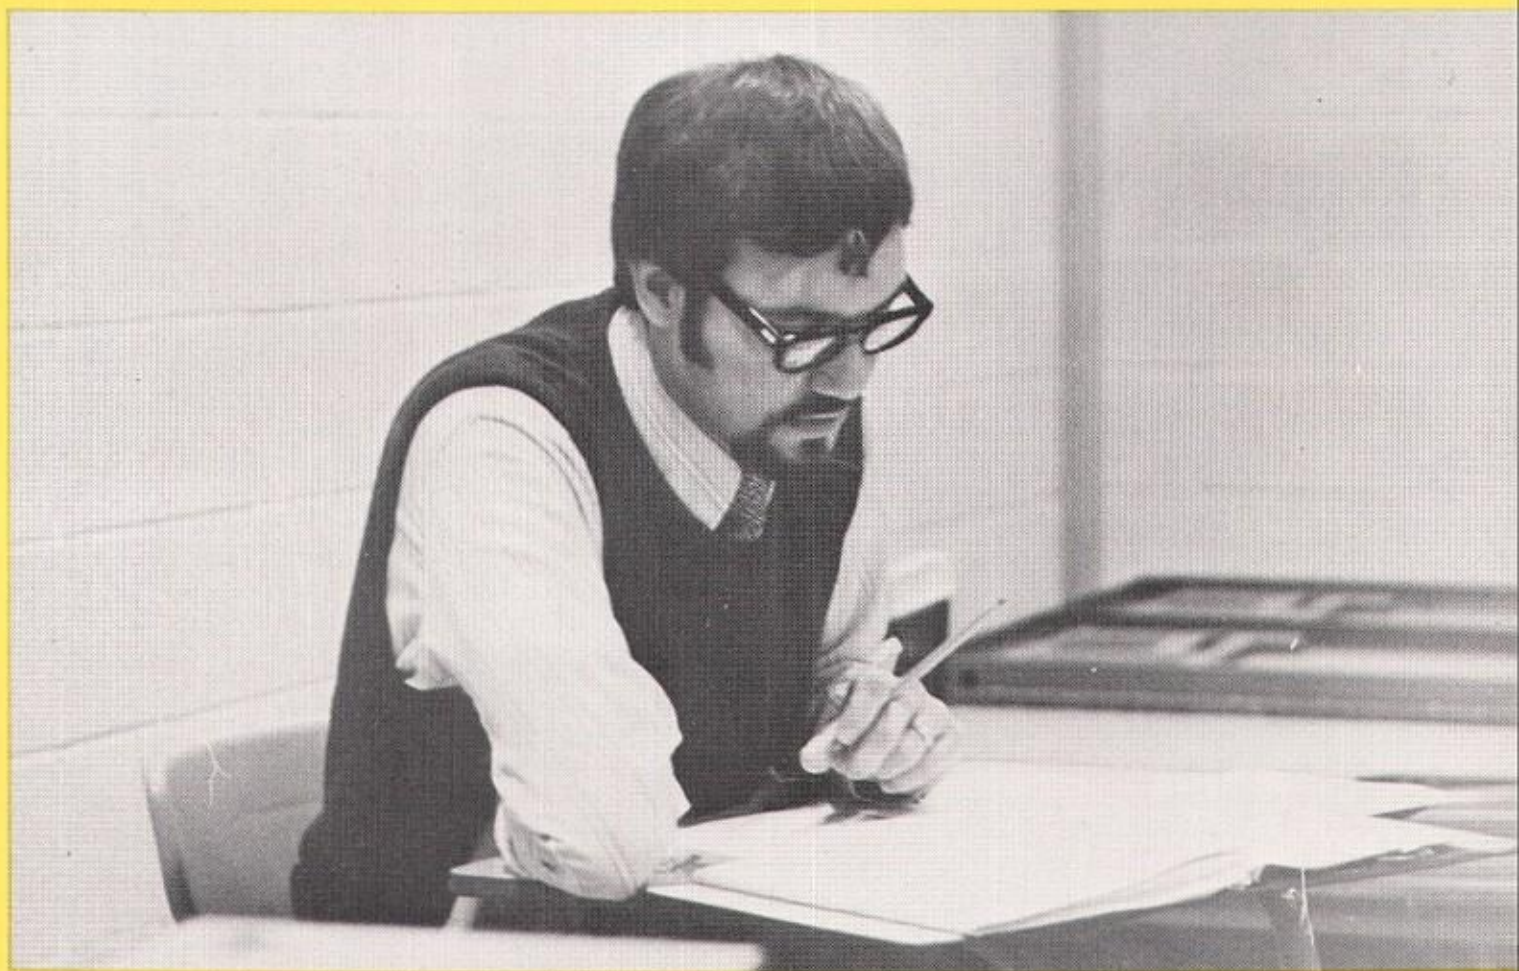

Amidst the flying debris, which didn't help the contacts; forceful winds that conveniently carried hats away at the most inconvenient times, and drops of rain here and there that kept people on the edge of their seats wondering when those black clouds were going to just break loose and pour, 422 graduating seniors received their long awaited diplomas.

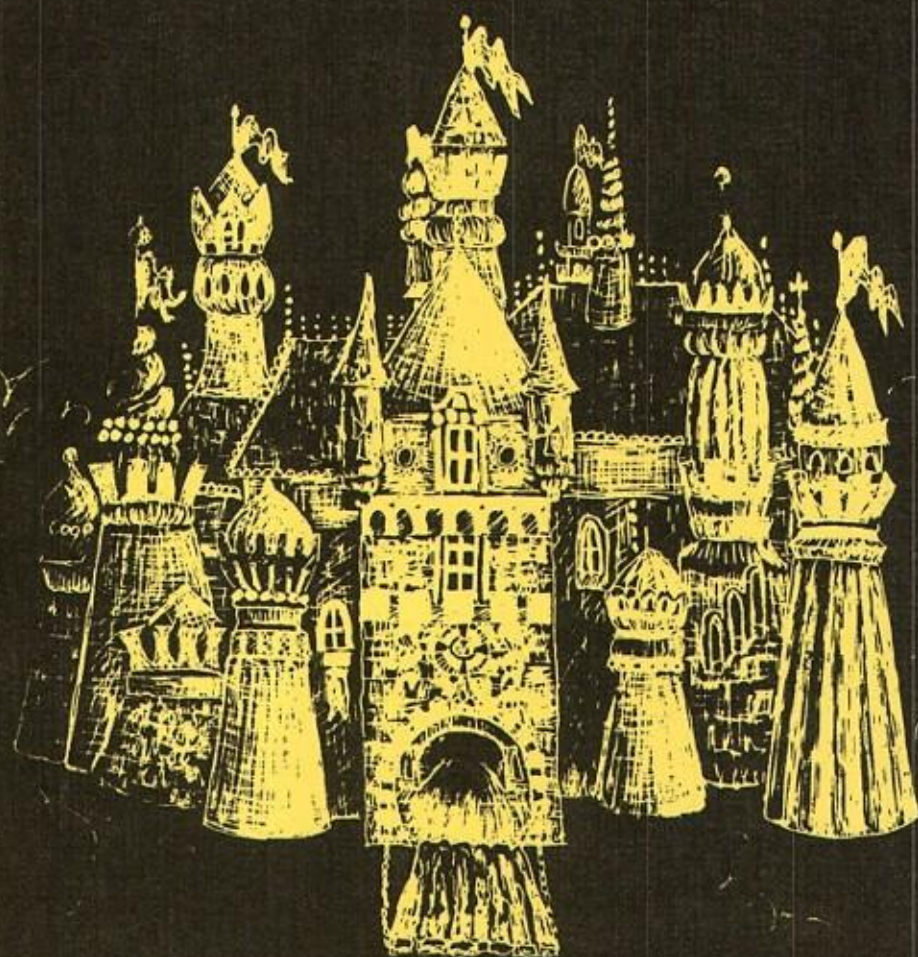

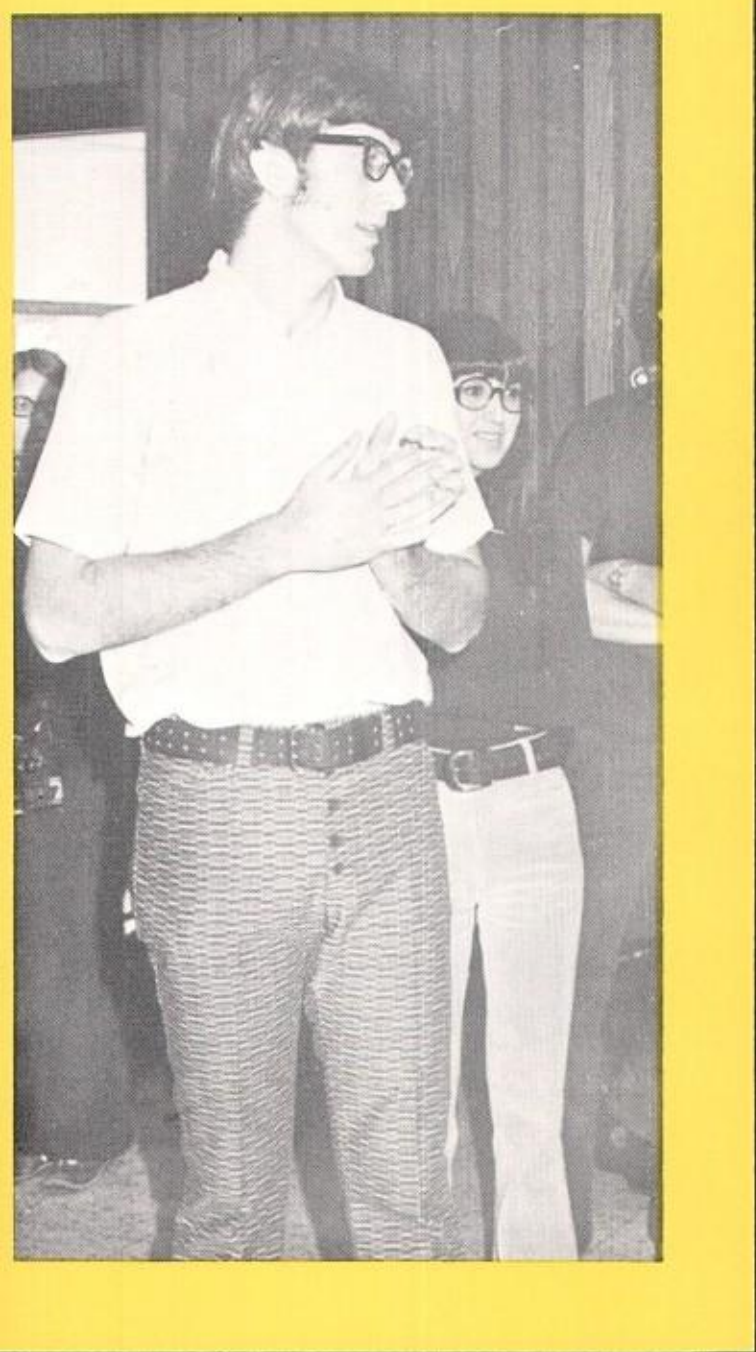

Senior Valedictorian Brenda Fox gave a student address on apathy, entitled, 'It's Time to Wake Up'. Senior Mike Stoltenberg's address was on 'New Horizons'. Mike is also a Valedictorian.

Various seniors were chosen to receive special awards for conduct during their high school years. Senior Scott Donkin was awarded the honor key. Two Citizenship Awards went to seniors Cheryl Johnson and Mike Stoltenberg. Best All-Around Girl was awarded to Debby Meier, and Best All-Around Boy went to Mark Hansen.

After the distribution of the diplomas, a prayer was said by Rev. Dwight Steiner.

The class of 1973—you will be remembered well!!

Guiding foundations

School Board members Keith Lallman, Kathleen Farris, Dr. Stanley Carlson, Rolland Ryerson, Dr. Larry Gausman, Robert Lambourn discuss problems concerning the school during a meeting. The School Board formed a committee to investigate building a new high school.

Administration members decide on major issues

Mr. William Donscheski diligently works on one of the many problems he faces daily.

Everything from spankings to broken windows and cut arms come up in a years' time. To face these problems and many other similar problems which arise daily, are the members of the school administrative staff.

The staff is headed by the School Board which is comprised of six members. This staff makes all final decisions on major problems in the school.

Mr. Lloyd Sexton and Mr. William Donscheski work closely with the School Board and other members of administration. They are the superintendent and assistant superintendent, respectively. Many hours of work are put into their jobs each day.

Best known to high school students are Principal Mr. Gerald Meyer and Assistant Principal Mr. Keith Hughes. Acting as messengers between school officials, Mr. Meyer and Mr. Hughes inform the school board and superintendent of high school news.

Mr. Lloyd Sexton, superintendent of schools, shuffles through paperwork on his desk.

Phylis Ebel, along with others, works daily as a secretary to Mr. Clopper in the Commons.

Mrs. Mabel Hellings, school nurse, records information during a student health check. Students are checked by the nurse every year they are in high school.

Special staffs aid school operations

Muddy halls, bloody noses, and hungry stomachs are the concern of several members of the FHS faculty.

Several janitors put in many hours each week to keep the halls and rooms of the school building clean and shiny. On week-ends they return at night to clean up after basketball games and other school activities.

Mrs. Connie Brand, head of the cafeteria, is responsible for placing food orders and for planning menus.

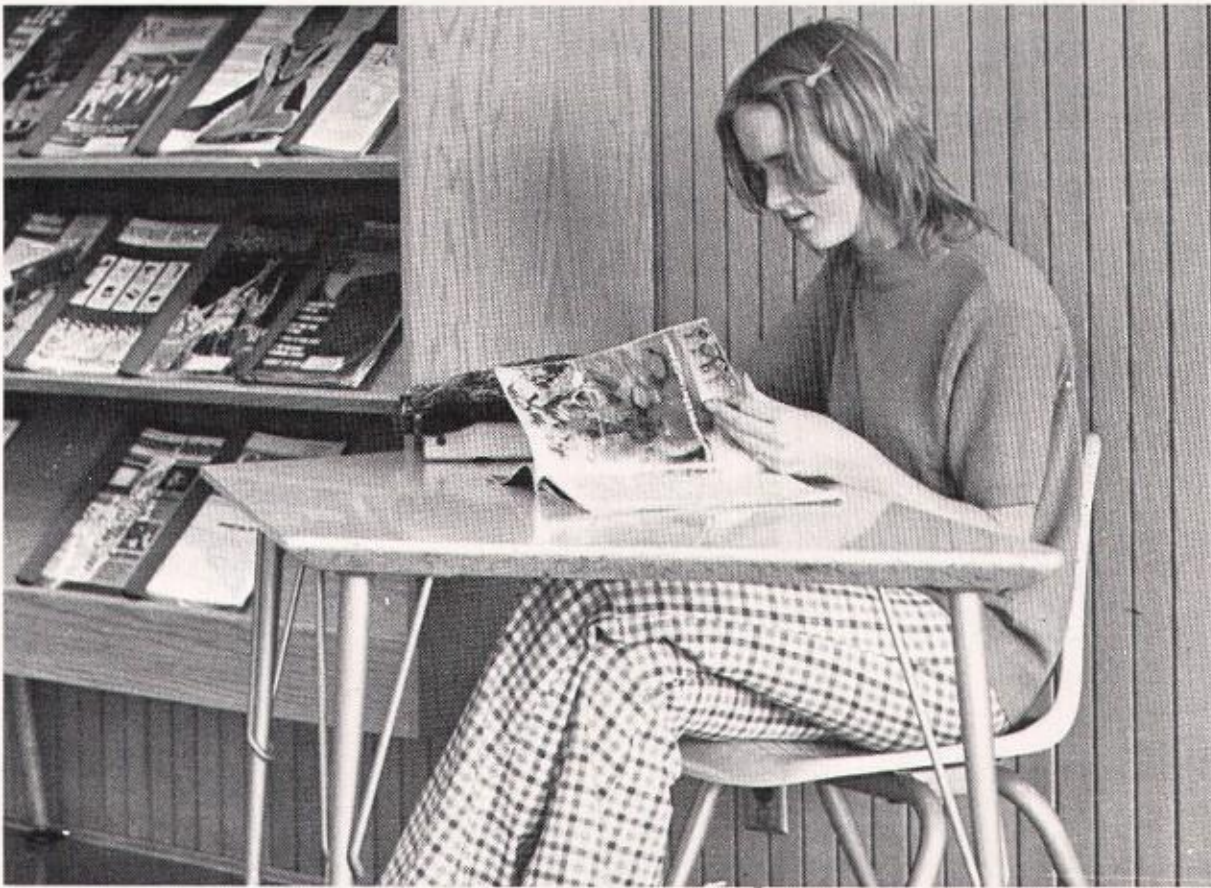

Bloody noses, sprained ankles and jammed fingers are repaired by Mrs. Mabel Hellings, school nurse.

Library offers students various new resources

Junior Sally Taege is one of many girls who relinquishes free periods to work as librarian. She finds magazines, replaces materials for further use and aids in checking out library materials.

The FHS library received new materials daily. Books, filmstrips, sound-filmstrips, records, tapes and film loops were available in dozens of interest and subject areas. A descriptive list was published periodically to inform students and teachers of new materials pertinent to their particular subject areas and interests.

"Students could check out most materials and also use some audio-visual equipment for production of materials for class projects.

"The carpeting of the library between semesters made it an especially attractive and quiet place for students to study and do research," offered Mrs. LaVerle Morehouse who headed the FHS library staff.

"There are many more sources available to the students and any assistance needed can be obtained."

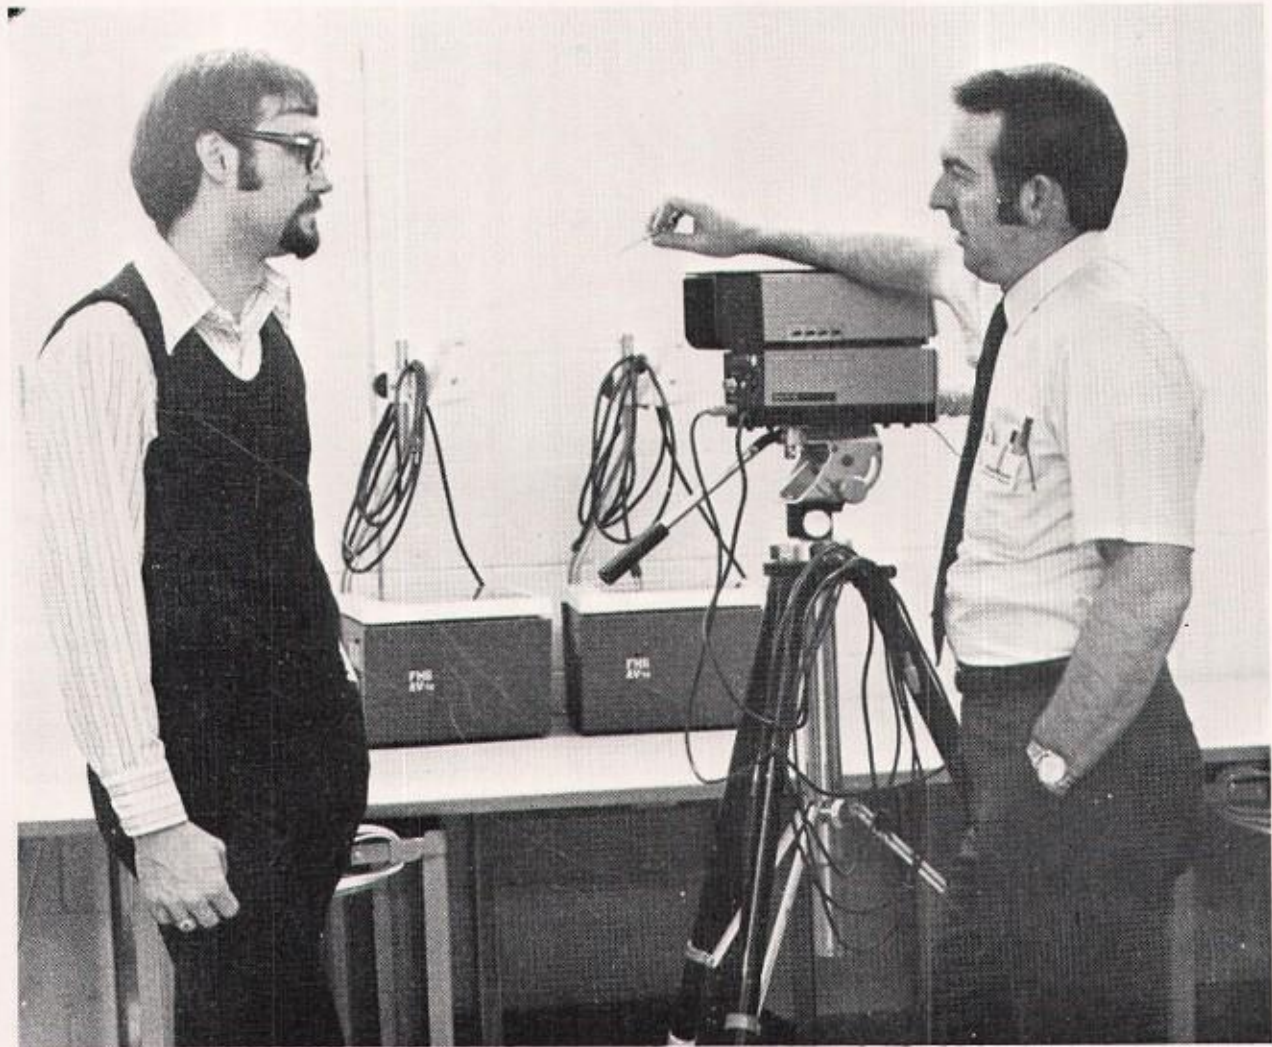

Students occupy their time in the library by studying. Many resources are available to aid students in their work. Magazines, books, and pamphlets are loaned to the students on a daily or weekly basis. Cameras, tape recorders and film equipment are also available for student use.

Mrs. Joan Stenger, library secretary, finds much work involved in her occupation. Mrs. Stenger must catalog books, films and magazines as well as type, answer the phone and aid students when needed.

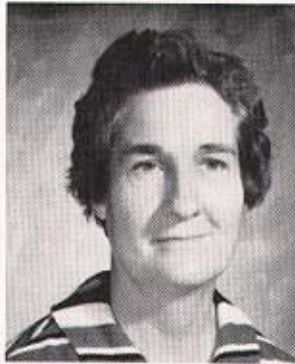

Media Director Mr. Ray Meister gives Mr. Robert Keiper a few helpful hints on the operation of some media equipment. Technical problems often arise that only an experienced staffer can solve.

Being librarian requires a lot of paper work of Mrs. LaVerle Morehouse.

Guidance counselor Mrs. Dorothy Boettner concentrates on work to be done.

Daily students came and went in great numbers through the guidance office. Five FHS counselors were constantly trying to help students, no matter what their problems were.

Class schedules and problems were discussed during individual student conferences. Students were always welcome to visit guidance counselors at any time. Counselors also aided teachers, computed class ranks and took care of changes in curriculum.

Guidance counselor Mrs. Dorothy Boettner stated, "I want to be able to treat everyone as someone special. Today everything has become so computerized that we find ourselves referring to students as numbers rather than the way they really are." Explaining her philosophy in one sentence, Mrs. Boettner explains, "If I can't help someone, it's time to quit!"

Mr. Joseph Stoll and Robert Knigge, guidance counselors, busily work on student schedules. Each semester, schedules had to be checked and class sizes computed.

Classes learn language; investigate new cultures

This year foreign language students traveled from the French Riviera to the German Alps and to the sandy shores of Spain through the pages of their foreign language textbooks.

The foreign language department, staffed by four teachers, offers three foreign languages; French, German and Spanish. Students learn the basics of the foreign language along with culture, history, and songs of the land where the languages originated. The teachers try to provide a real life situation for the students.

Various activities such as games, puppet plays, and skits were performed during the year. One activity involved competition between German and Spanish students. Each class constructed a puppet play which was video-taped and later judged by Mr. Robert Kroenke, Mechanical Drawing instructor.

During Commons supervision, Mrs. Harriet Hafits corrects papers from her English classes. Mrs. Hafits was in charge of seventh period Commons every day and disciplined unruly students.

From the kingdom of Elsinore and Hamlet to demonstrations of popping popcorn trekked the English teachers of FHS. Each year these teachers have come up with something new and exciting to brighten their classes and this year was no exception.

British Literature classes traveled to Omaha to see Oliver and read many novels and plays by British authors such as Hamlet. Mass Media classes visited KOIL radio station and Speech classes gave an assundry of demonstrations including popcorn popping.

This year a new division was added to the English department: a special education section designed to benefit slow students.

Students learn to live in harmony

History classes in FHS not only include World and American History, but Political Behavior, Economics, Behavioral Science and Psychology also.

Mini courses instructed by Mr. Patrick Murphy were classes that added variety to history. The nine week courses studied various aspects of history in detail.

Psychology and Behavioral Science classes instructed students on human behavior and methods to enable the students to live harmoniously with peers and adults. Political Behavior and Economics studied the many facets of America's politics and economy.

Math teachers add computer study

"Present day society collectively needs a great deal of the most sophisticated kind of mathematics for its functioning: it is essential for its very survival. The highly complex problems of the technological society requires complex mathematics to solve them. The demand, therefore, for increased competency in mathematics has become a reality for many. We are striving to meet the demands in the Mathematics Department in Fremont High School," math teacher Mr. Duane Humphrey said.

Computer Math was one course added to the Math Department in an attempt to maintain a meaningful and current curriculum. Also, an electronic calculator was added this year to aid students in their assignments.

Mr. Dale Rohde, mathematics instructor, assists junior Julie Hurt by explaining the solution of a math problem. Mr. Rohde teaches some of the new computer classes this year.

Mr. Dave Wilcox looks over some of his students' papers at the end of a test day. New this year, Mr. Wilcox teaches Algebra and General Math classes.

Checking out a problem on one of the Math Department's new computers is Mr. Duane Humphrey. The computer enabled the department to add new classes and aided students in the solution of problems.

Science students probe into new areas of study

Steve Calta and Patty Johnson crack open a clam while Biology teacher Mr. John Appleget awaits the results. Grasshoppers, worms, fish and starfish were also dissected by students.

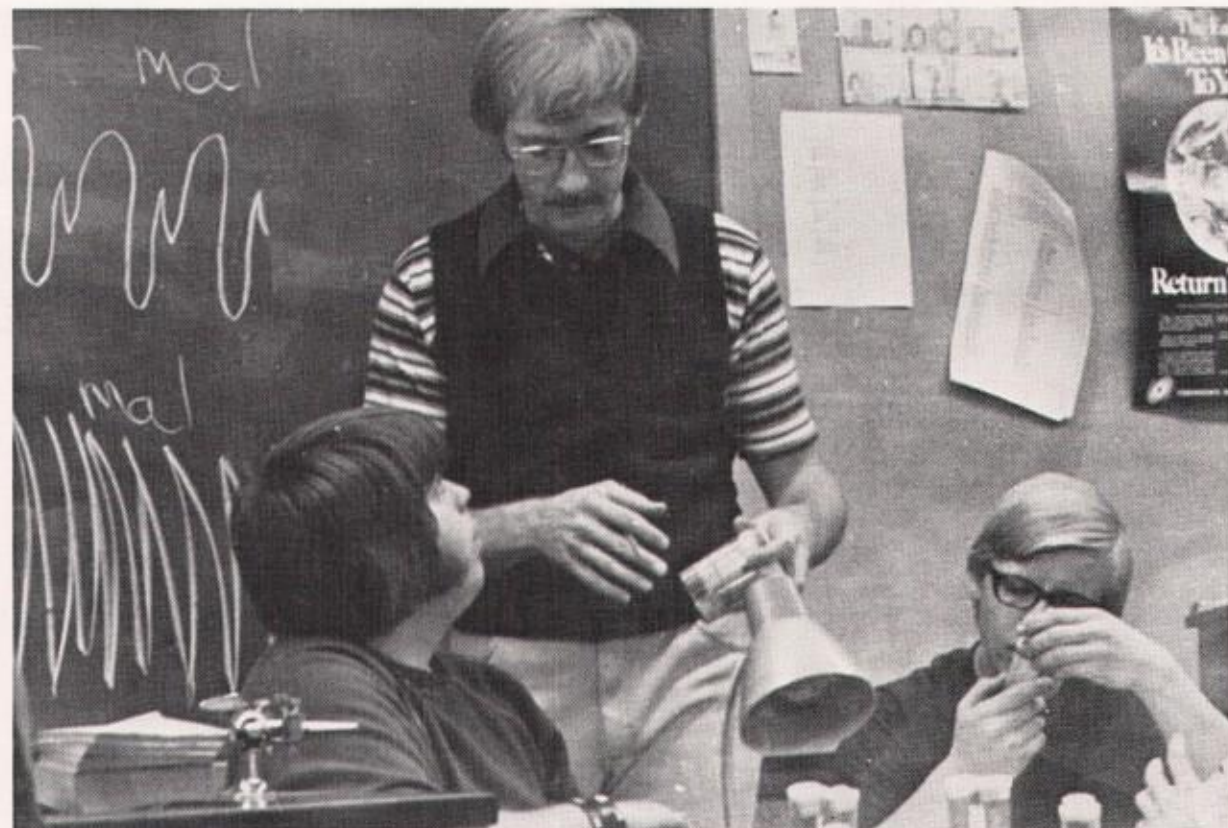

A wide variety of projects were conducted during science classes this year. Dissection of a rhesus monkey and a fetal pig, numerous experiments concerning chemicals, investigations of the parts of the plants in the area and the development of film were examples of such projects.

A new class was introduced into the Science Department this year. Physiology was designed to teach the students, in detail, the complicated operations of the human body.

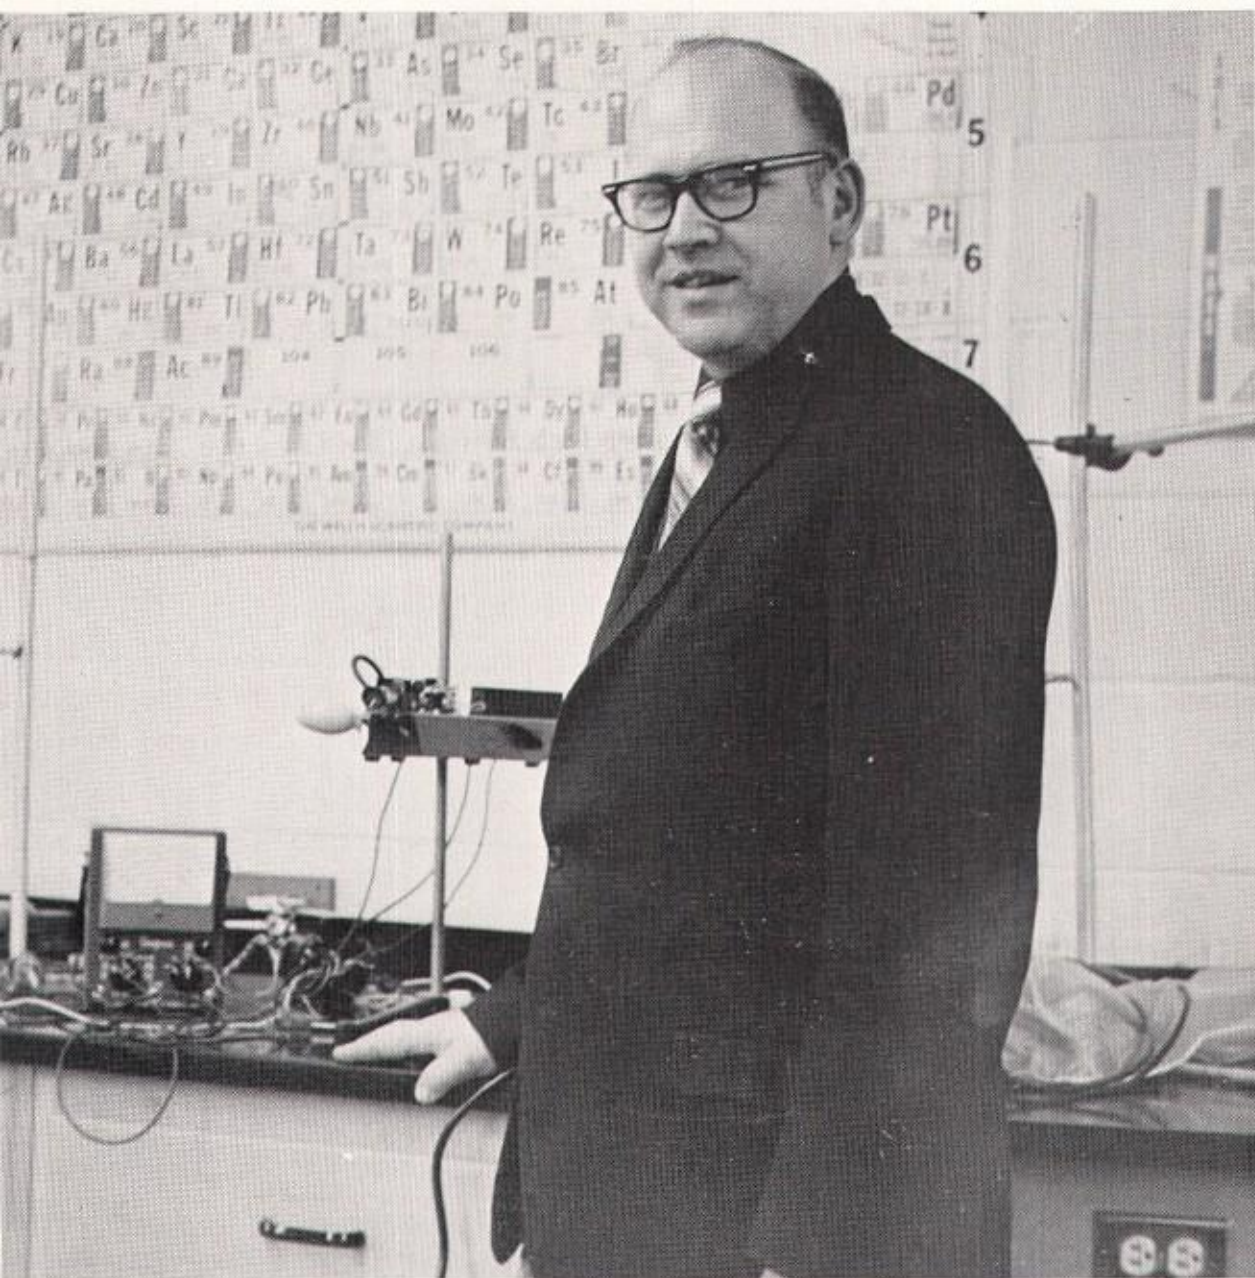

Other classes included Biology, Chemistry, Physics and Advanced Topics.

Senior Scott Brannon investigates a scientific theory in his Physics class.

Physiology instructor Mr. Richard Sandberg explains the method used to determine the sex of a fruit fly to seniors Jeff Jacobsen and Steve Dzingle. Students had the option of doing a class project.

Mr. Lowell Meyer poses happily before his Periodical Chart and an assortment of equipment in his room. Mr. Meyer is a Chemistry and Physics teacher at Fremont Senior High.

Senior Joe Kalina observes intently the confident technique used by Mr. Donald Anderson, Physics and Advanced Topics teacher, to achieve the desired results of a chemistry experiment. Mr. Anderson was happy to aid students seeking help and was frequently asked to do so.

Business class simulates company

Office machines and typing classes produce much work for instructor Mrs. Jeannette Donkin. New techniques will be taught and machines are being bought for Mrs. Donkin's classes each year.

Ever wanted to manage a business? Office Occupations classes were able to experience the functioning of a real office through the simulation of the Lester Hill Corporation. Mr. Kyler Nelson initiated the idea which was used for the first time in business classes this year.

Some business students participated in work programs which enabled them to apply skills they had learned. These students were allowed to leave after fifth period to attend work. Senior Judy Schroeder was awarded the department's merit for outstanding achievement in all areas of business.

Miss Lillian Shultz, shorthand and typing instructor reviews papers for her classes. Many students also came from Bergan High School to take Shorthand and Typing from Miss Schultz. Each year the best shorthand student is given an award for her achievements in the class.

Head of the Business Department is Mr. Kyler Nelson. Here Mr. Nelson takes time during his home room to do some final paperwork for his later classes. This year the Business Department received a new key punch machine for student's use.

Many trivial problems arise during a teacher's day, but business teacher Mr. LeRoy Swanson seems to have more than his share. Mr. Swanson teaches typing and general business classes.

Fine Arts classes offer ways of expressing self

Band instructor Mr. John Bowen gets a toot from senior Melody Watson as junior Nancy Nichols watches. The band competed in many contests both within the state and out this year.

Splish, splash, splosh! Paints, plaster, clay and paper are molded, squeezed and designed into various shapes and sizes for Fine Arts classes.

High notes as well as low are arranged to form a melody for instruments and vocal chords alike.

Musicals, dramas and comedies were three forms of plays presented by the Drama Department, under the direction of Mr. Robert Keiper, drama instructor. Short plays were produced by the drama students and were open to the student body members.

The various classes of the Fine Arts Department promote individuality and creativity in all students. It allowed the freedom needed to create a masterpiece in all the arts classes offered at Fremont High School.

Working back stage are drama instructor Mr. Robert Keiper and senior Marge Heyne. Sets were constructed by the students for all three major plays and for plays given by drama classes.

Art teacher Miss Nell McPherson prepares a solution for use in a project. Many articles were made by students including candles, wall hangings and wood carvings.

Industrial Arts classes improve assorted skills

Mr. Daniel Kelsay points out the steps being taken to repair a student's car. Actual work on damaged automobiles is a vital part of Mr. Kelsay's auto mechanics classes.

A wide assortment of useful skills were taught and improved throughout this year.

Mechanics, floor plans, wood working and construction were the areas in which students were allowed to make their choices. Welding had a break-through this year. No other Industrial Arts class except electronics included a girl. Principal Mr. Gerald Meyer allowed one girl to take welding as a trial for future consideration of girl students in all fields of Industrial Arts.

Mechanics classes were able to work on several autos owned by students as well as one damaged auto donated by a leading Fremont car dealer. Renovation of an old car was another project for Auto Mechanics classes.

Mr. Dennis Einspahr, construction technology teacher aids senior Gary Dather with the finishing touches on one of the many cupboards constructed by the students for use in the school. Many shelves were built and repairs on several pieces of equipment were done by students for practice.

Mr. Larry Pavel, Electronics instructor, assists senior Bob Wallace with an electronics problem. Circuits for lamps and other electrical appliances were planned and assembled by the classes.

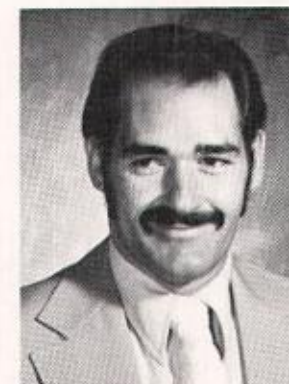

Discussing mechanical drawing principles are instructor Mr. Robert Kroenke and Alan Stieren. Plans for houses, buildings and even cars were drawn during class time.

New teachers aid PE Department

Mr. Al Bahe, physical education instructor and basketball coach observes the progress of a basketball game. Flanking Mr. Bahe are Roger Behl, student manager and Mr. Dennis Blair, assistant coach.

"Fremont is moving ahead to stay in competition with other class A schools. We've accomplished more this year in Physical Education classes as well as track and things will continue to improve," stated Miss Ruth Register, physical education instructor.

"Although attendance in advanced P.E. classes has dropped, outlooks for future years are better," according to Miss Register. "Also, sophomore classes were allowed to participate in archery, football and a new rhythms unit. Tennis and ping pong equipment were ordered this year for use next year." Another addition was three new physical education teachers.

Miss Ruth Register marks down the badminton scores of two physical education students.

Boys embroider in Home Ec class

One of the skills acquired this year by the students in the Bachelor Living class, now in its second year, was embroidery. The boys learned many different stitches and used their new knowledge to decorate their blue jeans.

Among courses offered this year were Clothing and Textiles and Foods and Nutrition taught by Mrs. Sharon Anton. Housing and Decorating, Bachelor Living and Human Development were taught by Mrs. Melanie Gifford. Both taught Family Living.

The students in the Human Development classes took field trips to visit the Opportunity Center and Mary Moppet's Day Care School. They also sponsored a nursery school for pre-schoolers. Various houses in the community were visited by the Housing and Decorating classes. Bachelor Living students were faced with the sewing creation of a bow tie.

During one of her free periods, Home Economics teacher Mrs. Melanie Gifford takes time to deliver a note to the office for an announcement in the next day's homeroom bulletin.

'Road ahead starts new direction'

Approximately 463 new students entered Fremont High on the first day of the 1972-73 school term to comprise the sophomore class. A program for the year was outlined at the first officers' meeting which allowed the class to get off to a good start.

The first activity was that of selling refreshments at a home football game. This event made money for a band and other expenses of the Junior-Senior Prom. The class also sold activity calendars, which proved to be a successful endeavor. As a result of united efforts, the class treasury stood at over $1,000 before Prom.

Due to unfortunate circumstances the sophomore Homecoming display was destroyed, and instead the class decorated the gym with streamers, balloons and a nest of Tigers. Other members helped with the serving of punch, donuts and coffee during the evening.

The spring of '73 found the officers and student council members meeting three hours to make a choice for their class rings. Four styles were selected and placed in the trophy case for the underclassmen to view before voting on the final choice.

Sponsoring the class were Miss Mercedes Reed, Mr. Roger Larsen, Mr. LeeRoy Swanson, Miss Marilyn Keyes, Mrs. Dorothy Boettner and Mr. Richard Sandberg.

Mini-courses added to curriculum

Junior class officers Dan Harms, vice-pres., Sharon Petersen, sec-treas., and Mark Muller, pres. look as if they plan on going places and want to take the up-and-coming class of '74 with them.

In the midst of their high school career juniors found their second year at high school preparing themselves for the responsibility of upperclassmen next year.

Much of their enthusiasm was centered around the Junior-Senior Prom held May 12. The theme of the dance chosen to be "Sunday Afternoon in the Park." The juniors sold calendars to help raise money for the dance.

The juniors received third place for their Homecoming display. They also sold refreshments as a class project at the Homecoming game.

The sponsors for the junior class were Mr. Daniel Kelsay and Miss Ruth Lonn, co-chairmen. Those who assisted were Mrs. LaVerle Morehouse, Mr. William Elwood, Mr. Duane Humphrey and Mrs. JoAnne Krause.

'The best class that could ever be'

Senior class officers, Bob Ritzen, pres.; Peggy Welty, sec-treas.; Kent Lund, vice-pres. clown around and reminisce about their three years at FHS.

... that's the Class of '73,' shouted the seniors down the halls of FHS. This was the class slogan which was chanted at least once during almost every athletic event and pep rally for three years.

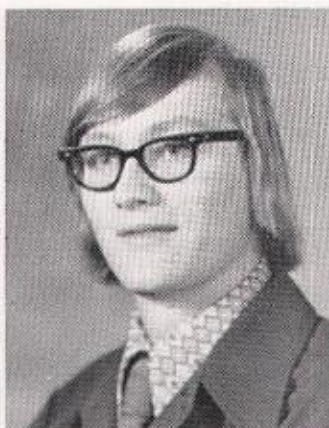

The Class of '73 continued a winning streak by capturing first place in the Homecoming display contest. The victorious paper mache creation was a tiger executing the opponent with a placard which proclaimed, "Let's get a head of Hastings". This was the first class to win top honors three consecutive years.

The Class of '73 continued the tradition of planting a tree on Arbor Day. Also embedded was a time capsule.

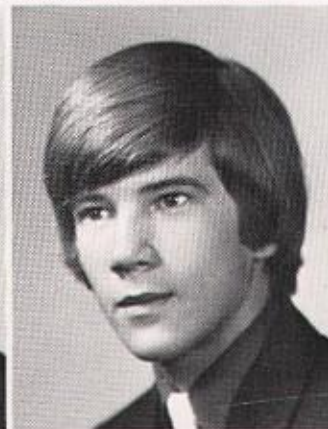

On the seniors' last day of school a flag fashioned from the school's colors was erected in front of the school. All of the seniors gathered around the pole and broke into strains of the Alma Mater.

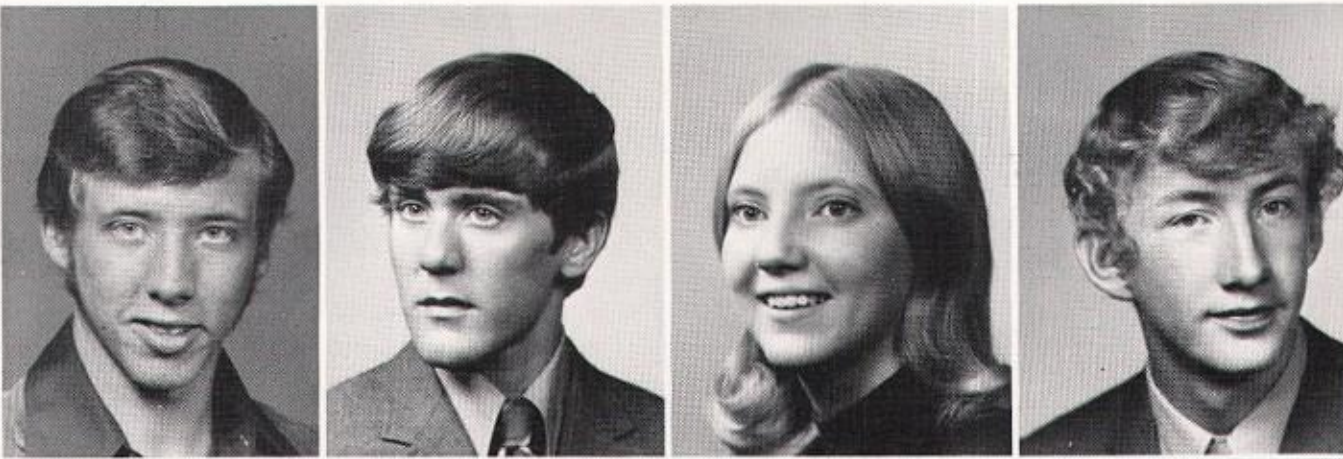

Sponsors of the Senior Class were Mr. Joe Stoll and Miss Lillian Schultz, co-chairmen. Miss Kay Burkholder, Mr. Dennis Einspahr, Mr. Dale Rhode and Mrs. Judith Stroeh assisted.

'We all have hopes and dreams...

With the completion of the 1973 Black and Gold many hopes and one great dream have become a reality. 'Castles in the air' has, from the start, been a joint effort—a composite of the talent and knowledge of many people. It is to those people that this page is dedicated. The staff wishes to express its deepest thanks to these hard-working people:

Mr. Bryan Smith
 Mr. Fritz Logeland
 Mr. George Rasmussen
 Mr. Meyer
 Mr. Clopper
 Mrs. Gordon
 Mrs. Strong
 Mrs. Huggins
 Dave Langer
 Debbie Starkey
 The junior journalists

And a very special thank-you goes to Mrs. Mary Ehling who had enough faith in us to select us for this job and for contributing her time to our 'Castles'. We're going to miss her.

Don't forget

Gonna

We all have hopes and dreams——
Castles in the air;
With hope and work and patience,
Someday we'll make it there.

If you have built castles in the air,
your work need not be lost;
that is where they should be.
Now put foundations under them.

Henry David Thoreau
